CURRENT EVENTS.

A Singular Decision.

PHOENIX, Ariz., June 12.—Chief Justice Gooding has just decided that the Edmunds act and other acts of Congress leveled at polygamy and unlawful cohabitation, apply to Arizona and all Territories and places under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States except the District of Columbia.

Returned Elder.

Elder James Woolstenhule, of Kamas, Summit County, has just returned from a mission to England, for which place he started from his home April 10, 1889. He labored in the Manchester conference with indifferent success until released from his mission April 25th last. During the last month he has been visiting relatives and friends in the East.

Elder Woolstenhule returns to Utah in good health and spirits.

Information Wanted.

J. F. Nelson, of Chicago, formerly of Nykobing, Zealand, Denmark, is in this city in search of a sister who left Denmark in 1864 as Mrs. Nels Jorgensen and came to Utah. After her arrival in this Territory she is said to have married a brick manufacturer named Hansen, by whom she had three or four children. Up to twelve years ago she corresponded regularly with her brother, Mr. Nelson, who has since lost her address.

If Mrs. Hansen or her children will communicate with Mr. Nelson at this office, or the Knutsford hotel, they will learn something to their advantage.

The Church Cases.

In the course of the business of the Supreme court, June 12th, United States District Attorney Varian inquired of Chief Justice Zane as to the probable date of the court's adjournment for the present term. His reason for asking this was that the mandate of the Supreme Court of the United States in what was known as the Church cases would doubtless be received within a short time, and if the opinion of the Supreme court was correctly reported in the public press, it would be necessary for this court to appoint a master to whom to refer certain matters involved.

Judge Zane said the Territorial Supreme court would determine, before its adjournment, what action should be taken.

Rev. Sam Small.

The following self-explanatory dispatch was received last night:

ATLANTA, Ga., June 10.—The report of the finding of the Ogden Methodist conference, in which it finds the Rev. Sam W. Small short in his accounts and leaves him to be dealt with by the Georgia conference, occasions surprise among Methodists here. Rev. Dr. I. S. Hopkins says: "Mr. Small quit our communion long before he went to Utah and was under appointment for orders in the Episcopal church, of which he had become a member, when he disgusted them by making another somersault into the Northern Methodist church. The Georgia conference has no responsibility whatever for him."

The workings of the Berlin treaty are also stated to be a source of much dissatisfaction among the islanders.

The "Sea Waif" left Apia May 1 with the bodies of twenty American sailors drowned at the time of the hurricane in March 1889. Their remains will be interred at Mare Island, Cal.

The Commercial Advertiser of Honolulu prints a statement that Wilcox and Bush, leaders in the late Hawaiian insurrection, are again stirring up the natives and that a proposition is afoot to seize the Queen who is visiting neighboring islands and hold her captive until she consents to bring about a modification of the constitution so as to shut out whites from any voice in the government and put natives in power.

A Catholic Sensation.

PITTSBURG, June 12.—The doings of Father Mollinger the priest-physician, have lately furnished material for many sensational stories. The reverend father today made a statement from the steps of the schoolhouse. He said no preference would be shown any one. The weak and most sorely afflicted ones, especially women and infants, will be attended to first. The scenes at Troy Hill were more thrill-
