REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET.

J. H. Frisby Renominated for Mayor—R. Y. C. Notes.

Special Correspondence.
Provo, Oct. 19.—The Republicans of Provo met in convention yesterday and nominated a ticket for the city offices to be presented to the public next month for suffrage. The greatest freedom prevailed and, though enthusiasm was high there was the least bit of a platform and a number of the nominees were selected by acclamation. After the order of business and matter of credentials had been discussed and a platform adopted, the nominating of a ticket began.

Hon. J. H. Frisby was nominated for re-election to the office of mayor by acclamation. The nomination of a platform was again suspended and Jonathan Buckley was named for marshal by acclamation. The selection for a recorder brought out a warm contest. Five names were before the convention and four ballots were cast before the required 65 votes were secured for David Johnson, who landed the plum. Don W. Conover, who was the next closest candidate made a motion to make the selection unanimous which carried. Those who ran for the office are David Johnson, Don W. Conover, W. E. Harving, for re-election, Royal B. Woolley and Frank Sharp.

Mrs. Elizabeth Choules was nominated for treasurer on the first ballot. Mrs. Mary J. Vincent being the only candidate pitted against her.

D. H. Thomas received the nomination for city attorney by acclamation, and in the same manner A. A. Noon landed the city judgeship.

WANTS DIVORCE.

Bessie Bailey has commenced action for divorce in the district court against William H. Bailey on the grounds of failure to provide. The parties were married at Springville, Utah, March 2, 1900. Plaintiff alleges that defendant is a wanderer and that he has failed to provide the necessities of life for the last three years. There are living three children of the union, 8, 5 and 2 years old respectively. Plaintiff prays for divorce, $10 per month alimony and the care and custody of the children. A marriage license was issued to J. L. Mower and Mary Knoll, both of Springville.

B. Y. UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Prof. O. W. Andelin, acting as librarian for the B. Y. U., has just filed an order for 125 volumes of works selected by the heads of departments in the university.

The Hon. D. D. Houtz has presented to the university with a set of works on electrical engineering—"Electron Theory," by P. F. Fawcett; "Electricity and Magnetism," by James Clerk Maxwell; and "The Principles of Electricity," by Dr. Peterson's class in psychology.

Through the efforts of Prof. Horace Secrist, the library has been increased to the number of 17 volumes, of special value to debaters.

The first student body ball was given at the B. Y. U. Friday night.

MISSIONARY FAREWELL.

A farewell party was given in the Fifth ward meetinghouse last night to Elders Frank Bennett and Charles Broadhead, who will leave in a short time for missions to England. A splendid program was rendered, refreshments served and a neat little sum collected to help the elders on their way.

FIRE IN HAY STACK.

A blaze in the west end of the city yesterday afternoon called out the fire department. After making a good run with the hose cart, the company had to send back for the fire engine. The fire was in Will Peay's hay shed and about $20 damage done. The cause of the fire is not known, but it is thought the source was a "hot" box and a match. Wallace Whitecotton has come to Provo from Eureka. He had two badly crushed fingers on the left hand inflicted while moving a large drill in the mine.

B. Y. UNIVERSITY ANNIVERSARY.

The Brigham Young university celebrated its thirty-second anniversary yesterday. The body of students, over 1,000 by actual count, marched from the university to the tabernacle, where exercises were held. The line of march was nine blocks long and made up as follows: The B. Y. U. band, followed by the kindergarten children who were in carriages; the chorale, in order of graduation; the grades and classes of the normal, high school, and commercial college; a G. U. H. Band; Prof. H. H. Cummings, President Joseph F. Smith, and H. H. Lund, and Elders John Henry Smith and Fred Smoot were driven in carriages. At the tabernacle an arch was formed and the student body marched through with President Joseph F. Smith and party in the lead. The business men had decorated their places of business with the school colors and everything tended to make the day a success. The tabernacle was decorated with potted plants and school colors and emblems. The following program was carried out: Selection by the band, singing by the congregation; prayer, Elder Alfred Osmond; address, "Shall We Have a Church University," Prof. N. L. Nelson; addresses by President Joseph F. Smith, Jesse Knight, A. H. Lund, and others.

CRYING FOR HELP.

Lots of it in Salt Lake City, But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys cry for help. Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed. Not one so important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood. When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood. Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble. It is the kidneys' cry for help. Headache.

Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted. Are just what overworked kidneys need.

They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work; never fail to cure any case of kidney disease.

Read the proof from a Salt Lake City resident.

Mrs. E. Atkins, living at No. 1 Phinney place, Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills has been so gratifying that I am willing to recommend them to anyone suffering from kidney complaint. On a number of occasions I have suffered severely from backache that I was unable to turn over in bed. I had many other symptoms of kidney complaint and was completely run down when Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention. I procured a box at the F. J. Hill drug store. I used them as directed and they gave me the best of results. I am glad to say that I have not a return of the trouble since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Lund, Supt. Horace H. Cummings and Dr. George H. Brimhall.

Prof. Robert Burr rendered a jockeyphone solo on what was announced to be the best and only two instruments of that kind in the United States. The orchestra played "Blue Danube Waltz," and Miss Jennie Camp and David House, assisted by the choir, sang, "Just as I Am."

The theme selected by Prof. N. L. Nelson for his able address was "Shall We Have Church University?" which he handled in such a masterly manner that it became the subject of comment from each of the succeeding speakers.

PREST. JOSEPH F. SMITH.

President Joseph F. Smith took up that part of the theme presented by Prof. Nelson which related to character building and applied it to every day life, laying as much stress on the sins of omission as he did on actual sins committed. President Smith painted a very beautiful picture to illustrate the difference between knowledge as power and character as power. The subjects of the mental picture were Lucifer and Jesus, both Sons of the Morning and possessed of knowledge of the plan of salvation, but Satan without character and with his knowledge, though permitted to wage war against the children of God for time, could eventually be bound and his "power" taken from him; while Jesus whose knowledge was perhaps not more thorough than that of his fallen brother, and who came upon the earth to suffer for the sins of man, would in time, by his character, put all things under his feet and present them to his Father. President Smith bore testimony to the truth of the gospel and admonished the students to gain character with their knowledge getting that they might thereby become saviors to mankind.

"Uncle" Jesse Knight (as he is familiarly known), was called for an address and was warmly received by the many students who have learned to revere him for his sterling qualities and for what he has done for the B. Y. U. Prof. Knight called attention to the trophy made by Elder B. H. Roberts at Provo about ten years ago, when Elder Roberts felt impressed to say that the time would come when there would be a great conflict between capital and labor, and the Latter-day Saints would be called upon to decide that controversy. Mr. Knight thought the time for the controversy was near.

New Bank Building Completed—Lecture by J. Lorenzo Zwickey.

Special Correspondence.

Ephraim, Sanpete Co., Oct. 18.—Last Wednesday Barney Stevens of this place and Mary Dye of Wales, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed in the Mantel temple. The young couple will make their home here.

The new bank building is completed and the fixtures of the old place have been installed. Soren Sorenson has a hardware store in the old bank building.

The first of the series of entertainments given by the Midland Lyceum company will be given by J. Lorenzo Zwickey next Tuesday evening, when he will lecture on the subject of "The Philosophy of the Beautiful."

A Quick and Safe Remedy for Bowel Complaints.

Twenty years ago Mr. Geo. W. Brock discovered that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was a quick and safe cure for bowel complaints. During all of these years he says, "I have used it and recommended it many times and the results have never yet disappointed me." Mr. Brock is publisher of the Aberdeen, Md. Enterprise. For sale by all druggists.

AMERICAN FORK.

SUCCESS OF LIBRARY ISSUE.

Gymnasium Will Probably be Established by Young Men.

Special Correspondence.
American Fork, Utah Co., Oct. 18.—Miss Helen Greenwood, music director of the local public schools, was a visitor with Miss Lottie Owen, who occupies a similar position in the schools here.

President E. E. Chipman and Supt. Justesen were the American Fork delegates to the library convention held in Salt Lake last Tuesday. They will make a written report to the city council, but they express themselves as believing that same will be successful. The new city hall, thanks to the good judgment of the citizens, was arranged and constructed with the view of a sub-library being put on one of its floors.

The gymnasium could be constructed in the basement. The question will not be voted upon this year as other means of getting financial aid must be first worked out. In all probability a gymnasium will be partly established by the young men of this city.

Mr. John Sabin, former principal of the regular Wednesday assembly held in the basement, was the speaker at a very heavy welcome by his former pupils and friends. The school orchestra furnished several selections and they were given in a creditable manner. The other musical selections were splendid and the eighth grade pupils who gave the program this week were congratulated by all.

The trust office has had several "cases" to work upon lately but he has handled them all thus far and so hope none will be successful. The new school is properly arranged for the hearing of the cases.

Evidence Failed to Show That He Was Not Justified in Shooting Reidel.

Special Correspondence.
Pryor, Carbon Co., Oct. 17.—Justice John J. Brownell at Carbon, this county, last night acquitted C. L. Maxwell, who was charged with a murderous assault on Frank Reidel in a saloon at Helper. The motion for his acquittal was made by County Atty. L. N. Harmon, Dist. Atty. F. E. Waide concurring. The evidence presented at the hearing failed to support the claim made by witnesses before the hearing that Maxwell shot at Reidel without

At hand, and believed that the altruistic principles of Mormonism would be the factors by which the contention would be settled. Mr. Knight advised the students to seek for spiritual values in preference to the things of this world.

President Anthony H. Lund and Supt. H. H. Cummings made brief addresses. Dr. George H. Brimhall, the president of the church, felt to thank God for the leaders of the church, from Joseph Smith down to the present incumbent, for the interest they had shown in the development of the youth of Zion. There is more money paid out of the revenues of the church for the education of the young," said Dr. Brimhall, "than for any other one thing in the church."

After the morning exercises members of the board and a few friends were served a dainty dinner at the B. Y. U. The dinner was served by the students of the domestic science department under the direction of Miss Mary Ward. The afternoon was devoted to class contests at field and track events on the campus which resulted in a sweeping victory for the class of '08, with the commercial second. The commercials had prepared a banquet for the athletes of their class, but the victory went to the '08s, who paraded the streets shouting 29 percent and a half, the number of points won in the contest. The day's festivities concluded with a grand ball at the gymnasium in the evening.

Logan, Oct. 19.—The Republicans of this city held their convention last evening and placed the following ticket in the field: For mayor, John A. Hendrickson; for marshal, Don C. Benson; for recorder, Irene Cressall; for treasurer, Addie Cressall; for justice, John A. Sneddon; for justice, William Bingham. Sneddon for attorney is the only candidate up for re-election.

The Power of Pageantry.
One of the significant things proved by pageants is the ever-increasing love of operatic life that is gripping up among us; another is the reverence of the past and a regard for the good men and women who made England what she is today—the freest country in the world. A knowledge and veneration of the makers of history is the beginning of a true patriotism.—The Queen.

PINE, ARIZ.

FATAL RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

Alfred J. Randall Killed in Mountain Roadway.

Special Correspondence.

Pine, Gila Co., Ariz., Oct. 12.—A shocking and sad death recently occurred near here. Alfred Jacob Randall, an old resident of this place, met his death while on the road in mountain country, some distance from here.

In company with Alfred Fuller and his boy, Randall was returning from Flagstaff, whither he had gone for supplies. They camped for noon and in the afternoon they started on their trip. Mr. Randall was driving a horse-drawn wagon and was without hitching, fed their teams grain in nosebags. The horses became frightened and ran away. Mr. Randall caught his saddle horse by the nose-bag but could not hold the team. They ran some distance and in some manner knocked Mr. Randall down in the wagon track. The wagon then rolled over him and he was killed instantly. The body was brought to Pine. He was survived by his wife and relatives in his sudden taking away from mortal life.

Alfred Jacob Randall was the son of Alfred Randall and Emerette Louise Davis and was born in Nauvoo, Hancock county, Ill., Jan. 8, 1845. He came to Salt Lake City with his parents in 1848, and made his home in the Salt Lake valley until Nov. 18, 1887, when he was married to Ruth Campkin, and was called on a mission to assist in the settlement of southern Utah. Making his home at Harpersburg, until 1888, when he was called and moved to Arizona, and died at Pine. He was survived by his wife, eight children and 23 grandchildren.

RALLY OF INDEPENDENTS.

City Council Session—New Mill Building—Compulsory School Attendance.

Murray, Oct. 19.—The first demonstration in political circles will be the Independent's rally Wednesday, Oct. 23. A program has been arranged and a stirring time is anticipated.

CITY COUNCIL SESSION.

At the last meeting of the city council, little was done outside of routine work. It was decided to have the cement curbing constructed south to the Little Cottonwood creek.

After some discussion the council decided not to grant another license to Contro, who keep a saloon in the Rowland building. It was reported that they keep a disorderly house. They have at several times discharged firearms and threatened to kill several people.

NEW MILL BUILDING.

The Mill company, an old establishment here which had a burnout in the early summer, has decided to build a new building at new quarters. The location is on State street north of Seventeenth South. The building will be of pressed brick with a concrete foundation and is 18x160 feet, the largest ground floor building in the town. It will cost in the neighborhood of $6,000, and improved machinery at the cost of

PREPARING FOR CONVENTION.

Laramie Sheepmen Arranging for Annual State Meeting.

(Special to the "News.")

Laramie, Wyo., Oct. 19.—The sheepmen of this section are already making preparations for the fourth annual meeting of the Wyoming Wool Growers' association, which will be held in this city on Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 13-14, 1908. An effort is being made to have Secy. of Agriculture James Wilson make a visit to the west at that time and attend the state meeting here, the convention of the National Woolgrowers' association at Helena on Jan. 16-17-18, and the Western Livestock Show in Denver during the week of Jan. 20-25. In all probability Clifford "Anchor" chief forester, will attend the Laramie meeting. The sheepmen are very anxious to have him explain his policies with reference to government control of the grazing lands. There will be other men of national reputation in attendance upon the Laramie meeting. Three or four hundred outside sheepmen will attend, and from Laramie a special train will carry the sheepmen to the Helena meeting of the national association.
