THE DIFFERENCE.

Queen Victoria enjoys a good many privileges which are denied to the President of the United States, though in some other respects he is the more powerful ruler of the two.

Victoria is just now enjoying one of the "mother matters" above spoken of, it being a four weeks' sojourn among the Florentines in Italy.

THE COURSE OF LAW. In the continuation that attended the closing days of the trial of the convicted wife-killer Harris, and that has since made itself manifest in the announcement of measures to secure his pardon by the governor, the American people have had about as disquieting a spectacle as the criminal annals of the country have ever furnished.

Every effort is made to save the man from conviction. The skill of lawyers, the testimony of witnesses, the sympathetic appeals to jurors were all employed to the utmost. The court gave to the case an almost incredible amount of patience, and the press elaborated its various stages of progress with unexampled minuteness.

THE HUSBAND, BUT TO SAY IT PROBABLY, when General Grant has been accused in connection with his visit to the late Pope, finds a recent article in the greeting given the pontiff by King Oskar of Sweden. King Oscar has mentioned the case of the killing by King the Pope's hand, Oskar is his simple-mindedness scarcely touched his indignation as both cheeks.

REV. T. DEWEY TALMAGE, the Brooklyn divine, dropped $200 to help in his room a London English hotel last Christmas. The man was invited to him by a messenger, who overtook him at the depot. Of course the reverend gentleman will drop a larger offering for the Brooklyn tabernacle than that of that messenger had been slower or less honest.

MEMORIAL DAY in Western politics is being so commemorated in the United States—Massachusetts paper. "MORONICIA" in Eastern States has already become a serious question. Under its sinister influence press writers strain heights and depths of lunacy such as the world never knew witnessed.

IN THE LIGHT OF A long train of days in the immediate past, we are constrained to repeat that our own law firm in the Westminster court which we took on this day—"The husband in fact."

AS AN INTERESTING story in the fact that East India people are alligator eggs, it deserves to be stated that alligators occasionally eat East India people.

THE FATHERS are becoming almost illegible. It has been found necessary to keep the great document out of the sunlight in a hermetically sealed case, and the removal would involve risks and perils that should not on any consideration be taken.

The perceptive Washington association is... The Donation should not... any consideration past out of the treasury of the government. It is the very greatest document we have, and has been well treasured.

There is something to think of in all this. At a glance we comprehend somewhat the vastness of our own country in point of square miles compared with others, and the indigence of the annual report for keeping it from falling into the hands of others.
