TOOK TOO MUCH STRYCHNINE. New York, Jan. 2.—That Mrs. Van Ness Roberts, well known in New York society, is dying of an overdose of strychnine, self-administered, was re-ported to the office of Coroner Acritelli today. The eoroner went to Mrs. Rob-erts' apartments at 227 Riverside drive and found two physicians attending her, but she was unconscious and be-lleved to be dying. From the physi-cians and members of the household, he learned that Mrs. Roberts had been suffering from heart trouble for some time and had been taking minute doses of styrchnine as a heart stimulant. Last evening, one of her physicians was notified that she had collapsed and when he reached her apartments she was in a critical condition. One of the maids said Mr. Roberts had tak-en several of the strychnine tablets.

The girl's story was in part the same as told by her when the defendant had a hearing on a somewhat similar, but more serious charge, in September last, more serious charge, in September last. In cross-examination, Mr. Duncan en-deavored to bring out that the story told by the girl today conflicted with her statements at the former hearing. At the examination in September she testlifted, he reminded her from the tran-cordet that she was entirely alone with testified, he reminded her from the tran-script, that she was entirely alone with the defendant in the room when the offence is alleged to have been com-mitted; today she swore that one of Mr. Spencer's daughters occupied the same bed at the time, and that in an-other bed, two or three feet away, an-other bed, two or three feet away, another bed, two or three feet away, an-other daughter was sieeping. On the former occasion she stated, counsel re-minded her, that next morning Mr. Spencer had spoken of his annoying her during the night. Today she said that the conversation next morning was of an entirely different character. Con-tradictions as to the alleged acts of defendant at the time the crime was alleged to have been committed, were also pointed out to witness.

MOTHER'S TESTIMONY.

MOTHER'S TESTIMONY. Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Wallace, mother of Hannah Eva Wallace, then took the stand and narrated the incidents leading up to the employment of her daughter at the knitting works, and of the girl's staying at Mr. Spencer's home. Mrs. Wallace then stated that her suspicions were aroused on the morning of Aug. 26, hast, upon laying aside clothes intended for the family wash. She came immediately to the city, accompanied by her brother, George Bertoch, had asked the girl whether she had been subjected to any wrongdoing and had received an affirmative reply. affirmative reply.
