LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—The congregation in the morning was addressed by Elder A. E. Hyde and Bishop L. E. Harrington, of American Fork. Elder Hyde said that experience has taught us that, unless we rely on the Spirit of God to dictate us when we are called upon to teach the people, we cannot do so successfully. If we would gain an exaltation in the Kingdom of God, we must obey every requirement the Lord sees fit to make of us through His servants. Bishop L. E. Harrington said to endorse the testimony of Bro. Hyde. He knew for himself that the gospel, as taught by President Young and the Twelve, is the gospel of God. He had been in these valleys of the mountains twenty-two years, and has mingled freely with the people but never felt any crushing influence in regard to the expansion of his intellect or his belief in any particular.

In the afternoon Elder Joseph V. Young occupied the time in a very interesting manner. He began his remarks by reading the 24th chap. of Matthew, which he commented upon in a very forcible and effective manner, showing the fulfillment of many of the predictions therein contained and the certainty of the fulfillment of the rest. He showed by the signs of the times that the great day of the Lord was nigh at hand when He will consummate His great purposes in the overthrow of the wicked and those who love unrighteousness.

JUVENILE BALL.—The sloppy and inclement state of the weather of Saturday afternoon doubtless prevented many an expectant juvenile from taking part in the pleasures afforded at the ball specially held at the Theatre for their amusement. Those, however, who were present—and there were many—had a most pleasant time and enjoyed themselves much. The ball was prolonged till a late hour, when the youngsters dispersed after having spent a delightful and long-to-be remembered evening.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—We call attention to the Free Lecture to be delivered by Mrs. Olive N. Robinson at 7 o'clock this evening, at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms. We have reason to believe, from the ability of the Lecturer, that this lecture will be well worth listening to, and that the subject—Woman, her Sphere, Usefulness in Society, Development, etc., will receive justice at her hands.

INDIGNATION MEETING.—We have received a copy of a series of resolutions passed at a mass meeting of the ladies of Springville, held on Friday last, to express their indignation against Messrs. Cullom and Cragin.

The resolutions are some, you had better believe, and if the gentlemen for whose special benefit they were got up were only to read them they'd be immediately. We shall most likely print them in another issue, they are too lengthy for to-day. They must be preserved as a memorial of the match, integrity and grit of the ladies of Springville, to whose heads and hearts they do honor.

Mrs. Cynthia Clyde was elected to preside over the meeting; and Misses Ida and Ina Johnson, Secretaries.

THE WEATHER.—Always an interesting theme, and especially so this afternoon, when our old friend Sol is again venturing to take a peep from his hiding place, not having been able to do so during the past two or three days of excessively snowy and stormy weather.

KILLED.—On the 5th inst., while en route from this city to Lehi, John Jackson, aged 51 years, late of Birkenhead, England.—Mill. Star please copy.

CHARLOTTE THOMPSON AT THE THEATRE.—Remember, the debut of this celebrated actress before the Salt Lake public will take place at the Theatre, to-night. The piece that will be presented on the occasion is Sheridan Knowles' famous production, entitled "Julia, or the Hunchback." Charlotte Thompson appears as Julia; she will be supported by Kate Denin and Mr. Wilson, the former as Helen, the latter as Sir Thomas Clifford. Other characters will be personated by the strength of the Company.

This piece is one of the most celebrated in the hands of such artists will be a great feast to lovers of legitimate acting. The piece is an established favorite here and has been presented on several occasions; but we think, from the reputation of those who personate the leading characters to-night, that the public may conscientiously expect its presentation on this occasion will be superior to any previous one.

The force of "Brother Bili and Me" will conclude the entertainment, giving Margaret and Graham a capital opportunity for the display of their abilities as comedians. This is a rare bill and should most certainly draw a full house.

PERIODICALS.—The enterprising proprietor of the Railroad News Depot, James Dwyer, Esq., has laid us under obligations for the beautiful display of the latest periodicals and other matter laid upon our desk this morning. Among them we noticed "Harper's Weekly" for the 15th inst., and "Appleton's Journal" for the 22nd inst.; also the January numbers of Godley's Lady's Book and the new series of the "Phrenological Journal," and a number of a new London Journal, entitled "The Graphic," the same also as "Harper's Weekly," also a musical work called "Merry Chimes," being quite a large collection of songs, duets, trios, and sacred pieces published by the well known music publishers, Oliver Ditson & Co., of Boston, Mass., especially designed and adapted to juvenile classes. The public may find all the above, and a large lot of sheet music, etc., for sale at reasonable rates, at the Railroad News Depot, on the west side of East Temple street.

A HINT.—Perhaps nothing has a greater tendency to create habits of punctuality in a community, than the well regulated departure of railroad trains. When a rigid adherence to the time specified on the time tables is certain, it will soon be known and the public will speedily come up to the required standard of punctuality. Some pedestrians passing our office at 7.15 o'clock this morning asked us whether "they" would be in time for the train? "We told them to hurry on." They did hurry on, but the inevitable whistle must have sadly disturbed the feelings of our travelers for its shrill note sounded long and loud before they had scarcely reached the end of the Temple block. We respectfully remind our readers that 7 a.m. is the advertised time of departure, not of the traveler from home but of the train for Ogden.
