DELANT'S

CHEMICAL
BAKING POWDER

CRITICAL ANALYSIS.
UNIVERSITY OF DESERT,
Salt Lake City, June 28th, 1887.

By carefully examining Delant's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, found that it is free from Alum, Starch, Flour, House Ash, Arsenic and all other poisons; and that it consists essentially of Cream of Tartar and Bicarbonate of Soda.

The Baker's Powder examined I purchased at Barnes & Davis, in this city.
J. T. KINGSBURY, Chemist.

MANUFACTURERS, CHEMISTS, GOVERNMENTS, PRINCIPALITIES OR POWERS are unable to disprove the statement on every can of Delant's Chemical Baking Powder. Made of Pure Cream of Tartar and Bicarbonate Soda only. No filling whatever.

CAUTION!—The one fourth less of this Baking Powder, and one half less shortening with all recipes than other brands.

EVENING NEWS.

Saturday October 5, 1887.

JETS OF GINGER.

A dish of hot water set in the oven prevents cuts from frost-biting.

The official whose business it is to look into the affairs of the nation is very properly called pry-mistral.

"Son (who loves travel)—'O, for a trip round the world!' Father (who loves to travel)—'O, for nothing, my boy.'"

Young Man—Will you give assent to my marriage with your daughter, sir?
Old Man, (firmly)—No, sir, not a cent.

Smith—I hear Mrs. B. has returned from the country. Brown—Yes, she meets the melancholy days are come, the saddest of the year.

Customer—What do you sell these clears for?
Clerk (absently)—Havanas—but they ain't by a long chalk!

"You look," said an Irishman to a pale, haggard smoker, "as if you had got out of your car to visit your cigar, and couldn't find your way back again."

It is said that bees possess the power of memory. If the bee that sat down on the back of a black neck last summer will come back and apologize, we won't say any more about it.

The angel fixed his sandy fies;
He looked so gracefully bent; last summer He hooked two trout of monstrous size.

And then, by Jove, he lost em!
Wizwig—I don't know what I'm to do about that bill I owe at Sonnet's; he snubbed me fearfully. Wife—Well, you know if he becomes unbearable you can pay it. Wizwig—Yes, I can do that.

Wife—I saw you looking at your old sweetheart, Miss Crismon, to-day.
Husband—Well, she sat right in front of me.

Wife—But you needn't have been quite so interested.
Husband—Why, my dear girl, I was thinking how much that mole on her neck looked like a ripe tomato.

Wife—Have a little more sugar in your tea, hubby?
Just like the old town—"What's all this racket?" asked a travelling man, as he got off the train in Philadelphia.

"They're celebrating the signing of the United States Constitution."
"Why, that happened a hundred years ago!"

"And they are just getting on to it?
Well, if that ain't Philadelphia all over!"

"You were a nice, quiet little boy in Sunday school this morning, Bobby," said the minister. "I was very much pleased."
"Yes," replied Bobby. "pa said that if I'd behave myself in Sunday school I needn't go to church."

Peddler—I'd like to show you my stock of fancy ribbons, and Domestic—Don't want none o' y'r truck.

Peddler—I did not expect to sell to you madam; you have plenty of time for shopping; the one I wish to see is the kitchen lady.

Domestic—Come in. I'll look at em.

Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver, for if the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull, aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirits are depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a barometer, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business pleasure during its use, makes Simmons Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

I have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliaryness and throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. Have tried forty other remedies before Simmons Liver Regulator, and none of them gave more and temporary relief, but the Regulator not only relieved but cured.
