THE PARSIFAL PRELUDE.

Prof. McClellan Will Play That, Some Nevin Numbers and Old Melodies-

Tomorrow's organ recital in the Tabernacle will be one of unusual excellence. Prof. McCiellan will play the prelude to the Parsifal, as the late per-formance of it during Prof. Stanley's lecture occasioned a general interest in the city, and many people who failed to be present at the time are very anxious to hear this wonderful music. It was noticed that the performance of the prelude on the great organ was one of the best ever given in the Tabehnacle, and the accessing qualities of the in. the best ever given in the Taberhacle and the orchestral qualities of the in-strumnt were never displayd to bet-ter advantage. Other features of the program will be some Nevin numbers, and one or two old melodies with varia-tions. The recital begins promptly at 5:20.

THE DOUGALL RECITAL. Friday Night's Program Will be Entirely Free and Public is Invited.

The Dougall song recital takes place in the Tabernacle on Friday night as heretofore announced in the Deseret News. It will be entirely free, and the music loving public is cordially invited music loving public is cordially invited to attend. The program is a flue one and will give Salt Lakers an oppor-tunity to judge of the marked im-provement in Mr. Dougall's voice since he was last heard hers. The doors will close promptly at 8:20 and no one will be admitted after that time. Mr. Mc-Ciellan is to assist Mr. Dougall and will render several organ numbers dur-ing the course of the evening.

MAYOR SIGNS IT.

Approves of Resolution Granting Sealer Richards a Conveyance.

The resolution, introduced by Councilman Wells and passed by the city council Monday night, authorizing City Sealer of Weights and Measures Richards to purchase a horse and buggy at a cost of $200 for use in his department, has been approved by Mayor Morris and the purchase will be made at once by Mr. Richards, so that he may continue with the work already well under way by him in a much more satisfactory manner.

HANSEN ARRAIGNED.

Would-be Music Dealer Says He is Not Guilty of Fraud.

In Judge Dishl's court this morning, Siren Hansen was arraigned on the charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. He entered a plea of not guilty, and the case was set for Tuesday morning. It is probable that a more serious charge will be filed against Hansen, in the meantime. It is alleged that he purchased a num-

Former Missouri Judge Sends for an Account of the Execution of Shockley.

A letter was received today by County Clerk James from E. M. Zevely, formerly probate judge of Linn county, Mo., requesting the clerk to send him copies of the daily papers of this city containing the account of the execution of James M. Shockley, who was to have been executed on last Friday. The let-ter contained a money order to pay for the papers, and also for the cigars for the clerk. The writer states that he is a friend of the Shockley family and hence his interest in the matter. Mr. James will notify him that the execu-ulon has been postponed.
