JAMES HALLIN HELD FOR ROBBERY

Charged with Zang Saloon Holdup —Tries to Prove an Alibi.

BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETING.

L. A. Bartlett Held for Forgery—Republican Grand Jury on Monday Night in Opera House.

James Riley, alias James Hallin, was given his preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon before Judge Howell, on the charge of robbing the Zang saloon. The witnesses for the prosecution were Ed. Bello, Officers W. B. Wilson, J. F. Pender, C. C. Brown, Joseph Bolt, Chief Browning, Deputy Sheriff Seabring, George Wells and E. A. Larkin. Their testimony was in part that on the night of October 20, the Zang saloon was held up by four masked men at about 9 o'clock. That they secured from Mr. Bello a gold watch and chain, and $49.00 in money. That shortly after the holdup Officer Wilson located the four men in a room in the Ogden house. The men on seeing him at the door blew out the light and one of them poked a pistol out of the door, when Mr. Wilson fired a shot. A scrambling was heard in the room, and three of the men jumped from the second-story window, escaping. But Hallin was caught in the room. A letter written by Hallin since he has been in the county jail, addressed to George Wells, the saloon man, whose license Chief Browning asked the city council to revoke, was produced and read. The letter explained the story he had told the officers, which led them to believe Douglas and his two pals were interested in the holdup, and asked Wells to get certain witnesses to testify in the case to certain facts about him being in the saloon. The defendant did not go on the witness stand himself, but endeavored to prove an alibi by three other witnesses, Andrew E. Winberg, a Southern Pacific fireman, John Moore and James Baines, two inmates of the city jail, who are serving time for vagrancy. Winberg testified that he saw Hotten in the O. K. saloon about 9:30 o'clock, but didn't know whether Hallin left before he did or not. The other two witnesses testified to seeing him in the saloon between 9 and 10 o'clock, and to his leaving just a few minutes before the shots were fired at the hold-

George E. Browning has gone to Lost Creek, Summit county, deer hunting. Walter Oakley has gone to New York to accept a position with the Adams Express company. F. J. Kiest this afternoon opened bids for the construction of eight new store buildings he intends erecting on Wall avenue near Twenty-fifth street. J. R. Cooper has returned home from a three weeks' eastern trip.

LEHI.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Missionary Farewell Social-Lehi News and Personal.

Special Correspondence.
Lehi, Utah Co., Oct. 31.—Last evening an enjoyable party was given at the home of Mr. George Webb in honor of Elder B. G. Webb by his relatives and many friends. He leaves on a mission to the Northern States Nov. 7. Speech making, songs and an excellent supper were the order of the evening. Monday night a Republican rally will be held in the Opera house. Hon.

George A. Smith will be the principal speaker. As the Socialist ticket has been ruled out in Lehi it is expected that the Socialists will nearly all vote for the Democratic ticket as the Democratic mayor and marshal were their nominees. It is very hard to tell the outcome. Both parties are working hard to gain adherents to their cause. J. R. Cooper of Ogden is visiting relatives here.

Mr. Heber Cutler head chemist, and Mr. John T. Roberts, assistant chemist, of the Bear river factory, also Joseph Kirkham are down from Garland and are preparing to move their household goods up to the factory.

John Sims, aged 74, an old time resident of this place and Sarah Kirkham, aged 67, of Eureka, were married Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Sarah Ann Olmstead by Judge S. W. Ross.

Mr. W. T. Taylor was in town this week visiting his father.

Mrs. John F. Cutler is visiting relatives in Salt Lake this week.

Miss C. G. Galt, of New West school here is visiting her mother in Salt Lake City.

MRS. CAROLINE T. SNOW DEAD.

Succumbs to Injuries Received in Run away on Monday.

Special Correspondence.
Manti, Sanpete Co., Oct. 30.—Death came to the relief of Sister Caroline T. Snow at her home in this city last night at 9 o'clock, after having suffered much distress since last Monday morning, when she was thrown from a buggy and severely bruised. The nobility of her mind was beautifully exhibited at the time of the accident, when her bones broken and life ebbing away, she beheld the other occupants of the vehicle on the ground, she reminded the rescuers that she was aged and about ready to die, and for them to minister to the others and not mind her. It is a singular thing that Sister Snow always had a fear of riding in any vehicle, and she had been riding in a buggy for 10 years until the fatal trip on Monday last. She was 88 years of age, one of the noblest daughters of God, whose memory will live in the hearts of the people here for all time. Funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon.

PANGUITCH.

DISTRICT COURT SESSION.

Preparations for Opening Indian School
At Pangutch.

Special Correspondence.
Pangutch, Garfield Co., Oct. 28.—The district court held a short session this morning. Judge J. F. Childers presiding.

In the matter of State of Utah vs. Thomas Inlay, time allowed district attorney extended to and including the 1st day of November, A. D. 1903, to file amended information.

In the Hamill case, estate, M. M. Steele, one of the executors asked that they be empowered to distribute a part of the property according to the will to the effect that the water right to the Indian farm was in litigation. An investigation will be had, but as the government has the deeds to the place, and has as good a water right as any one in this section, it is not believed it will have any other effect than a short delay. Miss Work is going right on with her preparations, after writing Secy. Hitchcock the facts in the case.

PREPARATION FOR INDIAN SCHOOL.
Miss Work, the lady in charge of the Indian school to be taught here, has been busy for some time getting proper arrangements made for the reception of her dusky pupils, and has been in hope to have the school start up in a very short time, but she is in receipt of a telegram from Washington, D. C., to go slow, based upon a letter written from this place by W. P. Sargent, to the effect that the water right to the Indian farm was in litigation. An investigation will be had, but as the government has the deeds to the place, and has as good a water right as any one in this section, it is not believed it will have any other effect than a short delay. MURDERER CAPTURED.

Eric West Taken by Train Crew—Held For Murder.

Milford, Beaver Co., Oct. 29.—Eric West, the Phil, who stabbed Matt Jori to death at Frisco, Monday night, was captured by the crew of the north-bound San Pedro, when it was at Black Rock yesterday morning, six miles north of here. He was given a preliminary hearing before Justice Kizer today and was held with $500 bonds to appear before the district court to answer to the charge of murder in the first degree.

PRICE.

MAY ABANDON FT. DUCHESNE.

Special Correspondence.
Price, Carbon Co., Oct. 29.—Forties who claim to know say that Fort Duchesne is to be abandoned, as there will be little or no need to keep soldiers there when the reservation is once opened. The buildings at the post have cost the government a mint of money, but these, it is said, are to be sold to private persons. Appraisers have placed the value at $500,000. The camp is abandoned and sold out to private individuals or to the state land board, the place will undoubtedly become a thriving town on the reservation. Its valuable waterworks and other substantial improvements would give it a start that would place it far in advance of any other townsite.

CASTLE DALE.

DISTRICT COURT SESSION.

Divorce, Probate and Other Cases Heard And Passed On.

Castle Dale, Emery Co., Oct. 27.—The district court for this county has been in session yesterday and today. The following business has been disposed of:

Abigail M. Stevens, guardian of George W. King, incompetent; annual accounts approved and guardian authorized to loan funds of the estate to an approved security.

Peter Falkner secured a divorce from Mary Falkner. The parties were married in Germany in 1873; plaintiff came to America in 1884. He went back to Germany after her in 1896, and to his solicitations to return with him to this country Mrs. Falkner said: "I go not to America; I cross not the sea."

The case of Wm. W. Cate vs. W. P. Winters, an action on a note, was dismissed on motion of F. E. Woods, defendant's attorney, who stated that the matter had been practically settled out of court.

Don C. Duncan, by John C. Duncan, agent, vs. E. A. Wild, an action for damages, came up on appeal from Justice Reid's court at Orangeville. On motion of defendant's attorney, F. E. Woods, the case was dismissed because of lack of jurisdiction of the court below.

F. P. Anderson vs. William Radd; damages for personal injury; case continued.

Emery County Mercantile company vs. A. E. Jones; judgment for plaintiff in the sum of $470.43, together with costs and attorney's fees.

H. Appleman & Co. vs. Peter Franden; action on note; case continued on motion of F. E. Woods, defendant's attorney.

UNION.

FUNERAL OF GREEN FLAKE.

Aged Colored Pioneer Laid to Rest Honored and Respected by All.

Special Correspondence.
Union, Salt Lake Co., Oct. 27.—The funeral services over the remains of E. Green Flake, an aged colored pioneer was held in the Union ward assembly rooms, Friday, Oct. 23. Bro. Flake died at his son Abraham's residence in Idaho, on Oct. 20, and in accordance with his last wish he was brought to Union, to be buried among his friends and relatives. Bro. Flake had reached the honorable age of 76, which means, to all who knew him, 76 years of honest, hard work for the betterment of humanity, and for an exaltation in his Father's kingdom.

He left his native state, North Carolina, in 1845 and went to Nauvoo, thence to Winter Quarters and from there he drove one of Brigham Young's teams into the valley of Great Salt Lake in July, 1847. From that date on, he has been instrumental in the settlement of Union ward. Bro. Flake gained friendship with all of his acquaintances. He was an esteemed friend of the Prophet Joseph, and was a firm believer in the restored Gospel.

WELLVILLE.

TWO TICKETS IN FIELD.

Citizens and Democratic—Model City
Government—Joseph Lindley Dead.

Special Correspondence.
Wellville, Cache Co., Oct. 27.—The Democrats have put the following ticket in the field to be voted for at the ensuing city election:

Mayor—George Perkins.
Councilmen—Jas. A. Leaman, four years; Chas. R. Bailey, Jno. L. Baxter, John Darley, Don H. Maughan.
Recorder—Walker W. Jones.
Treasurer—Fred Cooper.
Marshal—Thos. H. Stutsman.
Justice of the Peace—Jno. S. Leatham.

CITIZENS' TICKET.

The local Republicans, although shown by the returns last fall to be in the majority, have joined with a large number of Democrats and put up a Citizens' ticket as follows:

Mayor—Peter M. Maughan.
Councilmen—William Murray, four years; Louis Watkins, Alex. Archibald, Wm. C. Parker, Geo. Spence.
Recorder—Zank H. Stutsman.
Treasurer—Robt. Baxter, Sr.
Marshal—William Garrett.
Justice of the Peace—Jno. A. Leatham.

A GOOD CITY GOVERNMENT.

The action of the local Democrats has occasioned considerable surprise. The present administration is non-partisan, and under the able majority of Hon. Wm. H. Maughan, more public improvements have taken place than ever before in the history of the town.

Plans have been taken leading to the introduction of electric lights into the city, and the city's finances are in better shape than ever. The city owes no debts and has a handsome balance in the treasury. The city's ordinances have been wisely and judiciously enforced, and the health of the people has had particular attention.

Why there should be a party fight under these conditions is a mystery to the citizens far to understand. Besides, a majority of the present city administration are Democrats, and in the Citizens' ticket as given above the nominees for mayor, long term councilman, treasurer, and marshal, are strong and pronounced Democrats.

TYPHOID CLAIMS ANOTHER VICTIM.
Joseph Lindley, aged 19, succumbed on Wednesday to a severe attack of typhoid fever. He was a young man of exceptional purity and nobility of character, and although of a very modest and retiring disposition, had an unusually large circle of friends. This was strikingly evinced on Friday afternoon when the sterling meetinghouse was literally packed with an assemblage of mourners. Comforting and consoling expressions of condolence were offered by the following brethren: Elder Hill, Bishop Wm. H. Maughan, Elder Thomas Leishman, Robert Baxter, Sen. Joseph Parker and Bishop L. P. Christiansen.

C. Belden Snyder vs. Walter R. Pike et al; transferred to Provo.

J. N. Seely et al vs. C. P. Andersen et al; motion overruled for another trial.

BEAVER.

DEATH OF WILLIAM ROBINSON.

Victim of Sulphur Fumes—Highly Respected Citizen S. S. Convention.

Special Correspondence.
Beaver City, Beaver Co., Oct. 25.—One of nature's true noblemen, Elder William Robinson, died at his home in this city, great beyond on Wednesday night, Oct. 21. The cause of death was from cramps, supposed to be due to the excessive fumes of sulphur. Elder Robinson, who was employed at the Sulphur Lake works at the time of his decease, but as he never spoke of his work, he was not known to the community. He was a man of a noble condition, there is only conjecture as to the true cause of his demise. He had been some years in the service of the S. S. Convention, where he has since resided, prior to his death, until the day he died, when he manifested an unusual flow of spirit, lasting all day until the attack, which ended his earthly career. He was not apparently ill about two hours.

Deceased was born in Acington, Lancashire, England, in the year 1833, and was baptised in 1841, his parents being devoted members of the Church, and came to America in the later fifties. He worked in the Eastern States until 1884, when he came to Beaver, where he has since resided, filling many positions of trust in municipal and ecclesiastical affairs. He was always a generous and affectionate in disposition in his family and social life. He recently returned from a two and a half years' mission in the West, where he was employed at the Sulphur Lake works, where he manifested an unusual flow of spirit, lasting all day until the attack, which ended his earthly career. He was not apparently ill about two hours.
