MURDERED BY A DRUNKEN WRETCH

Tragic Fate of Michael E. Malone, Former Citizen of Ogden, at Mina, Nev.

DIVORCE SUIT CONTINUED

In Judge Howell's Court Pending Receipt of Supreme Court Decision On This Question.

Ogden, April 19.—Shot to death by a drunken man was the sad fate of Michael E. Malone, former citizen of Ogden, at Mina, Nev. Mr. Malone was formerly employed in the Ogden shops, but about six months ago was advanced to foreman at Mina, but his family, consisting of his wife and two daughters, still reside in Ogden, at 538 Twenty-fifth street.

The report of the tragedy, as received by Ogden by his brother, D. J. Malone, master-mechanic for the Harriman lines in this city, are that Michael Malone was working in the shops under an engine, doing some repairs, when a man who gave him the name as Frank Everett, came into the repair shop and without any provocation, deliberately fired at Malone, the bullet striking him in the head. Other employees in the shops rushed to his assistance, while others dispersed. Everett held him down, and Mr. Malone was taken from under the engine and carried to a nearby place, where the wound was dressed by a physician. The family had a little hope of his recovery was entertained, and he died shortly after 11 o'clock yesterday. His body was taken to Reno, Nevada, where it will be prepared and shipped to Ogden today for burial.

DIVORCE CASES DEFERRED

By Judge Howell, Awaiting Arrival of Supreme Court Decision.

Ogden, April 19.—All divorce suits now pending in the Second District court have been continued without date by Judge J. A. Howell, who has decided that the court should wait until the Supreme Court has decided the question of the validity of the divorce suits.

SPECIAL ELECTION MAY 29.

To Vote on Waterworks Bonds—Polling Places and Judges Named.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., April 19.—At the council session on Tuesday evening the board of health reported the slaughter houses in an unsanitary condition, and that animals being left near two of the slaughter houses, which made it very unpleasant for people living in the vicinity. The board had seen no animals slaughtered or to be slaughtered except hogs, which were in a filthy condition. The board recommended that slaughter houses be kept in a clean, suitable place, and that of all animals be destroyed, and not fed to hogs, kept there for slaughtering. Mayor Frisby and City Marshal Henry of the board of health, supplemented the report with a verbal report of the inspection, which did not make it any better for the board. Report adopted and the recommendations were referred to the committee on judiciary.

The committee on judiciary reported that the railroad companies had driven piles in the river and other obstructions in such manner as to prevent brush passing under the bridges, and recommended that the city recorder notify the companies to remove the obstructions before the high water season. Report adopted.

The committee on judiciary reported having received a form for an order holding a special bond election for the issue of $25,000 waterworks bonds, from E. H. Rollins & Sons, Denver, and recommended that the election be held on Tuesday, May 22, 1906. Report adopted, and the order for the election was unanimously passed.

The following polling places were designated and judges appointed:

First District—Council chamber, J. F. Decker, C. D. Glazier, John Foote.

Second District—Roberts hotel, Jos. Nelson, E. M. Peterson, Jas. R. Patten.

Third District—Franklin school, T. L. Vincent, George Ross, Walter Peay.

Fourth District—Timmonson school, J. French Johnson, A. J. Durrant, Walter G. Taylor.

Fifth District—Grier house, James A. Oliver, Wm. P. Clayton, James C. White.

Sixth District—Parker school, E. H. Smart, James E. Snyder, Alma Van Wageningen.

Seventh District—Fifth ward meeting house, E. L. Jones, John C. Swenson, Myron C. Newell.

Eighth District—Maeser school, Joseph L. Bullock, David Giles, O. H. Berg.

The committee on waterworks was authorized to advertise for bids for building a well house, and also to consider the matter of purchasing land and advertising for bids for digging trenches for the waterworks, subject to the result of the election.

The Recorder Harding presented his financial report for the quarter ending March 31, showing $3,919.64 cash on hand, divided among the several funds as follows: General fund, $3,101.34; sinking fund, $200.00. Included in the general fund is $519.87, belonging to the library fund.

$2,000 is now on trial in the Second district court.

The testimony of the prosecution is to the effect that in December, 1904, the plaintiff was driving along Washington avenue in a buggy and ran into a quantity of building material in the roadway which could not be seen in the night time, having no light or signal on it. Plaintiff was thrown from his buggy to the pavement and received serious bruises and other injuries. The evidence may all be in by tonight and the case submitted to the jury.

Charles Miller and R. P. Cheney, the two men charged with burglarizing L. Clark & Son's store, are to come up for trial in a few days.

GOOD WORK OF THE JUNIORS.

The Junior Civic league did a wonderful amount of work last Saturday and Monday in helping to beautify Ogden, according to a report furnished by the various schools throughout the city. The report makes the following showing:

Yards cleaned 2,292

Lawns and Vines planted 263

Flowers planted 6,372

Trees planted 3,311

Shrubs planted 6,015

The children are being encouraged in the excellent work.

CUPID'S BUSY DAY.

Cupid is getting busy again in Ogden. The county clerk has granted marriage licenses to the following couples:

Peter Brown, 24, and Miss Louise Jacobson, 18, both of Ogden City.

Fred H. May, 31, of Salt Lake City, and Miss Francis A. Brown, 29, of Ogden City.

MEN PAST SIXTY IN DANGER.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, which are the result of prostate gland trouble. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken.

It corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease.

Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rm. 3, Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking a box of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years. I am now 61 years old."

GOOD JUDGEMENT.

Is the essential characteristic of men and women. Invaluable to good business men and necessary to a successful woman.

Shows good judgment when a woman chooses a good husband, when a man chooses a good wife, when a woman chooses a good medicine, when a man chooses a good doctor.
