Gets Restraining Order Against City For Cutting Down Sidewalk.

Another injunction suit was filed in the district court today by W. P. Noble against Salt Lake City to restrain defendant from interfering with the sidewalk grade in front and to the west of plaintiff's property on the corner of H and South Temple streets and to of H and South Temple streets and to compel defendant to restore the side-walk to its original condition. The com-plaint all sest that defendant, on Sept. 13, 1904, cut down the grade of H 13, 1904, cut down the grade of H street in excavating for a sidewalk so that it is 3% for below the sidewalk on South Temple street in front of plaintiff's property, and that it will, unless restrained, take up his sidewalk on South Temple street and cut the grade down to conform with the H street made treat grade. Plaintiff's property has already been greatly damaged by the change in the grade on H street, it is alleged, as all of the trees on that side have been destroyed and it is asked that an in-junction be issued to prevent the city from cutting the grade on South Tem-ple stroet and also that the city be compelled to restore the sidewalk grade to its original condition. Judge Arm-strong issued a temporary restraining order returnable before Judge Morse on Jan, 27, 1905. The bond for the restraining order was fixed at $1,000,

DEATH OF A STRANGER.

Unknown Passes Away at Salvation Army Barracks.

A man named Shires, uged about 50 years, died this morning at $:30 o'clock at the Salvation Army barracks of pneumonia. The unfortunate man had been ill only a few dats, and had been at the barracks for four or five nights, where he was given shelter and what comforts the place afforded. Where Shires came from could not be learned, Incesting of the Laberty stake was held last night in the Second ward meeting-house. Meeting opened by singing "Do What is Right." Prayer was offered by Elder A. Milton Musser. Continued by singing, "Now let us rejoice in the day of salvation." Wm. G. Woolley, John B. Williams, Jabez W. DAILY GRAIN LETTER.

Mossra. Logan-Pryan of Chicago telegraph their local correspondents James A. Pollock & Co., over "helr private wire, on the grain and provision situation, as follows:

Chicago, Jan. 24 .--- Wheat--- Market has again ruled nervous and dull. The chief feature of the session has been pronounced underlying strength. The strong action of the market continues to reflect its oversold condition and seems to be proof against any extensive what more hopeful as which any extensive what more hopeful as evidenced by slightly improved cash situation in all primary centers. Aside from deterring somewhat against short sales, we doubt somewhat againse short sales, we doubt I' the Russian situation is having any affect on values. Our market is a do-mestic affair and we are out of line and out of position to export wheat if called on. It is still a far cry to the host crop and the price paid daily for good milling wheat indicates it is a very scarce article. We think market is likely to continue nervous for the a likery to continue nervous for the ed comfort to the short interest -Market unchanged to 14 lower
