Manager Wells Explains Position of Company to Arbitration Committee.

The arbitration committee of the Utah Federation of Labor consisting of Daniel L. Elton and J. E. Edward, waited on Manager Joseph S. Wells of the Utah Light & Railway company yesterday afternoon, with a view to such a presentation of the case of the street car employees as might result in allowing the railroads no wages less than 40 cents a week, in case of a general recognition of the union and an agreement to submit questions of difference between the men and the company to arbitration.

The last few weeks the company have been detoured via McCallum and Granger, but no freight has been moved east or west since the cave-in. All the tracks in the vicinity of Aspinwall are being filled with sand, and fresh blocks of considerable dimensions have been created which will take some little time to get out of the way.

TWO INFANTS IN DIVORCE COURT

Sad Story of a Couple Who Were Married at a Tender Age.

MOTHER-IN-LAW IN EVIDENCE.

Herman A. Kramer Comes Home and Finds Wife's Mother Occupying His Bed and Board.

The marital troubles of two children who were married at the tender age of 17 years and lived together for three years were aired in Judge Morse's court today when the divorce case of Selina May Reiser Kramer against Herman A. Kramer was heard. Mrs. Kramer charged her young husband with adultery. She complained that he treated her with indifference around their home and was at times harsh with her. She stated on the witness stand today that her husband became very angry at her because she refused to give him coffee for dinner for the reason that she thought it was injurious to his health. It also appears that the wife's mother took a hand in the matter and has probably caused some differences between the young couple.

On one occasion Kramer asked his wife to accompany him out to the park in the evening. She refused to go, so he went alone. Upon his return he found his mother-in-law occupying his place in the bed and she related to vacate it. On another occasion when his wife was embracing him and she was thrown to the floor. This she thought was a very cruel demonstration on his part. They quarreled over trifling affairs and the mother-in-law would interfere in the husband's business. On one occasion she declared that they would never get along together because of religious beliefs.

They were married in May, 1904, and lived together until Feb. 22, 1905. They are now about 20 years of age and have a son, 19 months old. The divorce will be decided this morning and the matter went over until next Wednesday, when it will probably be decided.
