LOCAL NEWS.

Redden Stokes. - Mrs. W. W. Stokes, of 166 Clara street, San Francisco, Cal., desires to know the whereabouts of Mr. Redden Stokes, if he is living, or if dead, any information concerning him that can be given. If any person can furnish Mrs. Stokes with an account of the gentleman, please communicate with the above address.

Death from Diphtherla,-It was hoped that the fell -scourge diphtheria Three remaining children were at once around the animal, which died from the removed from the vicinity in order to secure their safety-s wise precaution and and an example which might be followed perhaps with a vantage in other cases of contagious disease.

Welcome Visitors. - We were pleased this morning to receive a call from Mr. Oliver Shelby, of Fountain County, Indiana, who arrived in this city last evening. His wife preceded him a few days, in company with Mr. Webb, of the land office. Mr. and Mrs. Shelby are paying a short visit to Utah, in whose people they manifest a kindly interest, and among whom they have many warm triends. They are at present staying with Mr. George Nebeker, in the Nineteenth Ward. For a long time the house of Mr. Shelby has been a home from the Elders who have been preaching the Gospel in Indiana, and he and his estimable wife have often betriended the servants of God when they were suffering from persecution. We hope their visit to Utah will be full of pleasure and encourage-
