

TAMMANY MEN CALL ON PARKER.

Members of Democratic National Committee Surprised to See Them There.

BURIED THEIR DIFFERENCES.

Murphy and His Party Were First to Arrive and the Last to Leave.

Esopus, N. Y., July 27.—Members of the Democratic national committee made an informal call on Judge Alton B. Parker today, and found him entertaining Leader Charles F. Murphy and other persons prominent in Tammany hall. David B. Hill and Mr. Murphy joined hands on the Rosemont veranda, and others who have not been political friends for years put aside their differences and for the day, at least, met on common ground.

Mr. Murphy and his colleagues, State Senator Victor J. Dowling and Judge Morgan J. O'Brien of New York and Thomas P. Conway of Plattsburg, arrived first and were the last to go. Discussions of political questions, both national and state, were entered into by the visitors.

The coming of the national committee was heralded far and wide, but no announcement had been made of the proposed visit of the Tammany delegation. Several of the committee expressed surprise at finding the New York men at Rosemont, but Mr. Murphy made no effort to avoid meeting the Parker campaign managers. After a long and interrupted conversation with Judge Parker, Mr. Murphy and his party had luncheon with the candidate, after which the talk was continued until the arrival of the national committee.

Every vehicle in Esopus was needed to convey the committee from the train to Rosemont, and even then a second trip was necessary. Judge Parker welcomed his visitors on the veranda. David B. Hill was in Judge Parker's wagonette, which was first to arrive. When he saw Mr. Murphy, he strode toward him with outstretched hand and with a cordial "How are you, Murphy?" The greeting was hearty on both sides. Mr. Dowling joined them, and as Judge Parker's attention was engaged in greeting other guests, the trio conversed for two or three minutes. Politics did not enter into the discussion, however. This was the only time Mr. Murphy and Mr. Hill were together except when they posed with others for a group photograph.

Judge Parker had met fewer than half of the members of the committee. As they arrived and were introduced he had a pleasant word for each, and from his talk it was evident that he possessed an intimate acquaintance with what each man was doing in his own state. Chairman Taggart talked with Judge Parker several times during the afternoon. Mr. Taggart said after the conversation that the candidate ought to be his own adviser, as he showed his knowledge of everything that is needed to promote an energetic campaign. It was agreed that the committee will get together informally in New York tomorrow and that the office of western headquarters will be considered.

Soon after the visitors arrived today Mrs. Mary Parker, Judge Parker's mother, Mrs. Parker, her sister, Mrs. Schenck, her daughter, Mrs. Hall, joined the group on the veranda and were presented to the guests.

Charles F. Murphy, just before departing, said: "Everything has been agreeable to me. I am here common with other Democrats throughout the country, to assist in promoting Democratic harmony and success. Everything that has occurred has impressed me with the fact that there is nothing to prevent all Democrats uniting and making a successful canvass in the state and nation. New York City will give the greatest majority ever known."

Mr. Murphy discussed state politics with Judge Parker and various state leaders. It may be said upon competent authority that Judge Parker and Mr. Murphy got very close together on that subject. The governorship and other places on the ticket were among the matters talked over. That he is not committed to Mayor McClellan of New York for governor is one of the things the Tammany leader is said to have told Judge Parker, who is said to have spoken earnestly in favor of the mayor.

Mr. Murphy said the gubernatorial nomination ought to be left open to await developments. August and Perry Belmont were engaged in talking of C. M. Meyer, chairman of the New York state committee, as the "harmony" man. It is said the Belmonts believe Mr. Meyer would make the strongest candidate that could be presented. The suggestion is ridiculed by Tammany leaders and Tammany is admitted by all to stand an excellent opportunity of dictating the nomination.

Friends of the many photographers present accomplished the posing of what was called the "harmony group." In it was Judge Parker, Senator Hill, Charles F. Murphy, Thomas Taggart, W. Cary Ely and John G. Maher of Nebraska.

Mr. Taggart is losing no opportunity in organizing for campaign work. Senator Daniel of Virginia and Bailey of Texas have been engaged for work in the north and Congressman Sharp Williams has agreed to hold himself ready for work in the New England states.

Mr. Taggart will open Chicago headquarters soon though he may spend much of his time in Indianapolis. It is conceded that William F. Sheehan will be the chairman of the national executive committee and it is believed that the executive and financial committees will be amalgamated. In that event the number will be increased to 12 members to provide places for doubtful states in the west.

One of the assurances of party success which particularly pleased Judge Parker was made by Mr. Maher of Nebraska, who said that Chief Justice Silas A. Halcumb would probably be nominated for governor and that under his leadership Nebraska would go Democratic. Horace S. Cummings of Connecticut predicted success in his state. John R. Hopkins of Illinois thought it too early to make definite promises.

Nearly all of the party returned to New York after a two-hour visit though Mr. Murphy and his colleagues remained an hour longer.

New York, July 27.—Members of the Democratic national committee, who visited Esopus today, were in the best of spirits on their return and all spoke in the highest terms about the reception that was given them by Judge Parker. Several members of the committee asserted that during the conference of Judge Parker, Chairman Taggart, Mr. Murphy and other members of the party, including August Belmont, harmonious relations were established.

South Dakota Democrats.

Grand Forks, N. D., July 27.—The following ticket was nominated today by the Democratic state convention: Governor—M. F. Hegge, Trall county. Congressmen—A. G. Burr and N. P. Rasmussen.

Railroad Commissioners—F. Martineau, Joseph Blavin and Axel Johnson. The Republican nominees for the supreme bench were endorsed. The resolutions endorse the St. Louis platform, declare for the initiative and referendum, favor a direct primary law and national grain inspection and the development of irrigation.

HERBERT SEELEY ARRESTED.

Issued Worthless Checks to Gamblers; Saucer Prosecutor.

Bisbee, Ariz., July 28.—Herbert Seeley, of Bridgeport, Conn., was arrested in Douglas, Ariz., on July 23 for issuing worthless checks in Bisbee. He was arrested by the local police. Seeley had spent all his money and gave worthless checks for $200, which he passed. When the checks were presented at the bank of Bisbee it was found that Seeley had no account there. His arrest followed. Seeley is out on bond. He has wired a brother in Bridgeport for funds to settle with the bank, but the money has not yet arrived. Seeley will have a hearing in the justice's court today. It is reported in Bisbee that Seeley is a brother of the pessey of "Dime" fame.

How a Rich Man Died.

Harrison, N. Y., July 28.—Estimated to be worth a hundred thousand dollars, John Weed, who for 50 years has delivered calls to the residents of Harrison, N. Y., died at his home in that town on his delivery wagon.

Although Mr. Weed was wealthy, he took delight in getting on one of his wagons and delivering coal as he did when poor.

NO PAROLE FOR RYAN.

Folk Objected and He Will Go to St. Louis at Once.

New York, July 27.—John J. Ryan, the turfman who was arrested at the Brighton Beach race track yesterday on a warrant charging him with grand larceny, was allowed to go on parole today on his promise to appear at the time to be set for his trial at St. Louis. Ryan's release was brought about by Circuit Attorney Folk, who had been informed that the prisoner was prepared to appear at the trial at St. Louis. Ryan surrendered himself after his attorneys had decided to oppose any action looking to his immediate removal to St. Louis. When State Attorney Fickelheim of St. Louis was told the situation he telephoned to Circuit Attorney Folk at St. Louis, and explained that it would be a hardship for Ryan to be taken west at this time. The sale of his horses is to take place tomorrow. Acting on Mr. Folk's advice Mr. Fickelheim agreed to allow Ryan to go on parole. With this understanding the application for a writ of habeas corpus was abandoned. Ryan was released after being taken to his home in New York.

When counsel for the defense were informed of the new turn in the case, habeas corpus papers were served on Detective Sergeant Vallely, who had Ryan in charge.

Counsel for Ryan announced this afternoon that their petition for a writ of habeas corpus had been withdrawn and that Ryan would go to St. Louis at once as a prisoner.

Francis Hartzell Resigns.

San Juan, Porto Rico, July 27.—Charles S. Hartzell, secretary of Porto Rico, has announced his resignation to take place in October. He will represent the insular government at the trial for the case of the late Governor. His title to property worth $3,000,000 claimed on one side by the Catholic church, and on the other by the island and its municipalities. The property includes churches, schools and hospitals. The conflicting claims have caused much friction and bad feeling.

Fought to Prevent a Suicide.

New York, July 28.—For five minutes last night the Rev. James Barry, a priest, fought on the window ledge of the third floor of a house on Second street, where he had been told that an insane woman had tried to end her own life by throwing her body to the street.

The priest, hearing that the woman had been ill, called on the family to see what could be done for her. She talked wildly to him and sprang up, crying that she would kill herself and ran to the open window.

The priest caught her by the skirts as she was about to jump. She turned savagely on him and with all her strength tried to fight him off. Mrs. Saxen's husband arrived at this point and went to the assistance of the priest. While waiting the arrival of an ambulance the woman became so violent it was necessary to place her in a patrol wagon and take her to the station house. From there she was taken to the hospital.

Francis-Vatican Quarrel.

Rome, July 27.—The reply of the holy see to the latest note of the French government was handed to the French representative yesterday and is now on its way to Paris, where it is expected to arrive tomorrow evening. Although there are many conjectures as to the nature of the reply, nothing official regarding it has been given out.

It is said that the departure of Bishop Nordet of Dijon from Paris at the summons of the French council of ministers without the authorization of the French government.

No answer, it is said, will be made to the papal communication before the meeting of the French council of ministers which will take place on July 28.

Paris, July 27.—The departure of Bishop Nordet, who was ordered to Rome, is regarded in official quarters as a serious aggravation of the conflict between France and the Vatican.

President Loubet will personally preside at the council of ministers Friday next, having just received his departure for his country house on this account.

But our advice is really worth a little more to you than most people's, for we offer to give you the first bottle of our medicine free, if it fails to help you.

Those whom it cannot benefit—less than one in ten thousand—we prefer to refund their money.

All we ask of you is to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine for your complaint. WON HIS BET.

Man Pulls Wife and Baby in a Sulky Cultivator to Fair.

St. Louis, July 28.—Hitched to a sulky cultivator, William Hoyt pulled his wife and their 4-year-old son all the way from Moline, Ill., to the world's fair.

Mr. Hoyt set out upon a wager and covered the distance of 315 miles in less than one month, thus winning his bet of $1,000 and incidentally obtaining experience which, he said, he would not have missed for any money.

Fall River Mills Strike.

Fall River, Mass., July 27.—"Unless the operatives agree to come into the mills and work under the proposed 12 1/2 per cent reduction, it is doubtful whether any attempt will be made by the manufacturers to run the mills before October."

This statement was made tonight by a prominent mill owner in reference to the cotton mills strike, involving 20,000 men.

In explaining this attitude the man quoted has found that to continue operations under the old wage scale would mean a loss of money. They prefer, therefore, to have the mills closed than to have them run at a loss.

No attempt was made to open a single mill affected by the strike today, and the strikers' ranks remain unbroken.

St. Anthony, Idaho, Hotel Afire.

St. Anthony, Ida., July 26.—The Hotel Riverside caught fire at 6:30 tonight but for the timely discovery of the blaze would have been burned to the ground. The fire started in the rear of the building over the kitchen and the roof was a mass of flames in an instant. The hotel was a department store and had two streams playing on the flames and in less than 15 minutes had the fire under control. Adjoining the hotel are several buildings and it looked for some time as though these, along with the hotel, were doomed to destruction. The Riverside is the only hotel in the town and it will be several days before the building can be put in shape to accommodate business. The loss is estimated at about $1,500, fully insured.

Oregon Postoffice Robbed.

Astoria, Or., July 27.—Experienced cracksmen last night broke into the postoffice at Knappa, 20 miles east of this city, dynamited the safe, but secured no booty. They hammered off the combination, placed a charge of dynamite in the safe and blew it open. Fire clay in the safe covered up the stamps and the robbers secured nothing. They declined to take several dollars in money and departed without other articles of value.

Gen. Funston Going to Alaska.

Seattle, Wash., July 28.—Gen. Frederick Funston, commanding the department of the Columbia and Alaska, accompanied by Maj. R. K. Evans, his adjutant general, and Lieut. B. J. Mitchell, personal aide, arrived last night and will leave this morning for Alaska. They go on a tour of inspection of all the army posts in Alaska, a journey involving thousands of miles of travel, from the Canadian boundary line to Cape Nome. The trip will occupy all summer. On his return Gen. Funston will go to New York to take command of the department of the east.

Cruisers Ordered to Tangier.

Toulon, July 27.—Under orders from Vice Admiral Gign, the armored cruiser Kiebler and the third-class cruiser Calio, sailed for Tangier tonight. The orders given to the commanders of the cruisers were to "hold themselves at the disposition of the minister of France."

Officers of the ministry of marine say that this action is not to be regarded in any aspect other than pacific, but that it is desirable in the present unpleasant condition of Morocco for the French government to be represented by the two warships so as to impress the natives.

It is suggested that the orders are the outcome of the representations made by the French minister to Foreign Minister Delcasse.

TO INVESTIGATE DISEASE GERMS.

Government Pathologists and Bacteriologists Are Deeply Interested in the Movement.

INFECTION BY INHALATION.

Commission Will be Composed of Scientists of National Reputation—Will Give Question Profound Study.

Special Correspondence.

Washington, D. C., July 23.—Government pathologists and bacteriologists are following with great interest the general movement under the auspices of the local boards of health of the larger cities toward securing better ventilation of street cars, churches, places of public amusement, etc., in connection with the sanitation of the same, and hope that much light can be thrown upon the possibility of infection through inhaling the respiration of diseased persons. The report has been received here, and noted with much satisfaction, that in furtherance of this project, the New York board of aldermen has made a special appropriation of $10,000 for the New York board of health to be devoted to the study of pneumonia and acute respiratory diseases, and the possibility of infection through inhalation. Dr. Briggs of the New York health department says: "It has been established that acute respiratory diseases are infectious and we believe they are produced by germs. Theoretically they should be preventable. In a large percentage of cases, where we know that the germ is and how it enters the body, they are in a measure preventable. Generally speaking the germs do not multiply outside of the living body, the inference may be that the disease is contracted from other individual who has the germs. Mortality in this group has slowly increased for the last 30 years."

It is understood that the commission which will have charge of this important investigation in New York will be composed of pathologists and bacteriologists of national reputation, and the names suggested as possible members of it are those of Dr. Edward G. Janeway of New York, Dr. William H. Welch and Dr. William Osler of Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore, Dr. Theobald Smith of Harvard university, and Dr. T. Mitchell Prudden, head of the pathological department of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia university.

In this connection Dr. Walter Wyman, surgeon general of the United States marine hospital service, said: "We have lately been compelled to modify some of our notions of the causes of contagious and infectious diseases. After the brilliant discoveries of Pasteur and Koch it was thought that the presence of the pathogenic microbe organism was like the bite of a venomous snake, surely poisonous. But now we know that there are other conditions besides the presence of the microbe necessary to produce disease. Many people go about with virulent diplocoeci of pneumonia in their respiratory tract but do not have pneumonia. Why? Because their cells are vigorous enough to prevent the diplocoeci invading the lungs, but put such a person under bad sanitary conditions or depress his vitality and the microbes are not phagocytized—they invade the lungs and pneumonia and death follow. The same to a limited degree, occurs with the bacillus diphtheriae."

"In times of cholera epidemics men go about with living, virulent, cholera vibrio in their intestinal canal, yet they are not sick. Why? Because the conditions for the production of the cholera toxins are not favorable—there is no abnormal flora in their intestinal canal. But let such a person eat poor and tainted food or derange his digestion through indiscretion or evil sanitary surroundings and the disease results."

"Many people live a long and active life with the tubercle bacilli encysted in the apex of one lung. As long as they have plenty of fresh air and sunshine and good sanitary surroundings they remain well. But give such a person poor food or bad sanitary surroundings and see what happens. The battle goes on between the bacilli and the cells results in a victory for the bacilli. The cells die and the victorious bacilli spread havoc through the lung. We, therefore, have a scientific proof of the sense of the old time notions of the value of fresh air and sunshine, of good food and good sanitary surroundings, and of the conditions of health which result from such good sanitary conditions are after all, among the very best preventives against infection."

MUNYON'S PAW-PAW

TRADE MARK

TO THE PUBLIC

In presenting PAW PAW, a natural stomach, heart and nerve tonic, I feel that I have added to the science of medicine a force that is as revolutionary as was vaccination, as important to mankind as the discovery of antiseptics and as beneficial in the preservation of human life and happiness as anything that man's ingenuity or providential wisdom has ever devised.

THE PRACTICAL DRUGGIST AND REVIEW OF REVIEWS says: "The juice of the Paw Paw is more efficacious than pepsin in dissolving albumen. The fruit or juice seems to have the same effect as a good digestive and is more effective in cases of dyspepsia and habitual constipation."

Having combined this wonderful natural remedy with other medicaments, I positively assert that I am giving to the world the greatest stomach, blood, heart and nerve tonic known to mankind.

I know that Paw Paw will make worn-out stomachs almost as good as new; will make good, rich blood and build up the nervous system; will do away with both the necessity and desire for beer, whisky, wine and other injurious stimulants.

A body that is overworked, a system that is run down, requires a stimulant. Alcoholic stimulants lift, but let you fall. PAW PAW LIFTS AND HOLDS YOU!

I want every weak and debilitated person to give Paw Paw a trial.

I want every doctor carefully to test this remedy and then honestly tell the public the results.

I want every clergyman when he feels exhausted to take Paw Paw and then tell his friends what he thinks of it.

I want every mother to introduce Paw Paw into her home. It will prove a ready agent in curing and warding off many diseases.

I want every tired woman after a hard day's work or an afternoon's shopping to take a tablespoonful of Paw Paw and see how quickly it will refresh and invigorate her.

I urge upon brain workers particularly the use of Paw Paw. It will immediately give tone and energy to the whole nervous system.

If the toiler who feels the need of a stimulant will step into the nearest drug store and ask for Paw Paw he will have no further use for whisky, beer or other alcoholic stimulants.

I believe when the public becomes thoroughly familiar with the virtues of Paw Paw it will not only be used in every home, but will be adopted into the United States army and navy, and used in every hospital throughout the civilized world.

GET A FREE BOTTLE TODAY.

In order that everybody may have a chance to test this remedy before buying, I have arranged for free distribution of 5,000 bottles from the office of the Salt Lake Herald.
