State and County Primaries Held Last Night in and Out of The City.

JOHN HOWELLS FOR SHERIFF.

Harry Harper Endorsed for Justice of The Peace-No Friction or Factions in Any District.

The Democrutic state and county primaries were held last night, and developed little out of the ordinary routine, as there is no fight on which rest interest centered. The Thirtyfinh district cast its support to Harry Harper for the nomination for city Barper for the nomination for city sprice of the peace, and instructed the delegates to work for him to their full-st capacity. In the Fifty-fourth dis-trict John Howells loomed up for the nomination for sheriff, and the dele-nomination for sheriff, and the dele-nation of 10 men was pledged to him, famuel Russell, district chairman, was also pledged the vote of the district for a nomination to the lower house. The list of delegates selected is as follows:

Full Delegations Chosen to Attend Salt Palace Convention Next Monday.

MEETINGS WERE HARMONIOUS

There Was no Contest of Serious Consequence in Any District-A Few Sent Instructed Delegations.

The Republican county primaries were held last night in all the Salt Lake City and county districts, and a full delegation was selected to attend the county convention scheduled for Monday evening next at the Salt Palace. The primaries were marked by a feeling of harmony and a lack of factional interests. No particular fights occurred in any district, although a few of them instructed the delegations for particular candidates. The prima-ries resulted as follows.
