

DEMOCRATS MEET IN FIRST RALLY

R. P. Morris Defines His Position
As Candidate for Mayor

WAS ILL DURING CONVENTION.

As a Result His Statement Was Postponed Until Meeting of Women's Club—Attitude on Issues.

The formal statement of issues on which the Democratic party plans to attack its opponents in the coming campaign was made at the first party rally, held yesterday afternoon.

The rally was under the auspices of the Women's Democratic club, and it was held at the home of Mrs. Rebecca Brown. Former Mayor Morris, who was ill at the time of the party convention, was the first speaker, and he took occasion to define his position on party issues, and to make his pre-election pledges as to the kind of a campaign he will carry out.

After Mayor Morris had finished his address, M. F. Cunningham, candidate for treasurer, spoke briefly, as did also Stephen L. Richards, candidate for attorney, Mrs. E. J. D. Roundy, and Mrs. Brown.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS.
Mayor Morris divided his speech into sections, dealing with public improvements, and with the "religious issue."

"Because of illness I was unable to attend the recent Democratic city convention, but as I have been again honored with the nomination for mayor, it is but fair to my party associates, as well as to the public at large, that I define my position. In this connection I wish to discuss very briefly two issues."

First as to public improvements:—When I was nominated for mayor by the Democrats four years ago I accepted the nomination. I elected, we will give you an honest administration. We will give you a progressive administration, tempered by a wise economy which will not overreach the capacity of the taxpayers' citizens."

The platform upon which I was nominated then, said on this point: "We favor public improvements of all kinds without extravagance, especially do we favor the improvements of the streets, and we demand the prompt and rigid enforcement of all contracts with the city."

I was elected on this pledge and this platform and within two years 30 miles of permanent sidewalks, over two miles of paved streets, over seven miles of sewers and many miles of watermain were laid. And in this same connection the Democratic city platform for 1905 said: "The additional work now under way and provided for by ordinance will be sufficient to make the total greater than in the entire history of the city previous to 1904."

THE CONDUIT.
In this two years one-half of the Big Cottonwood stream was secured to the city on an exchange with the farmers for Utah lake water. A conduit to carry this water into the city was also provided for and the conduit partially built. As a result of this 14,000,000 gallons daily are flowing into the city from the Big Cottonwood. I may say in passing that not one gallon has since been added to the water supply secured by the Democratic administration. It must not be forgotten either that every obstruction, legal and otherwise, was thrown in the way of the accomplishment of this purpose by those who are now loudest in their claims of credit.

At the time the taxpayers voted the bonds to enable the city to secure the Big Cottonwood water they also voted funds for a main sewer for the western and southern part of the city. It is now almost three years since the bonds for this improvement were voted and still the residents of that portion of the city are without relief while all the time the money has been lying in the banks. This is not my idea of a business administration.

PLEDGES ALREADY MADE.
Accepting the Democratic nomination for mayor two years ago I said: "While I appreciate the honor of being the candidate of the Democratic party and heartily endorse the excellent platform which you have adopted, I also realize that the mayor represents the entire

Sweet's Carnation Chocolates have The Flavor

That comes only of the use of pure and high grade materials.
The result is a natural one—the most popular of all popular confections.

Sweet Candy Co.,

MANUFACTURING
CONFECTIONERS.

people of the city, and his actions should be controlled by an earnest desire to promote the welfare of the municipality, including all classes and parties.

"It shall be my aim in the future, as it has been in the past, to perform my official duties with such impartiality as will do exact justice to all."

"I pledge myself to a continuance of the progressive policy, I shall favor public improvements and municipal development as fast as the financial condition of the city will permit, always insuring upon a judicious and economical use of the public funds."

PERSONAL ATTITUDE.

"It will be my most ardent desire and earnest effort to carry on to completion the great work which has been inaugurated for increasing and developing an ample and permanent water supply for the city, for upon the successful consummation of this important project depends our future growth and development, as well as the health and happiness of the city. Nothing shall be left undone that I deem my duty to the accomplishment of this laudable purpose."

"If elected, I shall, as I have in the past, devote my entire time and energy, as I am now doing toward the advancement of the city's interests in all directions and for the welfare of the inhabitants, always endeavoring to attain and maintain the high standard of religious ethics in our community."

"I regard it as an outrage that men and women should be blacklisted because of their religious belief. This smacks too much of Russia and is wholly out of place in a liberty-loving American community."

I would make any sacrifice within my power to settle this strife. As a business man I know it is doing us untold injury both at home and abroad. If it could be eliminated from our politics, and if men of all religious beliefs could be induced to pull together for the advancement of our city, if peace and good fellowship could be made to prevail nothing could retard the progress of Salt Lake to the front rank of western cities."

Unfortunately appeals are again being made to the religious feelings of the voters. In my own case I am assailed on the one side as a tool of the Mormon church. On the other side I am assailed as the stool-pigeon of the "Americans" who are assaulting the Mormon church. I must let the record of my entire life in this city stand as my only answer to both charges.

I consider it an honor far beyond my merits to be chosen for the third time as the leader of my party. I assure you that I appreciate it highly. I was not a candidate for the nomination four years ago and stood ready to step aside for another. I was not a candidate two years ago and would have preferred the selection of another. This year I held the same position and held all party friends in the belief that I would much prefer to devote my time to my private business and do my best for the election of some other Democrat.

CARBON CITIZENS WANT PROTEST

Against Release on $5,000 Bond
By Price Justice of "Gun-play" Maxwell.

PETITION SENT TO MATHIS.

Claim Made That Offense May Result
In Murder Charge, and That Bondsmen Cannot Qualify.

Charles Bliss, better known as "Gun-play" Maxwell, was discovered perched before a lunch counter at 11 o'clock last night eating pickled mackerel. The mackerel wasn't half as sour or bitter as its eater. "Gunplay" was in an ugly mood, and when reporters approached he seemed to recognize them at once. He paid as little attention to them as possible, and grunted out answers that didn't answer to the questions asked him. His right arm is in a sling and an ugly scratch down his nose—made in being "bumped" through a glass window—does not make him any more pleasant. He said there has been a word of truth printed regarding the fight between himself and Retimer last Sunday, but he would not offer his version. His attorney, S. King, has been doing all the talking for the "bad man" so far.

SURPRISE AT RELEASE.

From reports received from Price and Helper it seems that portion of the state is greatly surprised at the action of Judge Mathis in letting Maxwell out on $5,000 bonds. M. P. Braffet, general counsel for the Utah Fuel company, is one of the "bad man's" enemies. A new reason advanced for the interest displayed by Braffet is that Maxwell was Braffet's bodyguard when the Utah Fuel company had labor troubles on its hands. Maxwell is said to have boasted to the authorities at Price that he would not stay in jail if it took all the money a certain corporation had.

CITIZENS' PROTEST.

The citizens of Price and Helper are greatly incensed over the release of Maxwell and a petition started in Price and now being circulated in Helper is being signed by taxpayers and is as follows:

H. G. Mathis, Justice of the Peace, Price, Utah:

In view of the fact that C. L. Maxwell, a known outlaw and criminal, has been released on $5,000 bail for an offense which may result in a charge of murder, and in view of the fact that there are good and sufficient reasons to believe that he will not remain in jail, we, the undersigned electors and citizens of Price and Helper county, respectfully request your attention to the following facts, and in view of these representations, we ask that you declare the bond of C. L. Maxwell void and order his rearrest, pending a proper investigation of the qualifications of his bondsmen, and your reconsideration of the action in releasing C. L. Maxwell on a nominal bond.

In support of our respectful request we present the following facts for your consideration:

First—Section 4996 of the Revised Laws of Utah, relating to the license of practice on bonds is as follows: "Each of them (the bondsmen) must be a householder or freeholder within this state; but the court or magistrate may refuse to accept any person as bail who is not a resident of the county where bail is offered."

Second—"They must each be worth the amount specified in the undertaking, exclusive of property exempt from seizure on execution, or magistrate, on taking bail, may allow more than two securities to justify severally in the amounts less than that expressed in the undertaking, the whole in no case to equal to that sufficient bail."

From this statute, we respectfully call your attention to the statement that says the magistrate is at liberty to refuse the bond of any one who is not a resident of the county.

In view of this, it is apparent that the release of C. L. Maxwell, with M. P. Braffet and L. W. Milburn as sureties, was entirely in violation of the law in no way complying with its provisions. We further respectfully call your honorable attention to the fact that L. W. Milburn is at present paying taxes on only four pieces of property, the total value of which is $1,450 and no more while the law expressly states that he must be worth at least the full amount of the bond, over and above all property exempt from execution.

Further, in view of the fact that C. L. Maxwell has on various occasions within the last 30 days threatened the lives of citizens of Carbon county, and the undersigned citizens, believe that under circumstances should C. L. Maxwell be allowed his liberty until he has been tried for these offenses.

We further call your attention to the fact that before C. L. Maxwell left Price with his bondsmen, M. P. Braffet, he had procured firearms, which he concealed about his person.

With the hope that you may see fit to order that C. L. Maxwell be returned to the custody of the sheriff, pending investigation of his bonds, and your further consideration of increasing the amount of his bond, we and the undersigned citizens, believe that it is our duty to present this petition.

GOVERNOR ISSUES PROCLAMATION

Declaring Half Holiday on Oct. 2,
Salt Lake County Day at The State Fair.

BUSINESS HOUSES TO CLOSE.

Special Prizes Will be Awarded in the Art Department in Addition To Regular List.

Wednesday, Oct. 2, is Salt Lake county day at the Utah State fair and a proclamation has been issued by Gov. John C. Outler declaring a half holiday on that date. Similar action will doubtless be taken by Mayor Brannford.

Several of the largest business houses of the city have expressed their intention of closing at noon on that day, and it is believed that the movement will be general. Keith O'Brien, Z. C. M. L. Auerbach and J. C. Cutler & Co. are the firms that have led out in the matter of closing.

SPECIAL PRIZES.

The following special prizes have been added to the lists of awards already announced for the art department:

Best original portrait in water color, $25; best original etching, $10; best original drawing in pencil, $10; best original painting of fruit or still life, $5; best specimen of sculpture (in addition to gold medal), $25; best original specimen of wood carving (in addition to gold medal), $25; best original specimen of turned pottery, $5.

DESERET SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.

The semi-annual conference of the Deseret Sunday School Union will be held at the tabernacle Sunday evening, October 6, 1907, at 7 o'clock. Sunday school officers and teachers are especially requested to attend and the public is cordially invited.

A special meeting of the stake superintendents and boards will be held Sunday Oct. 6, at 8 a. m. at Barratt Hall. A full attendance is requested.

JOSEPH F. SMITH.

GEORGE REYNOLDS
DAVID O. MCKAY.
General Superintendency.

ONLY ONE SALARY.

Atty.-Gen. Breeden Submits Opinion in Regard to County Officials.

Atty.-Gen. Breeden has submitted an opinion that county officers can not receive compensation beyond that fixed by the county commissioners. The communication is addressed to W. H. Streeter, attorney for Davis county, and is as follows:

"In reply to your inquiry contained in your favor of the 21st inst., relating to the salary of county officers, I am glad to employ another county officer to perform extra services in his office and pay him a compensation in excess of the salary fixed by the county commissioners, and as received by such officer."

"Section 166 of the Laws of 1896, authorizes the respective boards of county commissioners to fix the salaries of county officers at a certain sum below a fixed maximum, and when these salaries are fixed and determined in accordance with the provisions of the said section, the county officers are to be in full compensation for all services of every kind and description rendered by them in the discharge of their duties, and no further charge can be legally made against the county."

This section appears to be plain and easily understood. It is the duty of a county officer receiving a fixed salary from the county to not render services to the county in addition to his regular duties, and receive extra compensation therefor from the county, and any appropriation by the county commissioners under such circumstances would be illegal. A deputy county officer receiving a fixed salary in accordance with section 166, would stand on the same footing as a county officer, and would not be entitled to receive any compensation in excess of the salary fixed by the county commissioners, and no further charge can be legally made against the county."

One of Wednesday's interesting weddings was that of Miss Sigrid Pederson and Mr. B. Q. Carl which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Pederson, with only the relatives and a few friends in attendance. Beautiful flowers were everywhere, the gifts of numerous friends who called during the afternoon to extend good wishes. The bride wore a lustrous gown of white crepe de chine, and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The ceremony for an extended trip to the coast.

PERSONALS.

Contractor P. J. Moran has returned from an extended business trip in the east.

Miss Beale Young has returned from her vacation in Idaho, to enter the state university.

Cashier H. K. Young of the Deseret National bank has gone on a vacation trip to southern California.

E. W. Wilson, the California banker, formerly of this city, has gone east on a business trip, over the Northern Pacific road.

E. B. Dorman has returned from a two week visit in Cincinnati, where Mrs. Dorman and daughter will remain for several weeks.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown of San Diego, Cal., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hancock of this city. Dr. Brown was Rev. E. L. Johnson's predecessor as pastor of the First Congregational church.

Rector C. L. Perkins of St. Paul's Episcopal church, is attending a church convocation at Richmond, Va., and during his two weeks' vacation will visit his former home in Baltimore, Maryland, and other eastern places of interest.

Joseph A. Silver, president of Silver Brothers from works, is back from a flying trip to Chicago, where he went to exchange ideas with some of the big mill and factories on machinery and tools. He also found at the factories running at full blast and the general report was that orders were as heavy as at the same time last year. In some quarters, however, labor union troubles had greatly embarrassed production.

CUBANS ARRESTED FOR CONSPIRACY.

Havana, Cuba, Sept. 24.—The secret police have arrested Gen. Maso Parra, Gen. Juan Dacosta and Gen. Juan M. L. charged with conspiring against public order.

LASTANIA BULLETIN.

On Board S. S. Lastania, Sept. 25.—(By wireless via Cape Race.) At 10 o'clock tonight, the Lastania was 1,600 miles from New York and 1,135 from Liverpool. She is making 22.4 knots per hour.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. T. C. Smith wishes to thank the many friends of her family for the part each took in cheering their daughter in the last days of her life, and also for the many kindnesses extended during the illness, death and burial of Miss Beale Smith, whose funeral occurred Tuesday last.

The many beautiful flowers sent as last tributes of respect and love, testified to the enduring bonds of affection which existed in her life, and which are not sundered by death. They were appreciated as only a mother can appreciate a tribute to the memory of a departed daughter at the moment of her passing.

To those whose words comforted and whose words furnished music and strength she expresses her deep gratitude. Mrs. Smith and family hope that the aid and comfort of God will be administered to them will return to them in manifold blessings.

It is a great consolation to know that our loved one will be missed in other homes than ours.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

One of the prettiest wedding receptions of the year was that of Miss Hattie Whitney and Sidney G. Saville, which took place last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Pyper on Second street, the ceremony having been performed at the temple in the morning by the bride's brother, Apostle O. F. Whitney, with the near relatives and friends in attendance.

The rooms were beautifully decorated, the library in green and white, which was the color of the bride's gown, and the dining room with a canopy of white tulle and ferns, while flowers and vines were all about the room. The reception hall was in red, tulle being used, and the dining room and stands ready to respond. Herman was a handsome gown of white tulle with a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and pink satin streamers brought from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The girls were very numerous and elaborate. The bride was attended by Miss Betta Pyper and the groom by William James and a number of near friends and relatives. A string quartet, consisting of Herman, a violin, a cello and a double bass, was a centerpiece and