As big as the grand Pyramid might be built of the teeth that have been ruined by neglect. Shall this thing go in face of the great fact that footrot is a certain preservative of dental decay?

A COUGH, cold, or sore throat, requires immediate attention, as neglect sometimes results in some incurable lung disease. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" will almost invariably give relief.

WHAT a beautiful lot of Baby Carriages and so very cheap at Dinwoody's Furniture Store. $125. ANOTHER terrible explosion but S. McKay was not killed. Therefore he has come to the front and has 100,000 cabbage and tomato plants, which he will sell as cheap as the cheapest at a place, Second South Street, 11th Ward, Salt Lake City.

It is the most delightful of all hair dressing—cooling the head, allaying irritation, curing headache and throbbing temples, making the hair strong, fragrant, glossy and obedient to control, so cleanly to use, that it will not soil the finest fabric, causing the hair to grow luxuriantly and beautifully, removing dandruff and pimples. No man or woman can become bald who will use the Lyon's Kathalon properly. d104

EVENING NEWS.

Friday, April 22, 1876. PRICE OF GOLD.—Corrected daily by Deseret National Bank. GOLD MARKET, APRIL 22, 1876. SALES: LONDON, APRIL 22, 1876. DRY GOODS MARKET, APRIL 22, 1876.

Local and Other Matters. "Where Ignorance is Bliss, Etc."—We presume it will be taken in good part now that the dead carcass of a cow that was lying in City Creek, a couple of miles up the Cañon, was taken out of that stream day before yesterday.

From Kanab.—We were called upon this morning by Brother William D. Johnson, son of Kanab. He let that place March 20th, and on account of the horrible condition of the roads, had to stop over about a week on the way. Having learned that snow had fallen three to ten feet deep in Wild Cat Cañon, he avoided that way, traveling via Minersville.

Theatre.—Last evening Mr. A.H. Burnett gave his second entertainment, with a change of programme, excepting the closing lightning character sketches.

District Court Clerkship.—Yesterday Judge Emerson appointed Mr. Willis F. McBride clerk of the Third District Court. He has really done the work of the clerkship for a considerable time, and is well qualified for the position, not only on account of his intimate acquaintance with the nature of its duties, but also because of his being uniformly accommodating and his gentlemanly demeanor.

"Temples of the Rio Virgen."—This is the subject of a large picture, just completed by Mr. Fred Lambourne. We believe it is the best production yet of that progressive young artist, possessing many points of merit. The manner sketchy is particularly well portrayed, which, together with the characteristic surrounding scenery, or towering, majestic rocks, with the slow gliding stream between, gives the picture a dreamy, quiet aspect, so peculiar to the scenery of Southern Utah. The picture is on exhibition at the Pioneer Art Gallery.

Strange Subject for Gambling.—Between eleven and twelve o'clock today the jury in the case of the People, etc., vs. Kelly, indicted for the murder of Peter Van Valkenberg, having received the charge from the Court, retired to consider their verdict.

As the jury were leaving for their room a somewhat remarkable proceeding was transacted among the spectators, there being a number of gamblers, or sports mixed with them, who immediately commenced betting on the nature of the verdict that would be rendered, and whatever the result may be it will cause several hundred dollars to change hands. Betting on a life and death issue like this is one in question is surely an unusual way of seeking to make money.

Dom Pedro.—Yesterday afternoon Mayor Little received the following answer to the dispatch sent by him to the Emperor of Brazil at Minas, already mentioned in the News: "LARAMIE, WYO., April 21. 'To the Mayor, Salt Lake: 'Dom Pedro will go to Salt Lake before going to his home in Brazil. He thanks the municipal authorities for their kind invitation, but he wishes to maintain the private character in which he travels. 'As regards Macemon.'"

"Cheyenne, Et."—"John Sharp, Supt. U. C. R. R."—"Dom Pedro will pass over your road on Saturday afternoon, and remain till the Sunday afternoon when he will be expected to Salt Lake."—"E. T. HAZEL, 'Conductor, Pullman car.'"

A telegram was also received at the Walker House ordering hotel accommodations for His Majesty and party.

Swollen.—City Creek is considerably swollen and the waters thick with mud. Coming Home.—Elder James Sharp is expected to reach home, from Europe, within a couple of months. Eighth Ward.—Elder Orson Pratt will preach at the 8th Ward Assembly Rooms to-morrow (Sunday) evening. Services commence at 7 o'clock.

Fine Shower.—A very fine refreshing shower of rain fell this morning, with a considerable sprinkling of hail part of the time. Brazilian National Hymn.—This grand march will be performed by the theatrical orchestra to-night, at the Theatre, in honor of His Excellency Dom Pedro.

Notice.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet at the City Hall, Monday, April 24, 1876, at 10 o'clock, a.m. GEO. E. WALLACE, Clerk.

Overflowed.—We are informed that Cañon Creek, from Sugar House Ward to the lower parts of the city, overflowed its banks, and is doing harm to the farming land. A little labor may save considerable damage.

The Emperor.—The following dispatch was received this afternoon by Manager Harris: "Dom Pedro telegraphs he will go to the Theatre to-night. 'Lewis, 'Atlantic and Pacific.'"

Postponed.—A large number of the parties who have yet settled their city taxes, having asked for further time to enable them to pay up, Collector Winder has concluded to grant the request, and therefore postpones the sale of the property of delinquents, announced to take place next Monday, till the 8th of May.

Our Country Contemporaries. Ogden Junction, April 21. Yesterday two little boys, sons of Mr. Joseph Perry, were playing with an axe, when the elder, aged about four years, chopped off one of the little fingers of his brother, aged about two years.

Remains of a Boy Found. Newton, Cache Co., April 15, 1876. Editor Deseret News: Yesterday a son of Bishop Littlewood, while hunting stock on the divide between Hampton's and this place, found in an advanced state of decomposition the remains of a boy about eight years of age. They were brought to town and at the request, held by Justice William Bell, Joseph Wilson and James Hansen, the following evidence was given:—

The deceased, Emile Johnston, son of Sister Johnston, of this town, was born September 14, 1867, lived last Summer with his uncle Hans Johnston, at Deweyville, Box Elder Co., and about the 5th of January he left his uncle's home on foot and alone, to come to the city of Newton. He was seen to cross Hampton's divide the same afternoon. Some time after it was reported that he had found his way to Plymouth in safety, but on this report proving incorrect, a search was made for the body to the top of the divide. The remains were found but a short distance from the road, about ten miles from Deweyville, and three from Newton. On account of the very deep snow, no road was kept open, this being over the divide, and the body would have been found from this side of the mountain. J. H. B.

The Coming of The Plague. It is more than a century and a half since the last, never to be forgotten, visit of the plague to England. Half a century ago, when it disappeared, it was heaped for ever, from the continent of Europe and its once favorite haunts in Asia Minor. Cholera has been its place, and has been the devastation of this scourge, but never struck with such terror as did that of the Plague.

And now, after its long absence, the dreaded Plague is once more on the old-time western coast. For the last two years it has made still appearances at villages on the lower Rhyphans. News has been received of its outbreak in High Asia, in Asiatic Turkey, and about Baghdad. These outbreaks are reported to show no diminution of the old virulence, and there is every probability that the malady will before long be conveyed from Baghdad to the Levant. The London Times give warning that it may not stop there, but will not unlikely continue its westward progress to Europe, and even to Great Britain. The present state of commercial communication is highly favorable to the swift and easy transmission of the pestilence from its Asiatic home to Western Europe, from whence it might be conveyed by emigrant ships to our own shores. It is true that improved sanitary regulations and better habits of living will serve to fight the pestilence from the old days of its westward progress, but the caution is not ill-timed that bids the sanitary authorities of this country to be fully prepared for any emergency which may arise, and to consider beforehand the precautions which would be required if any case of plague should be brought within their jurisdiction.
