CLAIM UNFAIR TREATMENT. Were Penalized for Technical Foul While Reynolds and Bradford Were Given the Best of It.

Willie Schatz and Fenton Hardy, the Utah skaters, the first of whom won the Marathon race from a field of the fastest skaters in the west, have returned from Butte where they finished second in the six-day race, losing to Reynolds and Bradford, and they bring with them tales of unfair treatment which they say they received at the hands of the two skaters and the judges.

"We were treated worst by everybody except the judges and the two skaters," said Schatz. "When we committed even a technical foul we were set back while the judges completely ignored the same fouls committed by Bradford and Reynolds. Why, in the last hour of the race we pulled away from Reynolds and Bradford, but would race in Salt Lake where he knew he would get fair treatment.

BIG BOOST FOR STANLEY KETCHEL In New York He is Regarded As the Real Goods.

HE IS A GENUINE CHAMPION. Middleweight Makes Good Impression on Gotham's Fight Fans—What He Has Done.

New York, March 29.—Stanley Ketchel is a pleasant looking young man with a talkative personality. He is not inclined to talk much about his prowess in the ring, but there seems to be no doubt that he is a fighter. Moreover, there is a substantial belief that he can hit like the kick of a mule. Possessing a reasonable amount of science, Ketchel does not believe in fancy boxing, however, for he has shown that his long suit is the heaviest kind of slugging.
