

Society

Social Chat

The largest social affair of the week was the garden party at Vandamere on Tuesday afternoon given by Mrs. C. G. Plummer and Mrs. F. A. Druehl, about 300 guests being present. There were given upon entering the grounds by a band of music and a program of music and readings by well known artists. Refreshments were served by a large of young girls and the affair was in every way delightful.

A pretty affair of Tuesday was the bridge tea given by Mrs. T. G. Webster and Miss Webster, the rooms being beautifully decorated in red and white and about eight tables played. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett, Mrs. McCaskey, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. Lockwood and Mrs. J. E. Daine.

Miss Mary Olive Gray was hostess at a musicale this afternoon in honor of Miss Roscoe Williamson one of June's brides. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of flowers, the parlor being in red and white with peonies and marguerites, and the dining room in honeysuckle, syringa and pansies. Among those who took part in the program were Miss Mattie Head, Miss Edna Weaver, Miss Esther Allen, Miss G. Rogers, Miss Beatrice O'Connor, Miss Maud Thorne, Miss Emily Jessup, Miss Edna Bailey and Miss Lenore Morse. About 50 were present.

Mrs. H. F. Horton entertained at a Kensington on Wednesday for her guest, Mrs. L. V. Voorhees, the rooms being decorated in snowflakes and a number of intimate friends being present.

Miss Addie Cannon and Miss Laura Young entertained at a party at Vandamere on Thursday, in honor of Miss Mattie Young and Mr. Nephil L. Morris whose marriage takes place next Wednesday. An elaborate dinner was served and dancing enjoyed, about 25 being present.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Tuttle entertained at an elaborate dinner on Monday evening in honor of Capt. and Mrs. Bishop of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Mrs. and Mr. N. N. Tuttle of Pittsburg, the decorations being effectively done in yellow and covers laid for 12 guests.

Miss Helen Sautschki entertained at dinner on Monday for Miss Glaser and Miss Mahan, about a half dozen being present.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. W. W. Rivers entertained her card club, prizes going to the hostess and to Miss Stevens.

Mrs. D. C. DeGraff was hostess at a tea party on Monday afternoon, the decorations being chiefly white marguerites, and prizes won by Mrs. Jack Reeves and Mrs. S. Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cutler, Jr., entertained at a dinner on Monday night, the table being decorated in red peonies and carnations, and covers laid for 26 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steiner entertained their bridge club on Monday night.

Samuel Newhouse entertained at dinner on Tuesday night for Mrs. E. W. Cole and Mrs. Walter Hill, who are the guests of their cousin, Mrs. D. S. Murray.

Members of the eighth grade class of the Lafayette school gave a dancing party at the Ladies' Literary club on Tuesday night in honor of the graduating members of the same class.

Miss Elsie Hansen was guest of honor at a luncheon on Monday, given by Miss Claire Little, the decorations being in carnations and covers laid for about a dozen guests.

Miss Dolly Holt was guest of honor at a Kensington today, given by Mrs. Combs.

A large number of box parties were given at the opening appearance of the new company at the Orpheum on Monday night, among the hosts being President Joseph Smith, Gov. Cutler, Mr. Samuel Newhouse and others.

Miss Ruth Kingsbury, who is visiting her cousin, Miss Lella Stingley, was entertained at dinner at the University club by Mr. J. J. Campbell on Wednesday night, and afterward at a theater party for the "Twelfth Night" performance.

On Wednesday Miss Kingsbury was guest of honor at a luncheon at the Country club, given by Miss Stingley, the decorations being in white carnations and ferns, and covers laid for about 20 guests. Bridge was played afterward.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Porter entertained at dinner at the Kenyon on Wednesday night in honor of Miss Bess Hall and Mr. Frank Dele, whose marriage takes place next week.

Mrs. E. Bonnemort has issued invitations for a tea Thursday afternoon, June 4, at her home on east South Temple, in honor of her daughter, Mrs. F. L. Albritton, of Montana.

Mrs. Louis Cecil Robinson and Miss Mayne Noble have issued invitations for a tea to be given at the Noble home next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett entertained at a luncheon on Wednesday at the Country club, her decorations being wild flowers, and bridge following the luncheon. The guests were Mrs. William McCaskey, Miss Knott, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. Thomas Davis, Mrs. M. S. Woodward, Mrs. M. H. Kriebel, Mrs. J. R. Folson, Miss Edith Shearn, Mrs. J. Winsor, V. Rice, Mrs. J. P. McGeath, Mrs. O. J. Powers, Mrs. George C. Moore and Miss Ruthrauff.

Mrs. John C. Daly was hostess at a Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver left for Europe yesterday where they will join their daughter, Lillian, in Paris, France.

Five hundred party on Wednesday in honor of Miss Beatrice O'Connor and Mrs. R. W. Glendinning, the rooms being beautifully decorated with a profusion of roses and peonies, and prizes won by Mrs. L. R. Brown and Mrs. Ralph McElroy in the card contest, while special prizes were awarded the two guests of honor.

Mrs. F. E. McGurkin entertained at a luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. L. D. Bache, who leaves shortly for San Francisco, the decorations being in red peonies, and covers laid for about a half dozen.

Mrs. May Carney and Miss Nell Caffall were hostesses at a china shower party on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. A. D. Caffall in honor of Miss Lila Giles, one of the month's brides. The rooms were decorated in pink and white carnations and the refreshments were also in the two colors. About 20 guests were present.

Two delightful affairs of the week were those given at the Howat home, about 15 guests being entertained at each. The decorations were lavish and effective and prizes were awarded in the bridge contest at each table. The hostesses were assisted in serving by intimate friends.

Mrs. George W. Parks entertained at a luncheon on Wednesday, the decorations being in pink and white peonies, with place cards hand painted in the same colors, and covers laid for eight. Bridge followed the luncheon.

About 20 guests were present at the bridge party given by Mrs. H. G. Brockman on Wednesday, the decorations being in red roses, and prizes won by Mrs. John Reed and Mrs. W. S. Adams. Assisting were Mrs. Charles Twine and Miss Mayer.

Miss Beatrice Davis, whose marriage takes place this month, was guest of honor at a luncheon yesterday given by Mrs. W. W. Ames.

Mrs. Frank Roberts gave a bridge tea yesterday in honor of her guest, Mrs. De Wolf Beaver.

Mrs. L. M. Mailey has issued invitations to a luncheon for next Monday.

One of Thursday's pleasant affairs was the luncheon given by Mrs. L. Grande Young for her daughter, Mrs. Kerr, and Mrs. J. R. Folson, the decorations being in red roses, and prizes won by Mrs. John Reed and Mrs. W. S. Adams. Assisting were Mrs. Charles Twine and Miss Mayer.

orations being in wild flowers and covers laid for 12 guests.

Miss Lucile Paul entertained at a box party at the Salt Lake Theater on Friday evening.

Miss Edith Maynes will give a large luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Elsie Hansen.

Mrs. Freeman Morningstar entertained yesterday at a delightful Kensington.

Miss Minette Baer gave an informal musicals yesterday at the Bransford.

Mrs. W. H. Alexander was hostess at a card party yesterday at the Bransford.

Mrs. A. D. F. Reynolds gives a children's party this afternoon for her little daughter Aline.

Mrs. C. P. Brinkman will be hostess at a bridge tea this afternoon.

June! It is here and scores of hearts are beating high at the thought. The month of roses brings always a swarm of bridal events and this year, it possibly the list is augmented, the many marriages to include those of some of our best known young people. Below is a review of the announcements to be consummated in the popular bridal month.

The marriage of Miss Harriet Young.

Mrs. E. J. Fabian has gone east, and before returning will attend the commencement exercises at Yale, where her son Harold will graduate.

Mrs. W. E. Terhune is home from Long Beach, where she has spent the past year with her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Wall.

Mrs. L. C. Adam of southern Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. J. Bamberg, have gone to Los Angeles and San Diego, where they will spend the next few weeks before returning to New York.

Mrs. W. Montague Perry and her two boys will leave next week for Michigan, where they will spend the summer with Mrs. Perry's father.

Mrs. C. O. Whittemore is back from Los Angeles, where she has been visiting her daughter, Miss June Whittemore.

Mrs. L. C. Miller left this week for a visit with friends in the east, and will later be joined by Mr. Miller and together with a party of friends will go to Europe.

Mrs. Nellie C. Little and Miss Little leave next week for the Jamestown exposition.

Miss Colburn leaves after the school term at Rowland hall for an extended stay in France.

Mrs. George A. Lowe will leave next week for New York, Boston, and other eastern points.

Miss Katherine Judge has returned from the east, where she spent some months and also visited her sister, Mrs. Baldwin, at Fort Leavenworth.

Mad. and Mrs. Allen M. Smith leave Fort Douglas today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Childs have moved and are now in their new home 112 east South Temple.

Mrs. Lane and her daughter, Miss Vera, have returned after spending the winter in California.

Mrs. Carl Fries of Milwaukee, formerly Miss Maye Crane of this city, will be here next week to spend the summer with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hammel are here and will be at home after the middle of June at Mrs. E. O. Lee's apartments in the Miller flats.

Mrs. Greenwood from California is visiting her son, A. E. Greenwood, on First street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. J. Bamberg, have gone to Los Angeles and San Diego, where they will spend the next few weeks before returning to New York.

Mrs. W. Montague Perry and her two boys will leave next week for Michigan, where they will spend the summer with Mrs. Perry's father.

Mrs. C. O. Whittemore is back from Los Angeles, where she has been visiting her daughter, Miss June Whittemore.

Mrs. L. C. Miller left this week for a visit with friends in the east, and will later be joined by Mr. Miller and together with a party of friends will go to Europe.

Mrs. Nellie C. Little and Miss Little leave next week for the Jamestown exposition.

Miss Colburn leaves after the school term at Rowland hall for an extended stay in France.

Mrs. George A. Lowe will leave next week for New York, Boston, and other eastern points.

Miss Katherine Judge has returned from the east, where she spent some months and also visited her sister, Mrs. Baldwin, at Fort Leavenworth.

Mad. and Mrs. Allen M. Smith leave Fort Douglas today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Childs have moved and are now in their new home 112 east South Temple.

Mrs. Lane and her daughter, Miss Vera, have returned after spending the winter in California.

Mrs. Carl Fries of Milwaukee, formerly Miss Maye Crane of this city, will be here next week to spend the summer with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hammel are here and will be at home after the middle of June at Mrs. E. O. Lee's apartments in the Miller flats.

Mrs. Greenwood from California is visiting her son, A. E. Greenwood, on First street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wantland have moved and are now at home at 327 Third street.

Mrs. Arthur B. Wilcher is here from Elly with her little daughter Babbie and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

Miss Vera Dean has returned from Los Angeles after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best.

RIBBON LACED JACKET

Mr. Emilie Jensen is visiting his family after his return from the east before going back to his work.

Miss Lucile Jensen is at home after visiting her mother, Mrs. Barney White. Mr. Harding will also be here from the east in the course of a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Stack returned Monday from a visit in Salt Lake City.

William Dunn moved his family to Provo Monday last, but will continue himself to stay in Eureka.

Mrs. M. R. E. Sullivan spent Sunday with her mother at Payson.

William Clayton was up from Payson Sunday and Monday, playing with the Union band in their concert and dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust J. Henriod announce the wedding of their daughter, Miss Emma, to Jerry A. Murphy to take place at the home of the bride's parents on upper Main street next Tuesday, June 4.

On next Tuesday the reception in honor of the marriage of Miss Adelaide Franks to Mr. Isaiah C. Holladay will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Franks, at 8 o'clock.

Fred Ott of the Beck Tunnel spent Sunday in Payson.

William Hatfield was up from Provo this week for the purpose of visiting some of the mines in which he is interested.

B. F. Hodson has moved his family to Spanish Fork.

Mrs. Thomas Stewardson and daughter, Mrs. George Schilling, were in Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. John Hupfer was a Salt Lake visitor the early part of the week.

Frank McHattan has been visiting in Payson this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hales attended the Noho state conference at Payson Sunday last.

Braxton Barnett of Mammoth spent last Sunday with his family at Spring Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCloud were in Payson last Sunday.

Dyke W. Keedy and Carl F. Dietz of the May Day concentrating plant arrived last Saturday from their trip of two months in the east.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles held memorial services in the Odd Fellows' hall Sunday evening and the following interesting program was listened to by an exceptionally large audience: Opening announcement, Dr. J. A. Hensel; opening hymn, members Silver City Aerie No. 217; "Sometime, Somewhere," Mrs. Thurmond and Mrs. Wirthlin; oration, Rev. Pay Odden; and the guests of Mrs. John Anderson this week.

Mr. Paul Johnson and Mr. Ronald Jones of Logan were guests of Mr. Russell Wright Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of last week.

Emmett Browning returned home this week from his studies in dentistry at Chicago.

Mrs. E. A. Larkin left Ogden Monday for Philadelphia, where she will spend the summer visiting with her mother.

Miss Tillie Peterson has gone to Chicago to spend the summer.

The Weber Stake academy pupils had several social gatherings this week. Last evening the graduating class, numbering 18, was given a reception and held at the new academy dance hall. The grand concert given Thursday evening at the hall was enjoyed by over 500 guests. The program was very creditable.

PROVO.

The Nineteenth Century club held its last meeting of the season Friday, with members of the club at Olmsted. A very pleasant social session was held.

The last meeting this season of the Bessie was held Wednesday with Mrs. Frederick Cliff, being chiefly social in its nature. Refreshments were served.

The Pallas club did not meet this week on account of the day of mourning being Memorial day. The Pallas club postponed its meeting on account of commencement exercises. All the members of the Pallas club had their photographs taken in a group at Hufon's gallery Thursday forenoon.

The officers and teachers of the Fourth ward Sunday school gave a social shower in honor of Mrs. Leah Pyre, Friday, at the home of Mrs. Roy Pansy.

Mrs. W. R. Pike is here from St. George visiting her mother, Mrs. Newell Knudsen.

Miss Alta Nowcomb is here from Clinton county, visiting friends.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Rev. H. Story and Christina Pl.

SMART SEPARATE COAT IN GREEN TAFFETA

Very serviceable and dressy are these little separate coats of colored or black taffeta. They are usually of the bolero order or extend a very short distance below the waistline. The one illustrated is of a soft green taffeta trimmed with a heavy dyed green lace, the silk being cut away beneath the lace to show a creamy sunshining color lining. The entire coat is lined with the mouseline de soie the lining being elaborated with lace frills until it is almost, if not quite, as dressy as the outside. Bands of black satin and reverse of white mouseline are added touch to smartness.

WEDDING BELLS

June! It is here and scores of hearts are beating high at the thought. The month of roses brings always a swarm of bridal events and this year, it possibly the list is augmented, the many marriages to include those of some of our best known young people. Below is a review of the announcements to be consummated in the popular bridal month.

The marriage of Miss Harriet Young.

Mrs. E. J. Fabian has gone east, and before returning will attend the commencement exercises at Yale, where her son Harold will graduate.

Mrs. W. E. Terh