OGDEN, OCT. 19, 1900.

NO NEW "SMALLPOX" CASES

Every Precaution Being Taken to Prevent Its Spread.

Rigid Quarantine is Enforced by Officials of the City—Death of Ezra T. Backham.

Murder of Charles Mills a False Alarm—Runaway Boys Intercepted.

The "smallpox" patients in Ogden are all reported as recovering nicely, and no new cases have developed during the past few days. Acting Mayor Abbott says that no greater care could be taken by the city officials than is being taken, and the sanitary regulations are being strictly enforced, and watchmen have been employed to guard the quarantined houses, so that the inmates do not go in or out of their own accord. Mr. Abbott said that some people have been trying to hide cases of "smallpox" from the city officials fearing that the patients would be sent to the pest house, and thereby they have exposed many other people to the dreaded disease, but in the future if any person is found to be carrying such a case, it will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Sanitary Inspector Watkins and the city physician are working hard to keep the "smallpox" under control, and confident that it will spread no further.

DEATH OF EZRA T. RACKHAM.

Ezra T. Rackham, an old and well known citizen of Ogden, departed this life Wednesday evening at his home on Twenty-ninth street from typhoid pneumonia. He was taken ill about two weeks ago and continued to grow worse until the end came. He was the son of Bishop John Rackham and was 42 years of age. He leaves two children and many relatives and friends to mourn his untimely demise. The funeral services over his remains were held this morning at the Fifth ward meeting house, the attendance was large. His remains were interred in the city cemetery.

Yesterday Dora C., the 18-months' old daughter of Matthew I. and Caroline Dinsdale, died of meningitis. The funeral services over the remains were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the family residence, West Seventeenth street. Interment took place in the city cemetery.

Young Lewis, the young man who fell from a ladder in front of the Central school building on the 5th of this month, died this morning at 7 o'clock.

The fall, although only about twelve feet, dislocated his neck and caused him to drop to the ground, the spinal cord, finally reaching the brain. He has been paralyzed from the shoulders down since the accident and but little hope had been entertained of his recovery from the first.

Young Lewis was born in Provo twenty-three years ago, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis. He left the Fourth ward, and was an expert, industrious young man who had the respect of all his acquaintances. He leaves a young wife to mourn his sad death. The funeral will be held from the Fourth ward meeting house Saturday at 2 o'clock.

ELW. EDMONDS HURT IN A RUNAWAY.

Thrilling Experience of His Son.

Special Correspondence.

Kayville, Davis Co., Oct. 15.—Edward Edmonds, one of our esteemed citizens, met with an accident today, which, for a brief time, was regarded as serious.

He was just starting to ride when his horse became frightened and ran away.

The boy fell forward off a loaded wagon astride the tongue underneath which he clung head foremost, while the terrified team went tearing along the street about half a mile and smashed into a tree near the lad's home, which brought them to a standstill. The boy escaped unharmed but he did it still unexplained.

H. Sheffield, Jr., a prominent young man of this place, will shortly leave for a mission to the Society Islands. A bell will be given in his honor at the music hall tomorrow night.

TWO OF THE BOYS GO HOME.

Two of the boys who arrived from Park City, yesterday, Mr. Anderson and boy-scouts, went home this morning.

Young Shantz was permitted to go on his way. He told the sheriff he could go, and as the Park City officers said they did not want him returned, he has gone to look for work. He is only fourteen years of age.

PAYSON.

Impressive Funeral of Orwell Simons—Close of a Useful Career.

Special Correspondence.

Payson, Utah Co., Oct. 18.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Orwell Simons were held at the Payson Tabernacle Tuesday, Oct. 16th.

The speakers were Elders C. Brewerton, J. S. Page, D. Lane and Chapel Smith of Spanish Fork. The speaker, glowing with the spirit of the Word, exhorted the congregation to give of its best.

He was hospitable and full of life and spent as one of the foremost builders of the city of Payson. He was hospitable and generous to the needy. At one time, when flour was at a premium, $25 per sack being offered for it, and as the owner of a grist mill in which was stored considerable flour he could have paid twice as much.

CLARKSTON.

CROP CONDITIONS.

Wheat 100,000 bushels Short—Lucerne Crop Good.

Special Correspondence.

Clarkston, Cache Co., Oct. 17.—This locality is one of the chief dry-wheat raising regions in the State, but this year there is a falling off in the yield, owing to early frosts. This disaster will cost the community about 100,000 bushels of wheat. The yield this season will be probably 140,000 bushels. There is a heavy yield of lucerne here, and the hay crop is good. Beef is also derived from the advanced herds in horses, cattle, etc., etc. There are not many trees, owing to lack of water for irrigation, but there are some and the apples raised are very good. The people are able to get good wells here, at from twelve to thirty-five feet deep, and with windmills would produce sufficient water to irrigate large apple orchards and trees of other kinds. The winters are not too severe and the low-temperature fruits, but much could be done with the resources at hand to make Clarkston more prosperous and attractive than at present. This soil is great for wheat raising. As an illustration, Mr. George Godfrey has raised twenty-six successive crops of wheat on one piece of ground without fertilizing it, or this year, the result is that each acre averages 34 bushels, an average of 33½ bushels per acre. Clarkston is a good place for the farmers, and the possibilities for the future are quite encouraging.

A cold wind is blowing today, and signs of winter are gathering fast.

PEASANT GROVE.

BURIED WITH MILITARY HONORS.

Funeral Services of Prominent Battle Creek Citizens.

Special Correspondence.

Pleasant Grove, Utah Co., Oct. 19.—Pleasant Grove has had an unusually gloomy time this week, three funerals having been held in three successive days. On Tuesday Mrs. West, one of Pleasant Grove's best known, wife of David West, was laid to rest. On Wednesday the remains of Sister Mamie French were brought to her old home and lovingly interred. And on Thursday Uncle Sam White, the pioneer and battalion leader, was buried with fitting honors.

The funeral sermon of Apostles Woodruff and Grant at the services of Sister French was profoundly impressive and very moving.

At Bro. White's funeral Kanute Swenson, M. L. Pratt and John E. Booth were the speakers. They all bore testimony to the honesty, the integrity, the industry and the sympathetic nature of the deceased, and recounted the great work of the "Mormon" Battalion in which he took so well his part.
