CAR FAMINE.

Old Story on Part of Flockmasters Comes up Again.

As is usual at this time of the year the automobile transportation situation is becoming acute. At every large shipping point in Utah flockmasters are impatiently awaiting the arrival of cars. Everywhere there is reported a car shortage. There is no doubt that the flockmasters are more or less sheepmen and are looking for cars to come to Salt Lake and haul their wool to the market. Every available car is being loaded to take the wool of the sugar beet crop, which will be in order from Utah and Idaho. The flockmasters are more or less sheepmen and are looking for cars to come to Salt Lake and haul their wool to the market.

FACE DAY AT BRIGHAM.

The Hushed Salt Laker's Take the Special Train North.

The crowds that thronged the Oregon Short Line depot this morning before 8 o'clock gazed the eyes of the passengers. By 7:15 there was a line from the ticket window extending across the sidewalk into the street while each streetcar came down loaded to the steps with people all going to take a hand in the festivities at Brigham City incident to the annual Face Day.

Among the local talent that went forth at the solicitation of the amusement companies were Lizzie Thomas, Edward, Elsie Barrow, Best, Mattie, Victor Christensen, Will Phillips, Thomas Ashworth and Wilbur Rupp.

It is said 250 people were on the special train when it pulled out of Salt Lake. Others were picked up at various points along the line, but at Ogden the crowd stormed the cars. Everybody promised to bring a case of beer with them, so when the special returned early tomorrow morning the railroad and streetcar companies will be swamped with freight.

The program which has been prepared for the festivities is as follows: 8 a. m.—Arrival of excursion trains. Excursions conducted to Central Union park by hand. 10 a. m.—Address of welcome, Mayor C. Woodman and Reynolds. They spent $25,000 on Moody, Idaho, on the South Fork, and Moody, Idaho, on the 15-mile Oregon-Salt Lake extension from Elba to Moody. This does not include the thousands of dollars they have expended on the Bench. In bringing their contract of 4,000 acres under cultivation.

Returns to the United States After Pleasant Journey in Europe.

A private dispatch announces the safe arrival in New York yesterday of President Joseph F. Smith and party, who are returning home from their travels in Europe. The telegram states that all are well and that both the ocean voyage and the land trips were much enjoyed. It has been known for some time that President Smith intended to come home via Royalton, N. Y., where he could inspect the cottage and grounds at the beautiful granite monument erected at that place in commemoration of the life and deeds of the prophet Joseph Smith. No definite information is at hand with regard to the actual date of his arrival in Salt Lake.

WIFE BEATER SENTENCED.

S. T. Gardner Was Given 90 Days at Hard Labor in City Jail.

S. T. Gardner, who was arrested by the police yesterday for beating his wife, was before Judge Whitaker this morning on the charge of assault and battery and was convicted.

Judge Whitaker evidently had no sympathy whatever for the fellow. The court sentenced Gardner to a term in the city jail at hard labor "for and during a period" of 90 days. Gardner will have plenty of time to think about his brutality to his wife.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—The fourth performance of "The Wedding Day" went before another big and enthusiastic audience last night. The wind-up of the season occurs this afternoon and evening, and the sale goes right along without any diminution. That a home company should have been able to give six consecutive performances to such handsome business, with all the other theaters in the city going at full blast, is a decided tribute to the popularity of the local organization.

Orpheum—This week's bill at the Orpheum bids fair to be the hit of the season to date. Each act presented is high-standard modern vaudeville. Despite the somewhat suggestive playlet which is the headliner, the audiences are enjoying themselves to the top of their bent. If enthusiastic applause is any criterion.

Grand—"The Holy City," which has made a decided impression on Grand patrons, closes tonight. Tomorrow evening the Mahara Tomirels open an engagement.

Loric—"The Winning Hand" runs along steadily to prosperous business and will fill out the remainder of the week.

PATRIARCH WILLIAM PRICE.

Who Died Yesterday Full of Years and Honors After an Active and Useful Life—Funeral Friday at 11 A. M.

William Price, an early settler of Utah, and for 36 years bishop of Goshen, Utah county, died at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. For some time he had been residing at 288 D street in this city. Funeral services will be held at the Twentieth ward meeting-house on Friday, commencing at 11 a. m.

The deceased was a native of Len, Gloucestershire, England, and was born Dec. 4, 1818. In March, 1841, he became a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, being baptized by Elder Thomas Pitt at Dymock. With his mother, one brother and two sisters, Mr. Price sailed from Liverpool, and ten weeks later landed at New Orleans. The destination of the family was Nauvoo, Illinois, where they arrived in the spring of 1843, having spent the winter at St. Louis. They were among the exiles from Illinois in 1846, and reached Utah in 1852.

Mr. Price led a very active life, engaging in various military affairs in an early day of the territory, and he performed a great deal of missionary work for his Church. He became bishop of Goshen in 1890, and retained that position until 1896, when he was honorably released and was ordained a patriarch.

Mr. Price left a large family, among his children residing in Salt Lake being C. Stanley Price, a well known young attorney, and Miss May Price, for a long time an employee of the Utah Light & Railway company.

A Pickpocket's Trick.

A great crowd, cheering bravely watched the parade pass by. "Now," said Lecoq the detective, "I'll show you a pickpocket's trick. And he shouted in an authoritative voice:

"Look out for your valuables, gents. There's crooks about."

Instantly, upon all sides, men's hands went to their pockets. One rammed his fist into his hip pocket; one touched a waistcoat pocket; one shielded with his palm a small projection in the breast pocket of his coat. And so on indefinitely.

"Now," said Lecoq, "we know where all these men's valuables are, don't we? If we were crooks, we'd know in each case what pocket to attack, wouldn't we?"

PERUNA PRAISED.

MRS. ESTHER M. MILNER.

Box 321, DeGraff, Ohio.

Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Sir:—

I was a terrible sufferer from pelvic weakness and had headache continuously. I was not able to do my housework for myself and husband. I wrote you and described my condition as nearly as possible. You recommended Peruna. I took four bottles of it and was completely cured. I think Peruna a wonderful medicine and have recommended it to my friends with the very best of results.

Esther M. Milner.

Very few of the great multitude of women who have been relieved of some pelvic disease or weakness by Peruna ever consent to give a testimonial to be read by the public.

There are, however, a few courageous, self-sacrificing women who will for the sake of their suffering sisters allow their names to be published.

Mrs. Milner is one of these. In her gratitude for her restoration to health she is willing that the women of the whole world should know it. A chronic invalid brought back to health is no small matter. Words are inadequate to express complete gratitude.
