FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Evan Stephens music class meeting at 7 o'clock to-night.

Ten dollars reward offered for a lost brooch. See advt.

The highwayman story of the Kino matter of Monday night is very generally discredited.

The water of Jordan now flows through the Salt Lake and Jordan canal, to the spilling place, in City Creek culvert.

Mr. W. H. Sabin, of Clark Bros. wholesale warehouse, New York, is in town. He is well known on the road and is always welcome.

We received a fraternal call yesterday from F. R. Clayton, Esq., editor and publisher of the Southern Utonian. He left for the South this morning.

Robert Watson, Esq., representing Z. C. M. I. Starts for New York to-morrow morning. His wife will accompany him on a visit to the Atlantic Coast. Pleasant trip.

Certain business men in this city are taking steps towards the organization and incorporation of a company for the establishment of a factory to can fruit and vegetables both for home consumption and exportation. The capital stock of this enterprise is set at $20,000, to be secured in twenty shares at $1,000 each, four of which was subscribed to-day, with a good prospect of soon obtaining the rest.—Ogden Herald.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—The High Council will meet in the Council House, on Friday evening, the 14th inst., at 7 o'clock.

WM. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Sudden Death.—To-day the body of a miner named William Kennedy was brought to Salt Lake for burial. He died suddenly, having been found dead in his bed yesterday morning.

Money Found.—A sum of money has been found between Soldier Fork and Sanpete Valley. By identifying the property, the owner can have it on application to William F. Young, Fairview, Sanpete Co., Utah.

Information Wanted. — Sarah Taylor wants to know the whereabouts of her sister, Agnes Taylor, who emigrated from Carlisle, England, about 18 years ago. Address Sarah Taylor, care of Matthew Gillespie, 207 Burnhill Street, Rutherglen, Scotland.

Small-pox in the North.—Small-pox has again appeared in Butte, Montana. The Miner says the patient was taken to that city from the Oregon Short Line R. R., on which he had been working. Another man was ill at the depot, but his symptoms had not developed sufficiently to enable the physicians to definitely determine whether he was afflicted with the same malady or not. Precautionary measures were being adopted.

The Circus.—The long expected, extensively advertised and much talked of big show will spread its immense canvas on Washington square at six o'clock on Friday morning. The circus company is spoken of as an excellent one, comprising sixty male and fourteen female performers. The menagerie is described as exceptionally fine, having several rare animals never before on exhibition in this country. Tickets are selling rapidly at James Dwyer's book store, where they are in advance sale to relieve the crush at the ticket wagon.

Salt Lake and Jordan Canal. — The success of the Salt Lake and Jordan Canal is now an accomplished fact. The water was turned on along its entire length yesterday afternoon, and it operates admirably. This sweeps away every objection as to the feasibility and wisdom of the project, which will doubtless prove to be an incalculable benefit to the city.

Last night, after the adjournment of the regular meeting, the Mayor and City Council repaired to the emptying point of the canal, to see the waters flow from the opening into the culvert on South Temple street, a short distance east of East Temple street.

The Bullet.—The Ogden Herald says that two men, one named Kennedy and the other Jones, arrived in that town by the Utah & Northern yesterday morning. They had each been in a quarrel and both were shot and badly wounded. Kennedy, it appears, had an altercation with some one, on Sunday, at Eagle Rock, during which he was shot on the left side of his face, a small section of the jaw being carried off.

Jones, on the same day, while in a mess at American Falls, received two shot wounds, one in the right leg, fracturing the lower third of that limb. Another shot entered near the left breast and came out under the left shoulder blade. Both are very seriously wounded.

Pistols and Bogus Jewelry.—Yesterday evening a couple of small-fry confidence men were in the police court on a charge of assault with deadly weapons on Alma Wagstaff and J. H. Vaughan. It appears the accused had sold to the prosecuting witnesses a couple of worthless rings, representing them to be pure gold, for two dollars each. Of course the jewelry was discovered to be bogus, and the two parties who had been duped set out from Sugar House Ward to find the ring vendors. Young Wagstaff overtook them on the way to this city, and when he made known his errand, each of the vagabonds presented a pistol at him. Mr. Vaughan came up and told them to put up their weapons, when one of them was directed at him, with threats of shooting. Mr. Vaughan kept along to them till they reached this city, when they were arrested by Marshal Burt and Mr. Hampton. They were fined $50 each and costs, and in default of payment were sent to prison.

AN ANXIOUS NIGHT.

BUNKERVILLE VISITED BY DISASTROUS FLOODS.

We are indebted to Brother S. O. Crosby for the following account of the affair:

On the evening of June 29, the people of Bunkerville, Lincoln Co., Nevada, were busily engaged in stacking hay and grain, trying to get their stacks topped off, so as to prevent the rain from doing damage, which we thought we had accomplished, and all retired to our beds to rest. It commenced raining moderately, and in a short time, 11 o'clock p.m., the cry was raised and carried from house to house, "A flood is coming down the wash."

All the people rushed out of their houses. Some went to harness up teams, others were working with shovels, building levies, and preparing for the rushing water. This time the flood was small.

In about half an hour another cry was heard, "another flood." This time it came carrying everything before it of a movable nature. For a short time we tried to keep it away from the buildings with hay poles, etc., but finding it useless, we drove to the houses and got the women and children and took them to a secure place; then we soon turned the current of the stream from the buildings.

This flood lasted about forty-five minutes, filling the cellar of your humble servant, and damaging the house and merchandise.

The clouds still hovered around, and we went to work to make an embankment, which we succeeded in doing with boards, straw, brush and hay, which answered a very good purpose, for in the space of an hour down came the water again. All hands were wide awake and very energetic. This time it was a flood in very deed, but our embankment kept the heft of the current away from the houses. In a short time we succeeded in stopping all the water from the houses, and in this we felt to rejoice. This flood lasted four or five hours, breaking our water ditch and carrying it almost entirely away. It is thought that it will cost the town in the loss of crops, ditch and cutting up the land, (which we have labored hard to level) between three thousand and four thousand dollars. Things look rather blue with us, but I think we will rebuild the ditch and not abandon the place. Our hay stacks will have to be torn to pieces and spread out to dry."

The Opera House. — Yesterday evening a bright particular star in the theatrical firmament shed its light upon a large audience at the Opera House. To those who have seen "Fritz," and their name is legion, we need say nothing of his ability as an actor in his particular line. There is probably no man in the world to-day who has been so universally and exceptionally successful in securing the ducats and approbation of the American people as Joseph K. Emmet. His inimitable impersonations of the Teutonic character, his musical versatility and his songs, have given him a world-wide reputation.

The play entitled the reconstructed "Fritz in Ireland," is of no great intrinsic merit, but serves very well as a cord upon which to string the pearls of the principal actor. The points of the piece that were most applauded were the ringing of the chimes, by the little "Schwester,' her dancing and the "Lullaby," by which the abducted sister recognized her wandering brother, The company is a good one. The piece will be repeated to-night and to-morrow night at the Opera House.

A Successful Excursion. — The various departments of the U. C. R. R. machine shops were closed yesterday. The employees, together with members of their families, numbering near 300 in all, left by the regular passenger train, in five coaches, for an excursion to American Fork. On their arrival there they were met by Bishop Harrington and other leading citizens, who gave the party a hearty welcome. The Bishop tendered them the free use of a full city lot near his own residence where there was a fine orchard, affording ample shade from the rays of the sun. Seats and temporary tables had been provided, also swings erected for the use and comfort of the visitors.

The free use of the fine City Hall was given for dancing. Prof. Thomas' brass and string bands were engaged for the day and discoursed excellent music. The American Fork Brass Band also gave their services. The Bishop, together with the people of that lively town generally, manifested much solicitude to make the excursion a success in every particular. Both old and young appeared to enjoy themselves greatly. The happy company returned by the regular train and arrived in this city in excellent condition. The railroad Company gave the free use of the cars which enabled the committee to only charge the nominal sum of 50 cents for the round trip. After meeting all expenses there is still a surplus remaining, which it has been agreed shall be handed over to Bro. Robert Hall, one of the workmen, who lost his sight by an accident a short time since.

The Mendelsohn Club.—A particular feature of the musical entertainment and exhibition to be given by Mr. Evan Stephens' pupils in the Theatre next week, will be the first public appearance, of the new choral organization, the Mendelsohn Club. This society was formed by Mr. Stephens several weeks ago, and is made up of fifteen picked voices, comprising, as will be seen by the names, a number of our best known singers. The parts are distributed as follows: Trebles—Misses Nellie Druce, Agnes Olsen, Mrs. Lizzie Felt, Miss Helen Whitney. Altos—Misses Louie Wells, Belle Clayton, Mattie Horne, Minnie Felt. Tenors—Messrs. H. G. Whitney, G. D. Pyper, R. Pyper. Bass—Messrs. J. D. Spencer, R. H. Goddard, A. Derrick, D. McRay.

The Mendelsohn Club furnishes the second part of the programme, and will render several glees, trios, duetts and solos.

Home Again. — Apostle John Henry Smith has returned from a short trip through Sanpete and Sevier counties and a portion of Juab. Although he was only absent a few days he traveled a long distance and held eight meetings. He is in excellent health but somewhat fatigued.

New Developments in the Kino Case. — The pistol with which Henry D. Kino was undoubtedly shot, near Liberty Park, on Monday night, was found yesterday, near the locality where the affair took place. This is another point that appears to render the theory that the dead was done by a robber still more improbable. It is exceedingly unlike the style of a highwayman after having robbed a victim to disarm himself by throwing away his weapon, which constitutes his means of attack and defense.

Mr. Kino's life was insured, the policy providing that, in the event of his death, his wife would receive $5,000, and in case of illness from accident or otherwise he is entitled to a weekly income of $25.

Suspected Foul Play.—As stated elsewhere, the remains of William Kennedy, a miner, who was found dead in his bed yesterday morning, at Park City, were brought to Salt Lake today for interment. On the arrival of the body here it was discovered, on examination, that it bore such marks of violence as to lead to the suspicion that the deceased had been foully murdered by being beaten to death. This afternoon a post mortem was conducted by Dr. Benedict and other surgeons, and it is presumed that this proceeding will be followed by a coroner's inquest.

BENEFACTORS.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.

Sold by Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution and all druggists in Utah. d & w

FROM "THE TIMES."

Editor of the Times: — In reading the last number of your paper, I noticed you asked all who had been benefited by the letter published in your valuable paper about a year ago, to write you the facts for publication. The letter from Dr. Bates created a great amount of excitement in this vicinity, as he is well and favorably known by every one here. His reputation as a man and as a physican gave every one the utmost confidence in all his statements, and this of course soon made the name "Kendall's Spavin Cure" not only familiar but very popular. In reply to your request I will say: About nine years ago I slipped on the ice and sprained my right limb at the knee joint. I was very lame and suffered exruciating pain much of the time since, and some of the time thought I should be a cripple for life. Dr. Bates' letter printed in your paper gave me so much confidence in the virtues of "Kendall's Spavin Cure" that I tried it for my knee and less than one bottle completely cured me so that I have had no return of pain or lameness, for which, of course, I cannot feel too thankful. Since my recovery I have visited friends in the west and found that the following parties have used it with the grandest results in that part of the country. The Rev. John Rice, Hematite, Mo., used it on his own person for an injury of 35 years standing and performed one of the most wonderful cures I ever heard of. J. L. McClure, of Strong City, Kansas, cured a badly lacerated and poisoned hand, from a hog bite and also removed an enlargement near the hip joint which had become large and troublesome. He also used it for pleurisy and found that bathing his chest with it relieved him at once. To my surprise I found that this wonderful remedy was better known in the west than it was in the east, and I found they were using it there for all animals as well as on human flesh with the very best of results, and I find so many cases whenever I go to confirm the favorable opinion I had already formed of it, that I am glad of an opportunity of telling the readers of your valuable paper what I have learned in regard to it. Hoping to hear from others upon this very important subject, especially important to those who have suffered for years like myself, I remain,

Yours &c.,

J. A. BOYCE.
