

THE CANADIANS REFUSE TO SIGN.

Aylesworth and Jette Would Not Attach Their Signatures to Alaskan Boundary Decision.

THEY GOT VERY EMPHATIC.

Showed Their Disapproval by Walking Out of Cabinet Room Before Names Were Affixed.

London, Oct. 19.—A draft of the decision reached by the Alaska boundary commissioners as announced by the Associated Press was signed by a majority of the commissioners this evening. Messrs. Aylesworth and Jette, the Canadian commissioners, refused to sign.

The decision grants all the American contentions with the exception of the one relating to the Portland canal. The signatories were Lord Chief Justice Alverstone and Senator Lodge, Senator Turner and Secy. Root, the American commissioners. They constituted a majority and ensured finality. Messrs. Aylesworth and Jette carried their outspoken disapproval of the decision to the point of refusing to sign even that section of the decision giving the Portland canal to Canada, and they emphasized their attitude by walking out of the cabinet room in the foreign office before the signatures of the others had been affixed to the historic document, which has already been printed and is ready for the session to be held tomorrow. The only thing remaining to be done at this session is that the majority of the tribunal complete and sign the map which accompanies the decision, and which will stand as the course of the boundary in accordance with the American contentions in question No. 5.

An engrossed copy of the decision also will be signed on Tuesday. The refusal of Messrs. Aylesworth and Jette to coincide to Lord Alverstone's view was only known to a few persons here tonight, but at the foreign office and in the high government circles it has created a painful impression. There is no hope expressed that the Canadian commissioners will reconsider their attitude and sign the engrossed copy of the decision which will stand as the international record of the tribunal's findings.

WORK OF DELINEATION.

Washington, Oct. 19.—An apparent conflict in the information from London and the announcement made by a state department official Saturday respecting the agreement reached by the Alaska boundary commissioners is explained here by the statement that the London advice touching the victory of the American case on all points except as to the Portland canal is perfectly correct, but that the commission's decision was not technically final because of its omission to locate the "mountain range" which was referred to in the original Canadian treaty of session as a conditional limit to the American claim. It is said, however, that the state department, at this time, after all material in view of the commission's decision that every inch of the shore line north of the Portland canal is American territory, for whether the strip be only a mile wide or 10 miles or 40, the Canadian cannot reach the sea without crossing American territory.

It is stated that in all probability a period of one year will be required to complete the work of delineation on the boundary line provided in the treaty. The commissioners could only lay down general principles for the location of the line, but they could not, in the nature of the case, undertake to make a practical survey. This work will be done by experts named by both governments, the United States and Great Britain, and steps to this end will be taken as soon as the two governments are notified by the commission of the outcome of its work.

A Minnesota Bank Closes.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 19.—A special from Mankato, Minn., says: The Mankato State bank was closed today pending an investigation of the books of the assistant cashier, Alfred A. Buck, who has disappeared. Mr. Buck went to Walker a week ago Saturday on business and left there ostensibly for Duluth on Tuesday, and since then nothing has been heard from him. He is the only son of Judge Daniel Buck of this city, a former justice of the supreme court, who is president and owner of half the stock of the bank.

To his wife Buck confided the statement that he was short in his accounts and that he was about to leave for Paris unknown. A letter from the missing official said that the shortage of the writer was $18,700 with the bank and between $7,000 and $8,000 with his father, who had placed several funds in his possession to loan. The capital stock of the bank is $10,700 and the deposits $25,000. The bank directors took steps at once to protect the interests of the depositors.

Reports from Mankato today said that the shortage has been found to be in two or three places. Judge Buck places his loss at $21,000. Buck, who is 21 years old, disclaims speculation or fast living. He informed his wife that twelve years ago he was made the victim of blackmail by a Chicago family, who paid the money demanded, though not legally or morally bound to do so, and that this family has ever since from time to time held him up. He has paid over $10,000, and, fearing the result of exposure on the health of his parents if he refused, and the total amount paid over is $20,000. Mr. Buck was mayor of Mankato until two weeks ago, when he resigned because of public criticism and fear of restraint over a street carnival.

WANT A RECEIVER.

Members of the Intern'l Bank & Trust Co. of America.

Dover, Del., Oct. 19.—The involuntarily of the International Bank & Trust Company of America, at the City of Mexico, which is a corporation of Delaware and which was recently given authority to increase its capital stock to $5,000,000, caused tonight one of the most remarkable dashes for a receivership ever known in the big company who are opposed to the receivership obtained in Mexico, which chose all the company's stockholders and also opposed the selection of Don Jacinto Patterson, a lawyer, as receiver, gathered here tonight with the object of obtaining the judgment of the highest court in the state which created the company.

Those present were: Charles L. Phillips, vice president of the company; Joseph G. Dean of New York, a director; James L. Wolcott, a lawyer; Gov. William T. Watson, also a director; Henry Ridgeley, counsel for Herbert Compton, a stockholder, and Wil-

If you like your gray hair, keep it. If not, get rid of it. You can do as you please, for Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer always restores color, always.

Sold for 60 years. If your druggist cannot supply you, send $1.00 to R. P. HALL & CO., Nashville, N. C.

Ham L. Gooding, special counsel for the company.

An application to Chancellor Nicholson was hurriedly drawn up praying him to appoint a receiver who could go into Mexico and elsewhere and take charge of the company's assets. Later the party hurried aboard a Delaware railroad train for Lewes and there continued their search for Chancellor Nicholson by boat, the chancellor having gone out on a trip from the Delaware breakwater on the pilot boat Philadelphia.

The members of the party expect to overtake the chancellor, and express the belief that they will get a "reversal" tonight. They claim that because this is a corporation of the state of Delaware the action of the chancellor will take precedence. Herbert Compton, a stockholder, directly makes the application to Chancellor Nicholson on the ground of insolvency.

DOWIE VISITS LOW.

Thanks New York's Mayor for Police Protection Given Him. New York, Oct. 19.—After attending an early service in Madison Square Garden, John Alexander Dowie's "restoration host," numbering nearly 4,000, began today a house-to-house canvass of the city. Before giving them his final instructions, Dr. Dowie said: "I am going out to do a little restoration work myself, and I won't be far from Wall street. Pray for me."

The majority of the audience at the early service in Madison Square Garden, at which Dr. Dowie delivered an address on the "Opening of the Beautiful Gate of Divine Healing." In his address, Dr. Dowie said: "I have alluded to some egyptians as 'mean dogs,' and others whose criticisms of him had been published in the newspapers, he said, were 'working for the devil.'"

"A divine healing meeting" was held in the garden from 10:30 a. m. to noon, at which Dr. Dowie delivered an address on the "Opening of the Beautiful Gate of Divine Healing." In his address, Dr. Dowie said: "I have alluded to some egyptians as 'mean dogs,' and others whose criticisms of him had been published in the newspapers, he said, were 'working for the devil.'"

Twelve companies of the Zion host, numbering several persons each, are engaged in the house-to-house canvass of the city. Each company was divided into bands of ten, every band having a captain. Today they visited Manhattan only. The arrangements were under the direction of Elder Abraham Lee and Deacon George Mitchell and the field marshals, Deaconess Jessie Ogden has charge of the house-to-house canvass in the fashionable district of the city.

Negotiations at a Standstill.

Yokohama, Oct. 19.—The negotiations between Russia and Japan have come to another standstill. It is thought doubtful if Marquis Ito's view of military occupation of Manchuria is endorsed by the whole country, but it is believed that it is strong enough to stand taken for the integrity of Korea, a double open door in Manchuria for all nations.

KILLED IN NEW YORK.

Number Increases Annually to an Alarming Degree. New York, Oct. 20.—Official figures of the board of health, covering a period of three years, show that the number of persons killed annually in the city of New York is increasing in an alarming degree.

These fatalities are growing on more than an even ratio with the growth of population and business which indicates either that pedestrians are becoming more careless of their safety in the streets or that drivers of cars and vehicles are growing more reckless and the police less vigilant in enforcing the ordinances which now exist for the regulation of street traffic.

In the year 1901 there were 436 persons killed by vehicles and street railways. In 1902 the number of such deaths grew to 500. In the year 1903, the number of deaths from street accidents is estimated to have reached nearly 1,000, estimating from the number already recorded.

The number of accidents was increased early today when Mrs. Catherine Melner-

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—Mrs. J. S. Buck has just returned to this city from New York with her two children who had been abducted by their father several months ago. The boy is nine and the girl seven years old. Buck suddenly disappeared one day with his children, leaving the mother penniless. Mrs. Buck pluckily went to work, accumulated $200, and with the assistance of the California effort to prevent the children from being sold, her husband and children on a farm at Mina, N. Y. She went east alone and two weeks ago reached Mina. She drove up to the school the children were attending and awaited their coming. They gladly agreed to return with her and concealed themselves in the buggy. After several narrow escapes from her pursuing husband she succeeded in reaching California.

Back to Ireland to Die.

New York, Oct. 20.—Patrick Mahoney of Derby, Conn., has sailed for his old home in Ireland with $5,200 representing the savings of 22 years as a farm hand. His wages generally were $2 a month and board. In the 22 years he had but three employers and took only six days off. His expenditures amounted to $450, an average of less than 12 cents a month. This money he spent principally for newspapers. Mahoney said he had enough to live on comfortably and would never work again.

Your grocer sells this coffee in 1 and 2 lb. cans. Grind coffee fresh each day for best results.

J. A. FOLGER & CO.
San Francisco.
Importers of Fine Coffees.

Best For The Bowels
CANDY CATHARTIC
THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Best For The Bowels
CANDY CATHARTIC
THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Best For The Bowels
CANDY CATHARTIC
THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Best For The Bowels
CANDY CATHARTIC
THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

GANG OF BANDITS CONTROLLED TOWN

For Two Hours They Were Working to Blow Up Money Vault
Of the Newberg, Or., Bank.

FINALLY ABANDONED THE JOB.

People Were Terrorized, Pickets Holding Them at the Point of Rifles
Until Ready to Depart.

Portland, Or., Oct. 19.—A special to the Evening Telegram from Newburg says: For two hours this morning this place was practically under control of a gang of bandits, whose object was to blow up the building of the Bank of Newburg and loot the vault of the money on deposit. Though several charges of dynamite exploded, the vigorous ringing of the town fire bell and occasional rifle reports, almost to a man they turned out to see what was the cause of the disturbance. The bandits had taken possession of the bank, and the crowd turned its attention in that direction. By the time the people reached the scene, however, the bandits had succeeded in getting away. Those in the immediate vicinity of the bank had been watching the proceedings since shortly after midnight, but, covered by two men who were armed with revolvers, they remained silent in their quarters while the walls threatened to go down with every explosion. Believing that returning to their homes was warned to remain silent on the penalty of death, and cowed into submission, they obeyed the orders of the bandits.

At 3 o'clock the citizens of the town were awakened by a series of muffled explosions, the vigorous ringing of the town fire bell and occasional rifle reports. Almost to a man they turned out to see what was the cause of the disturbance. The bandits had taken possession of the bank, and the crowd turned its attention in that direction. By the time the people reached the scene, however, the bandits had succeeded in getting away. Those in the immediate vicinity of the bank had been watching the proceedings since shortly after midnight, but, covered by two men who were armed with revolvers, they remained silent in their quarters while the walls threatened to go down with every explosion. Believing that returning to their homes was warned to remain silent on the penalty of death, and cowed into submission, they obeyed the orders of the bandits.

DEFAULTER ARRESTED.

W. G. Carthew Said to be Short
A Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 19.—City Marshal Rammage of Hayward has arrested William George Carthew in that place on a charge of being a defaulter in the sum of $100,000. The arrest was made on evidence submitted by H. B. Erickson, a confidential clerk in a bank in New York, and while acting in that capacity, stole $100,000, which was regarded as a woman. It is claimed that he fled from New York and came to California. Erickson had done business with Carthew in New York and recognized him as the missing bank clerk. He is certain that this is the man who is wanted in New York and for whom a reward of $5,000 has been offered.

Carthew has been lodged in the county jail in this city on a charge of vagrancy until City Marshal Rammage can get full particulars concerning him from New York. Carthew gave the name of George Henry Rowe and stated that he had also been known as William Henry Davies. He states that he came here from Australia and was never in a bank in New York.

CHASE COURT-MARTIAL.

Objections of Defendant Were All Overruled.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 19.—The court-martial called by Gov. James H. Peabody to investigate charges against members of the national guard of Colorado met in the senate chamber of the capitol at 10 o'clock today and when a recess was taken shortly after the noon hour the question of postponing the consideration of the charges filed against Brig.-Gen. John Chase, until recently in command of the troops at Cripple Creek, was pending. The application for a postponement is based upon the statement of the attorneys for Gen. Chase to the effect that they are not prepared to continue with the hearing by reason of the fact that they have been denied access to certain books and papers in the adjutant-general's office necessary for the proper preparation of their case, and the additional fact that the leading counsel for Gen. Chase is absent. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every case the objections were overruled. The court was then sworn in. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of the objections by counsel for Gen. Chase to the competency of the court in general, because of their inferiority in rank to Gen. Chase, and to Col. W. R. Gilbert of Colorado Springs and Maj. A. H. Naylor of Victor on the additional grounds of lack of military experience, friendship for the complainants, Gen. Sherman Bell and personal enmity against Chase. In every