HONORS TO THE DEAD.

Preparations for the Funeral of General Sheridan.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The following telegram was sent this afternoon:

NONQUITT:—Secretary of War, Washington, D. C.:—It is Mrs. Sheridan's wish that her husband be buried with military honors and that at the same time there should be no display beyond what pertains to a strictly military funeral in proper respect of his rank. Will you be kind enough to authorize such a funeral and place the matter under charge of General Schofield? The funeral will be in Washington, but when and where I cannot yet say. Perhaps it would be well for General Schofield to come here.

M. V. SHERIDAN.

The following dispatch was received from Col. Sheridan this morning:

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington. General J. M. Schofield, Governor's Island, N. Y. Harbor:—I leave it to your discretion whether to go to Nonquitt as requested. You are hereby directed to make the necessary arrangements in regard to the funeral train to bear the body to Washington. By request of Mrs. Sheridan, her husband will be buried with military honors with no display beyond what pertains to a strictly military funeral in proper respect to his rank. This request will be strictly complied with, and the escort will conform to regulation 631 relating to a funeral escort to a general-in-chief, and you will issue orders for such troops to assemble as may be necessary to complete this escort. You will detail the necessary guard and bearers to go to Nonquitt, and accompany the remains to Washington. Please ascertain from Mrs. Sheridan whom she wishes designated in the orders as pall bearers. Please inform me from time to time in regard to the arrangements, place of burial and the day of the funeral if still undecided. Your dispatch to the Adjutant-General of this morning received. WM. C. ENDICOTT,

Secretary of War.

The funeral escort under regulation 631 is as follows: A regiment of infantry, a battalion of cavalry and two light batteries.

THE PALL BEARERS.

The following pall bearers have been selected by General Sheridan's family: General W. T. Sherman, Marshall Field, of Chicago, General Hawley of the United States Senate, Speaker Carlisle, Vice-President Frank Thomson of the Pennsylvania Railroad, General Wesley Merritt, U.S.A., the senior officer of the G. A. R. in the District of Columbia, Secretary Whitney, General McFeeley, General Jos. Fullerton of St. Louis, Secretary Endicott and George W. Childs.

ENDICOTT'S EULOGY.

WASHINGTON, Aug 6.—Secretary Endicott said:

"His death is a great loss to the army and to this department. I mean as a practical energetic man of affairs. He had wide experience gathered during his military life. He knew and understood all the conditions of army life in all parts of the country and the people with whom our soldiers have to deal, including the Indians, in whom he took a peculiar interest. He was wise and sagacious, and his judgment was marked by a readiness in decision, and guided by a shrewd common sense. He had so long held high command and been attended by such success that he felt confidence in his administration of affairs which was rarely at fault. I always found him most reasonable and ready to look at all sides of a question and for a man of such impulses most open to conviction. As a soldier he of course stands quite by himself, differing with marked and intense individuality from all our distinguished soldiers. He was very interesting and entertaining in social intercourse. He had a fund of anecdote and a variety of information that often was very instructive. His experiences in Europe when he accompanied the German army to France in 1870 were varied and very interesting. I have heard him describe battles which he saw in a manner which inspired in his hearers some of the enthusiasm with which he told the story. I shall always retain most agreeable recollections of my intercourse with him and shall never forget the friendly and valuable assistance he gave to me in the administration of my office."

GENERAL ROSECRANS SAID

he learned of General Sheridan's death with profound sorrow and regret.

"When I took command of the Army of the Mississippi," he said, "Sheridan was Colonel of a Michigan regiment in that army. I knew him well and watched his career closely. He was a hard fighter, stubborn and unyielding. At Boonesville he won his first star, and at Stone River another and so on, and every success that has come to him has been earned. With all his stubbornness and dash he was prudent, cautious, a good provider for his army, and was always careful to know the topography of the country in which he was operating. Then he was prompt to take his troops into action under heavy fire. You know," he resumed, "that there are many men who do unpleasant things, even to slash a duty, hesitatingly. They wait and consider and doubt. Sheridan on the instant went for the mark, no delays, no doubts."

SECRETARY FAIRCHILD

said he was not competent to speak of General Sheridan's status as a soldier, but he knew him to be a great man.

SECRETARY DAYARD

instructed his private secretary to say for him that he heartily concurred in all the President had said in his message to Congress in regard to the services of General Sheridan.

SECRETARY WHITNEY

sent the following telegram to Colonel Sheridan:

"I must express to you my great personal regret and sorrow, and that of the whole naval service at the death of General Sheridan. It is the desire of this department to participate in all the ceremonies which may take place in recognition of his great service to his country, and to mark the high esteem in which such services are held by his countrymen. The President directs me to place at your service an escort of naval vessels if your plans should contemplate returning by water."

POSTMASTER-GENERAL DICKINSON.

said he was a great general and had that simplicity of manner which always accompanied true greatness. He attached men to him with an affection in which there was something of peculiar tenderness. No man was more unanimously loved, and all at the capitol will miss him sadly.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY MULDROW, of the interior department, who was colonel of a Mississippi regiment during the war, and Major-General Wilcox spoke in terms of warm eulogy of the deceased commander. Senator Plumb did the same, and told several interesting anecdotes of war times characteristic of Sheridan.

THE "HERALD'S" TRIBUTE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The Herald tomorrow morning will print an editorial under the head "A Public Funeral and a Tomb in Washington." In substance it holds that there should be a public funeral and a grave for Sheridan at the Soldiers' Home.

"He is the last but one of the great captains of the civil war," says the Herald. "We feel as he goes to his grave, as if with his going the war becomes a memory. It is not a disappointment to this generation, a reflection upon its patriotism and its sense of reverent homage due to so proud a name and so vast a glory, if we fail in honors to Sheridan. Let the funeral then be a pageant worty of his deeds and fame and worthy of the American people. It is only now and then as the ages go on that we can show our appreciation of so noble a warrior, and the showing will be an inspiration and a lesson to millions of young men."

OHIO'S EXPRESSION.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 6.—Governor Forsker has issued a proclamation closing the public buildings and ordering the flags at halfmast till Sheridan's funeral.

MASSACHUSETTS'S SYMPATHY.

BOSTON, Aug. 6.—Orders were issued by the governor today to have the flag on the state arsenal and all the militia armories placed at half mast, and that the standards be draped in black, and badges of mourning be worn by commissioned officers for thirty days and artillery minute guns and a national salute be fired on the day of the funeral.

Governor Brackett telegraphed Mrs. Sheridan: "Massachusetts with the nation sincerely mourns and sends condolence and sympathy." The adjutant-General telegraphed Mrs. Sheridan tendering a guard of honor from the citizen soldiery.

BURIAL AT ARLINGTON CEMETERY.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The following telegram has been received by Major Buxford of the Loyal Legion from Col. Sheridan:

"NONQUITT, Mass.—We expect to leave here Wednesday afternoon and go quietly to Washington with no demonstration. I can only tell you now the funeral will take place at Arlington Cemetery, Saturday. General McFeely and friends will visit Arlington Cemetery tomorrow and select a suitable spot for Gen. Sheridan's remains. The arrangements for the funeral are in the hands of Dr. O'Reilly, who will arrive in the city tomorrow."

THE EUNERAL SERVICES

will be held in St. Matthew's Church, in accordance with Mrs. Sheridan's wishes, and will be of the simplest possible character. Cardinal Gibbons will officiate and will be assisted by Rev. Fathers Mackin and Kervick. All the Roman Catholic clergy in the city will be present. Previous to the interment of the body, the Cardinal will consecrate that part of the cemetery which is to be set apart for the General and his family, and then the body will be consigned to the grave with full military honors.

OFFICERS TO WEAR MOURNING.

General Lincoln, commander of the department of the Potomac, G. A. R., issued an order this evening announcing General Sheridan's death, expressing sympathy for the family, ordering the officers of the order to wear mourning for thirty days and stating that the department had tendered an escort to General Schofield on the day of the funeral."

The republican national league of the district and other local organizations held meetings today and passed resolutions of regret and condolence.

WORDS OF CONDOLENCE.

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 6.—The following messages were received:

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.

Col. M. L. Sheridan:

The death of the General was totally unexpected. Newspaper men are after me, but I must for the time be silent. Command me in any way to manifest my respect for the General.

(Signed) W. T. SHERMAN.

Robert T. Lincoln cabled the following:

LONDON, August 6.

Mrs. P. H. Sheridan:

Accept my sincere condolence.

ROBERT T. LINCOLN.

General Logan's widow sent this:

YOUNGTOWN, Ohio,

Mrs. P. H. Sheridan:

My heart turns to you in deepest sympathy. MARY S. LOGAN.

Ex-President Hayes sent the following:

FREMONT, Ohio.

Mrs. General Sheridan:

By the death of your illustrious husband our country has lost her great battle general. All who served under him suffer with you. Mrs. Hayes joins in deepest sympathy.

RUTHERFORD B. HAYES.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Arrangements for the funeral, so far as completed, are as follows: The funeral party will start from Nonquitt on Wednesday evening by special boat for New Bedford. President Cheate of the Old Colony, has tendered the use of a special train from New Bedford to Boston, and by this the party will proceed direct. Vice-President Frank Thomson of the Pennsylvania Railroad has tendered the use of a special train from New York to Washington, and the party will go by the New York & New England, and Pennsylvania Eastern connections to New York, and thence to Washington.

LONDON PRESS OMNIONS.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—The Daily News says: Sheridan deserves to rank next after the highest. His name will long be a memory and an incentive to a great people.

The Post says: America loses a soldier whose dash and brilliancy endeared him to the whole people.

The Standard says: In Sheridan his country found a fitting man at a fitting time.

AT PORTLAND, OREGON.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Aug. 6.—News of the death of General Sheridan was received at Portland with a universal feeling of the deepest regret. Flags today are flying at half mast all over the city.

PRESIDENT FITZGERALD.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 6.—President Fitzgerald, of the Irish National League of America, has sent to Colonel Sheridan's message expressing warm sympathy on behalf of the league for the bereaved family of General Sheridan, who is spoken of highly in eulogistic terms.

A CRIMINAL CHAPTER

Murders and Broils and Other Disturbances.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—James H. Porter, the first national bank forger who was arrested by a Pinkerton operative at Portland, Oregon, arrived here today. Before the justice he waived examination and was committed to the custody of the sheriff in default of $3000.

A TRAPPER KILLED.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Aug 6.—Two trappers encamped on the Red River near Dennison, Texas, report the killing of a trapper named Meyer, with his wife and two children, July 16th, while in camp on the territory side of the river. Meyer was from Michigan.

A DESPERADO CAUGHT.

HASTINGS, Neb., Aug 6.—The chief of police was notified to look out for Ulysses Nelson, alias George Williams (colored), on the charge of robbery. When the out-bound train over the Burlington and Missouri River road arrived in Hastings this morning, the conductor notified Depot Officer Balcombe that Nelson was on his train, and to be cautious as the negro was desperate. When the officer flashed a dark lantern on Nelson the latter fired, wounding the officer with a bullet from a "38" Colts revolver and then fled. Balcombe pursued his assailant about two blocks and then dropped. Sheriff Bartass and a posse followed the negro to the town of Ayr, where he shot Car Checker Clark, one of his pursuers, through the hand, the bullet striking his watch and saving his life. Nelson was then surrounded and brought back to Hastings. Balcombe is in a precarious condition. Nelson is only 14 years old and takes the matter coolly. Out of thirty or forty shots fired at him only one took effect. It struck him in the face and may prove fatal.

KILLED IN A RIOT.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 6.—A special to the Times Democrat from Baton Rouge says: At Gardiere station in a riot two men were killed and three wounded. The sheriff and posse left at once for the scene of the trouble.

A PARTY OF ITALIANS ATTACK FRENCHMEN.

PARIS, Aug. 6.—A dispatch from Laon in the Department of Aisna, says the Frenchmen engaged in work on the Brat tunnel went on a strike because of the refusal of the contractor to discharge an Italian. The contractor later assented to the dismissal of the man. The comrades of the Italian, seventy in number, thereupon attacked the Frenchmen, using revolvers. A severe encounter took place, resulting in the death of one Italian and the wounding of five others and four Frenchmen. The Frenchmen afterwards sacked the canton of the Italians.

PUNISH THE "WHITE CAPS."

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—A dispatch from Evansville, Ind., to the Inter-Ocean says: Great consternation is said to have been created among the "White Caps" of Crawford, Spencer and Cary counties by the determined action of Governor Gray, who has sent Attorney-General Mechner into that section to aid in the prosecutions. Heretofore these outlaws have been able to terrify the county authorities, so they were allowed to go unpunished.

FEMALE ABDUCTION.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—A German waiter, Oscar Miller, was arrested at Queenstown and brought to London today, charged with abducting Elsa Elias, daughter of the late Henry Elias, brewer, of New York. Miss Elias resided with her mother and sister at Cassel, Germany. Miller was arrested for the same offense in Germany, but managed to escape with the girl to Queenstown.

Oscar Miller, the young man arrested at Queenstown on the charge of abducting Elsa Elias, of New York, was arraigned in court today. Miller said the young lady had written him to accompany her to America, where she was going to see her brother concerning her estate. Hullmeyer, the guardian of the Elias children, stated the girl would remain in his charge pending the arrival of her mother from Germany. Miller was remanded for a week.

BRITISH POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

Parnell's Challenge to Chamberlain Accepted.

LONDON, Aug 6.—Parnell writes to the Times challenging Chamberlain to publish the local government scheme alleged to be in Parnell's handwriting. Parnell says:

"The publication of the scheme will fully establish the entire consistency of my public and private declarations on the subject. If Chamberlain still declines to publish the scheme and contents himself with misleading versions of his support, the public will appreciate his conduct and understand that its publication would neither substantiate his truthfulness nor vindicate his candor. The same remark applies to his astounding statement of his chosen go-between O'Shea. Let him print the alleged coercion act with the alterations in my hand in brackets."

Parnell then argues at length it was only Chamberlain's illegitimate extension of the Dublin council scheme for merely administrative purposes which he favored in 1882, and that he has since denounced it. He says: "Such a scheme would have been a suitable achievement for our small party of thirty five, but the return of eighty-six Irish members and Lord Carnarven's declination to win the favor of an Irish parliament, rendered the consideration of Irish autonomy indispensable, and I laid down this position at the Imperial Hotel dinner in the autumn of 1885. Our views in 1882, from which we never departed, was that the functions of the proposed council should be purely administrative and that it should not be accepted in the slightest degree as a substitute for the Parliament which Chamberlain proposed. If Chamberlain publishes my letters it will be seen he must early in 1885 have been acquainted with our views."

in an interview Sunday referring to his recent letter to the Times relative to the meeting between Parnell and Chamberlain immediately after the Phœnix Park murders, said:

"I do not hesitate to characterize as insincere the Parnellite lamentations over my writing to the Times as a gratuitous act and so forth. It was a straight blow in return for a wild one aimed by Parnell in Parliament on Tuesday last. From 1880 to 1885 I sat on the opposite side of the house to Parnell and was elected from Galway in 1886 without having given pledges to any political party whatever."

RESIGNS.

Lord Claud John Hamilton, Member of Parliament for West Derby Division, Liverpool, has resigned his seat. He is a conservative.

ACCEPTS THE CHALLENGE.

Chamberlain writes to the Times accepting Parnell's challenge and promises to publish a full statement of the communications initiated by Parnell, which passed between them in 1884 and 1885.

Electric Damage and Casualties.

LONESBORO, Minn., Aug. 6.—During a thunder storm, Martin Olson, living on a farm three miles west of Lonesboro was killed by lightning together with two of his children.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Lightning last night knocked off the large cross and 10 feet of the tower of the Chapel of the Good Shepherd on Twentieth Street.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 6.—A disastrous storm visited the central section of Missouri at an early hour this morning. Great damage to crops has been entailed and the loss on property is heavy.

Idaho Railroading.

PORTLAND, Aug. 6.—A special dispatch from Spokane Falls, W.T., says: At Murray, Idaho, Judge Logan dissolved the injunction of the Northern Pacific against the Washington & Idaho Railway, restraining the latter from extending their road across the property leased by the former and lying between Kingston and Coeur d'Alene Mission. The Washington & Idaho is a branch of the Oregon & Navigation, and has a charter to build a line from Farmington to Missoula. Fifteen hundred men are on the ground from Kingston to the Mission and will continue the work of grading at once.

The Ugly Utes.

DENVER, Aug. 6.—The only news received from Ignacio, the headquarters of the Southern Utes, is that the Indians have suddenly disappeared from their villages. It is believed they have planned to keep out of the way until they can have a conference with the Northern Utes. It is believed that a large party from both bands is now congregating back in the mountains, and will there hold a great pow-wow as to what course they will pursue when they meet the Commission. Colorow, the old leader of the Northern Utes, has an intense dislike for the whites.

Western Roads.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—The international association, which has just risen from the ashes of the Texas traffic association, convened here today to complete the combination. It embraces nineteen roads west of the Mississippi River, and the head officers are to be at Denver. The work before the association at its session is the revision of rates to conform with the tariff which has been adopted in lieu of the Texas classification. A committee of five was appointed to take up this matter, and after saying just what difficulties will have to be overcome, will make a classification of rates.

Enck's Comet.

BOSTON, Aug. 6.—A cable message received today from the European Union of Astronomy announces the discovery of Enck's comet on its present return at the Royal Academy of the Cape of Good Hope on Friday evening. The discovery position is as follows: August 3, 2 hours 57 minutes 6 seconds, Greenwich mean time, right ascension, 12 hours, 12 minutes, 51 seconds; declination south, 17 hours, 27 minutes, 46 seconds.

The Emigration Investigation.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The first witness before the congressional emigration investigation committee was Henry Oedsye, agent of the Compagne Nationale Navigation. His company employed agents in Southern Europe with self-prepared tickets and carried many Italians.

An Italian who could not speak a word of English was the next witness. He said he carried on a small money-changing establishment. A week ago a man asked him to furnish 500 laborers, who were to be paid $1 20 a day. Witness thought they were to work for a company, and their railroad fare was to be paid. The agreement was signed between the witness and a man named Pallip Smith. According to the agreement he was to board these men and allow Smith 5 per cent on the board bills. The men were to be furnished by October 1, 1888.

Joseph Sica said his business was to furnish laborers to large employers. He furnished 400 men to Brown, Howard & Co. on the new aqueduct. The men were to receive $1.50 a day. The profits of the witness were accepted from the supplies furnished the men. Witness had furnished as many as 1500 men to the West Shore Railroad. Of them witness furnished board for about 300. The rest made him a present. They chipped in 50 cents apiece and presented the sum to him in bulk. The West Shore road paid witness a fixed salary of $2 a day.

George H. Simmons, special agent of the Treasury, went under assumed names at times. Lately he had taken the name of Pallip Smith. He did this for a purpose. He went into "Little Italy" to look for 400 men to work in the iron ore mills in Pennsylvania. This he said was all imaginary. He had several interviews with Trojia and Sica and they agreed to furnish men at $1 20 a day. They were to import men from Italy and have them here in two months. They were to allow witness 5 per cent of the gross receipts. Trojia and Sica told him they had frequently furnished laborers to large concerns. The further testimony of witness proved conclusively that Trojia and Sica have been engaged for some time in importing their fellow countrymen under contract.

Several immigrants were also examined regarding the manner of coming here and the inducements held out.

H. H. Colclazer, a reporter of the Philadelphia Ledger, testified that he had investigated the Italian imported labor question for his paper. Witness visited the coal regions and one Michael Angelo, foreman, furnished him the names of men here in New York who would furnish him all the men he wanted. He came to New York and saw a man named Gallo, with whom he made an arrangement for 1500 men to work in the coal regions. Gallo wanted him to agree that he (Gallo) should board all the men and offered witness 5 per cent on the gross amount of the bills. Witness as contractor was to deduct store bills, etc., and he figured that his five per cent would net him about $700 a week.

AMERICAN POLITICS.

Levi P. Morton's Retirement From the Canadian Pacific.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Concerning Levi P. Morton's reported retirment from the board of directors of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, inquiries at the office of Morton, Bliss & Co., made this afternoon, elicited the statement that Morton was elected a director about a year ago to fill a place temporarily in the board until a selection was made of a suitable Canadian director. Since that election he has never even in a single instance attended a meeting of the board or exercised any of the functions of a director. His resignation was forwarded to the board in the early part of the summer, and his place will be filled at tomorrow's meeting in Montreal.

BELVA LOCKWOOD,

the champion woman suffragist and Presidential candidate, gave a lecture to a meagre audience of less than fifty persons last night. She ran over the varied list of achievements of women and prophesied that a woman would yet rule the United States.

HENRY GEORGE'S FRIENDS, to the number of 5000, met at Cooper Union tonight. Resolutions were adopted endorsing tariff reform and the renomination of Grover Cleveland for President. Henry George eulogized President Cleveland's tariff message, and declared it to be a vital step in the direction of the objects of a single tax theory.

GREETING TO HARRISON.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 6.—The Kansas City Blaine Club called on General Harrison this morning on their way to New York to participate in the reception of Blaine. They were welcomed by General Harrison in a short speech. The most pleasing incident of the visit occurred when Colonel Hunt introduced Miss Abbie Burress, one of the ladies accompanying the club, who, in a graceful speech, presented General Harrison with a beautiful satin badge inscribed: "The Kansas City Blaine Club greets their next President, August, 1888." General Harrison was visibly affected by the incident, and expressed his grateful appreciation of the souvenir.

General Harrison was the recipient of a gift today in the way of a miniature log cabin, sent by admirers from Richmond, Va. It is constructed of pine limbs and is perfect in every detail, even to the latch-string and hard cider barrel, the old drinking gourd and historical coonskin on the wall.

IDEAL BROILING.

Broiling can be done in the oven of the Charter Oak Range or Stove with the Wire Gauze Oven Door, more perfectly than over the live coals.

Lay the steak, chops, ham or fish on a wire broiler or meat rack, placing it in an ordinary bake pan to catch the drippings.

Allow it to remain in the oven with the door closed 15 or 20 minutes. No turning is required. At the end of this time it will be found nicely cooked ready to serve.

THIS IS THE IDEAL WAY TO BROIL MEATS.

There is no taint of coal-gas or smoke, and the meats are more tender and better in flavor than those broiled over the coals. The convenience of broiling in the oven will be appreciated by every housekeeper, and adds another to the many reasons why the Charter Oak Range or Stove with the Wire Gauze Oven Door should be preferred to all others now in the market.

MATTERS OF INTEREST

TO

Gardeners and Farmers.

BUY NORTHERN-GROWN SEEDS. WE ARE THE PRODUCERS OF seed sold by us. They are the best in the world. They are the best for all climates. They are earlier, more hardy, vigorous and productive than those grown in lower altitudes. We keep a large stock of fresh seed and believe that we can give you satisfaction. We unhesitatingly affirm that no better seeds than those we deal in CAN BE PROCURED. Bestowing such assiduous care upon them, we feel justified in saying our seeds are UNSURPASSED in purity and quality. We do not pretend to be the "only house in the west selling NORTHERN-GROWN SEEDS," but we do claim that we have the very best seed to be had anywhere; and that has not been all over the country, for several years, in commission boxes, as we do not send out any commission boxes at all, as so many do. Ask your HOME MERCHANT for our Northern-grown Seeds. OUR PRICES are as low as reliable stocks can be sold at and afford a fair remuneration for the expense and labor attending the proper conduct of the seed business. We ask a trial order from all who have not used our seeds. Write for circulars. Address all correspondence to the UTAH NURSERY CO., General Western Agency, Salt Lake City, Utah.
