Frank Shurtliffe Will Not be Sentenced Till the 28th.

MRS. MOFFATT WINS CASE.

Gets Judgment Against Star Gold and Silver Mining Company - Ex-Justice McMaster Loses Again.

Frank Shurtliffe will eat his Christmas dinner at home with his folks in Big Cottonwood. His attorneys, Frick and Edwards, this morning moved for a two weeks' delay in the time for passing sentence and making a motion for a new trial, and the court could see to harm in allowing the young man a few days more of liberty.

Frank was found guilty last Tuesday of involuntary manslaughter for the shooting of Mrs. Jane Wilson, and was ordered to appear in court this morning for sentence.

MRS. MOFFAT WINS. Jury Decides that She is Entitled to Recover $1.769.78.

The jury, setting in the case of Hanna G. Moffat vs the Star Gold and Silver Mining company on trial before Judge Stewart, returned into court at

F. H. Freckelton of Sterling was operated on today at St. Mark's hospital, in treatment of a diseased bone in his 1 o'clock this afternoon with a verdict finding the issues for the plaintiff in both cases of action. On the first count, which was for $1,916.66, with interest from December 31, 1897, for wages due her husband, James Moffat, as manager of the mining company, Mrs. Moffat is awarded $1,150 and $364.12 interest. On the second, in which she claimed $510.86 as a balance due on money loaned to the company the plaintiff gets $255.66. is a very fair per centage of the amount sued for. Mrs. Moffat was represented by Johnson & Fowler and E. H. Lewis, the defendant company by Twomey & Twomey.

FREE THOUGH WED. Sidney Harris and Annie Cronin Released from Jail. Sidney Harris, the messenger boy who was charged with incorrigibility, and Annie Cronin, one of the two sisters building, and whose sister Josie was recently committed to the reform school, ances by Judge Stewart this morning. They were married at the county jail last night by Deputy County Clerk Emery, and Attorney Loofbourow besought the court to allow them to end their honeymoon in freedom. The bride is 21 years old and her husband but 19. He had to have Alexander Wagstaff appointed as his guardian in order to have a marriage certificate is sued to him. Both have piedged them-selves to the county authorities and the court to walk henceforth in the straight and narrow path.

Will Be Heard Monday.

Lucy Herron's $5,000 damage suit against the Salt Lake City Railroad company will be tried on Monday. The case was called late yesterday after-noon, and, after a jury had been emit went over till Monday morning. Mrs. Herron's claim for damages is on account of injuries said to have been received in a collision between two street cars, causing her to be violently she was a passenger. She is represented by Perguson & Cannon, and the company by Pierce, Critchlow & Bar-

McMaster Loses Again.

Judge Morse decided against ex-Justice McMaster in his four suits to recover fees in cases where suits for judgments were brought by the Luke collection agency in his court. The collection agency did not win its cases and Justice McMaster brought suit against the agency for his fees, but was defeated. Luke claimed that he was only to play the fees in case he got the decision. Then the justice brought suit against the parties direct, but Judge Morse again found the issues for the decisions and some the provide against the provider against the parties again found the provider again found the provider against the provider again found the provider again found the provider against the defendants and scored the practice as wrongful acts. Thirty days were allowed to move for new trials. Juage McMaster was represented by Smith and Walton and A. W. Casey and A. I. Hoppaugh defended. The defendant parties were Hines Mercantile com-pany, Salt Lake Brewing company, Intembeuntain Mining company and James McDonald.

Mortensen Turned Down.

Peter Mortensen's petition for a writ of prohibition against Justice Dana Smith et al to prevent the enforcement of a judgment has been denied by Judge Hall. The question as to whether Justice Smith had jurisdiction in the case owing to Mortensen's residence without the city limits will be passed Friendly Suit.

The Cadifornia Mining company today commenced a friendly suit in the district court against Edwin P. Ferry. The suit is a mere matter of form, brought for the purpose of obtaining an order of court to allow W. M. and E. S. Ferry, the guardians of their father, receiving $5,000, the amount due for a lease of the Empire, Aurora and Hope mining claims in the Uintah mining district of Summit county and to celtver to the company a deed convey-ing E. "Mme, Emma Eames had a narray escape from serious accident, if not from death," said Thomas Williams of San Francisco at the Kenyon this morning. "She was on the same South-ern Pacific train that I was coming east, and while asleep in her berth as the train was running in western Nevada, some one with a grievance against the railroad, threw a rock through the car window neagest her head. The missile missed madame by about three inches and covered her with broken glass. She was badly frightened, but was gotten out of the berth safely. She could not sleep for the remainder of the night.

C. D. Gregg, a prominent tea and coffee merchant of St. Louis, is a guest at the Kenyon. His firm is branching out in the Rocky Mountain country, and he reports an order from the Pullman company the largest ever given to any coffee firm in the country. Mr. Gregg says the tea men in the country are beseeching and besieging Congress o remove the war tax from teas largebecause of the inequality of its opera tion. For instance, teas costing only ten cents which poor people use, is taxed ten cents, thus doubling the price, while $1.00 and $1.50 teas are taxed only the ten cents per pound. it is the poor who really pay that war tax, Mr. Gregg says that St. Louis people will ask the government to appropriate something like $2,000,000 for the proposed federal building there instead of the $250,000, as originally de-
