JUDGE BAKER TALKS OF STANDARD OIL CASE

Goshen, Ind., Aug. 26.—Judge Fran-cis E. Baker of the United States court of appeals, which reversed the decision of Judge Landis fining the Standard Oil company $29,000,00, replied yester-day to the criticism of his court. "In the first place," he said, "It was not the Standard Oil company Incor-porated under the laws of New Jer-sey, the parent concern, that was ou trial, but the Standard Oil company of Indiana, an offepring undoubtedly, but a much weaker organization. "But when it came to pass judgment it was on the offenses of the parent company that the Indiana offspring was found guilty, and it was on the property and revenues of the parent company that the fine of the offspring was gaged. If it was the desire and purpose of the court to punish the standard Oil company of New Jersey, that company should have been indici-ed, either jointly or separately, and have been brought into court. "Every corporation has exactly the same rights as an individual, no more, no less. The parent company is, of course, more or less responsible for the acts of the Indiana company.
