ASK THE MOTHERS.—Women have better opportunities for observing the effects of medicine than men. This is especially true of mothers, who note with a keenness born of affection, the operation of the remedies they administer to their children. Now ask any mother who has used Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar in her family as a cure for cough, cold, hoarseness, whooping cough, croup or influenza, what she thinks of it. The answer in every instance will be that she has found it the most effective preparation of its kind she has ever tried or heard of.

THE TOOTH-ACHE DROPS.—One minute relief.

The duties of a schoolmaster in 1661 were simple: "To act as a court messenger, to receive money, to conduct the children to the church, to lead the children to the school, to take charge of the school, and to perform other duties." Hence the compound word "schoolmaster" was born.

PURE OLIVE OIL.—Constantly on hand the genuine article directly imported from France, for sale by Louis A. Bertrand, at his residence, behind a block west from the Valley House and three doors from the Utah Hotel, and by Mr. Riser, watchmaker, opposite the Herald Office; price from fifty cents to two dollars, according to the size of the bottles.

Ask Frenchman, I do testify that my olive oil is the very best in the market.

ECONOMY IN THE KITCHEN.—Prudent housekeepers are ever on the alert to practice economy in the culinary department. In no way can this be done more effectually than in the use of a Baking Powder which combines purity, strength and reliability. Dooley's Yeast Powder has attained the deserved reputation of being economical, convenient and wholesome, besides which it will produce from a bag of flour twenty-five to forty pounds of more bread, rolls, &c., than by the old process of raising dough with baker's or hop yeast. Hereupon is a great saving, and authorizes the guarantee that it will give entire satisfaction.

BECOMING KNOWN.—As it is becoming known that Dr. Price's True Flavoring extracts are not made up from chemical poisons, but natural flavors, delicate and grateful to the most cultivated palate, they are growing rapidly in popular favor. The special recommendation of Dr. Price's Flavors is that their purity is perfect, their strength so much greater than other extracts, while the bottles hold half more than those purporting to contain the same quantity. It is only necessary for a person of pure and healthy tastes to try these flavors and they will be convinced that they are the finest, purest, and best flavorings for cakes, puddings, pies, &c.

Blindness from Lung Cancer, Bronchitis, Consumption, A Wonderful Cure.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 13th, 1874.

Dear Sir—I have suffered from Catarrh in an aggravated form for about twelve years and for several years from Bronchitis. Tried many doctors and things with no lasting benefit. In May, '72, becoming nearly worn out with excessive editorial labors on a paper in New York City, I was attacked with Bronchitis in a severe form, suffering almost a total loss of voice. I returned home here, but had been home only two weeks when I was completely prostrated with hemorrhage from the lungs, having four severe bleeding spells within two weeks, and first three within nine days. In the September following, I improved sufficiently to be able to be about, though in a very feeble state. My Bronchitis trouble remained and the Catarrh was tenfold worse than before. Every effort for relief seemed fruitless. I continued in this feeble state until the first of March, '73, when I became so bad as to be entirely confined to the house. A friend suggested your remedies. But I was extremely skeptical as I they would do me no good, as I had lost all heart in remedies and began to look upon medicine and doctors with disgust. However, I obtained one of your circulars, and read it carefully, from which I came to the conclusion that you understood your business at least. I finally obtained a quantity of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, your Golden Medical Discovery and Pellets, and commenced their vigorous use according to directions. To my surprise, I soon began to improve. The Discovery and Pellets, in a short time, brought out a severe eruption, which continued for several weeks. I felt much better, my appetite improved, and I gained in strength and flesh. In three months every vestige of the Catarrh was gone, the Bronchitis had nearly disappeared, and no cough whatever, and I had entirely ceased to raise blood, and contrary to the expectation of some of my friends, the cure was permanent. I have had no more Hemorrhages from the lungs, and am entirely free from Catarrh, from which I had suffered so much and so long. The debt of gratitude I owe for the blessing I have received at your hands knows no bounds. I am thoroughly satisfied, from my experience that your medicines will cure the worst forms of that odious disease Catarrh, as well as Throat and Lung Diseases. I have recommended them to my many and shall ever speak in their praise.

Gratefully yours,
WM. H. SPENCER,

THE EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 33 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Dull.

Rainstorm.—The rain poured down steadily last night for five or six hours, and the wind was boisterous.

The Moral Situation.—Business in the police court continues very dull. Justice Pyper hadn't a single case this morning, which is good news.

Departed.—The merry jingle of the sleigh-bell has departed for a season from the public thoroughfares. This comes in large part from the heavy wind and rain storm of last night.

That's Right.—The dog which bit a little girl in the 20th Ward yesterday morning, has been killed, by order of its owner, Mr. Williams. Those dogs and other creatures which will not behave themselves must take the consequences.

Theatre.—That accomplished and popular actress, Katherine Rogers, is announced as under engagement to appear at the Theatre next Monday evening, and for a limited number of nights. The management are engaging new talent for the regular company.

A Change.—We understand a change is being made in the clothing department of Z. C. M. I., of which Mr. H. W. Nalabitt, we believe, have charge, until it closes out, which will be done as soon as practicable, the Institution becoming wholesale, in all its departments, as rapidly as convenient.

Relief Society Party.—The Relief Society of the Seventh Ward will give a party to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at the school house of that Ward, Messdames H. S. Beattie, Joe. Hardman and A. E. Kelly, being the committee of arrangements. We have received a complimentary invitation.

Will be Heard at the Bar.—The writ of habeas corpus issued by the Sacramento County Court in favor of J. W. Haskin, arrested at San Francisco a few days since on two charges of perjury, alleged to have been committed at Salt Lake, will probably not come up for hearing in this city, as a similar writ was obtained for him from the Fourth District Court, San Francisco, returnable at 2 p. m. to-morrow.

Escaping.—At the instance of the burly butcher, Phil. Kohlihyer, Constable Hampton brought down from Ogden, this morning, a woman who was going off without settling a little meat bill of $181. The friends of the woman had gone on to Ogden ahead of her by train, while she followed afterwards from here by carriage, but it happened that the first person she accosted at the Junction City was Sheriff Brown, who has a peculiar knack of stumbling upon parties with whom he desires to transact official business.

A Bad Accident.—Yesterday a five-year old boy named Christopher Galbraith, who resides at Kayville, met with a very bad accident at that place. He was feeding a hay-cutting machine, which was being turned by another boy, when his right hand was caught by the knives, which severed all the fingers excepting the little one, and a portion of the palm from the hand. He was brought to town by his father yesterday afternoon, when he received surgical treatment from Dr. Benedict.

A Bad Recommendation.—It will be seen by the dispatches that the committee on elections of the House of Representatives have recommended, in their report on the subject, that Delegate Cannon, the able representative from this Territory, be expelled from the House on the ground of his being a polygamist, which is a very senseless and inconsistent recommendation indeed, and one it is presumed not likely to be acted upon.

More Thermometers.—Some of the settlements are very badly off for the means of determining the condition of the atmosphere, there being some of them where such a thing as a thermometer cannot be found. These very useful instruments are not by any means expensive and it is always interesting to keep a record of the weather. Besides, it would make the weather reports from the various parts of the Territory so much more complete if the standing of the mercury were given.

Prospering.—On Monday afternoon there was a meeting of the stockholders of the United Order of Tailors, when the various reports of the business of the concern for the past six months were submitted and accepted. They showed that the association was in a most prosperous and satisfactory condition, having continued to steadily and rapidly gain ground from the date of its organization to the present, as will be at once seen when it is stated that it started with an insignificant capital of forty dollars cash, and now the stock on hand, clear of liabilities, amounts to over $2,000, besides machinery and fixtures amounting to about $300. The result of the last half year's business will enable the association to do work at even cheaper rates than heretofore, which they announce their intention of doing.

The following officers were elected at the meeting:—President, John Ekman; 1st Vice President, Julius Selander; 2nd Vice President, Nicholas Krause; Secretary, John Hogman; Treasurer, John P. Dan; Directors, F. Goss, John Berger and E. Lundel.

F. Goss was also re-elected superintendent.

More Snowalides—Six Persons Killed at Alta.

Considerable excitement was caused in this city this morning by the reception of dispatches from Alta, stating that six persons were killed at that place last night by snowalides. The alides were two in number, and came down one on each side of the Emma mine, carrying away the ore houses and trestle work. In the descent the two slides came together at Alta, burying and killing Mr. Carey, and his wife and two children, "Old Mickey" (Michael Kelly) and another man, named Vanderlee.

The affair caused quite a consternation at Alta, and many of the residents were either leaving or preparing to leave there this morning.

City Council.—The regular weekly meeting of the City Council was held last night, Mayor Wells presiding, when the following business was disposed of:

Petition of Thomas Jenkins and others asking for the graving of some of the street crossings in the Fourth Ward, was referred to the committee on improvements.

Mr. Leventhal was granted an auctioneer's license for one year.

The committee on fire department reported favorably on the Chief Engineer's annual report for 1874, and recommended that his resignation be not accepted; also that $750 be appropriated for the use of the department; report adopted.

Bill of Joshua Midgley, $381.42, for painting Bath House, was allowed and amount appropriated.

Bill of W. Hyde, for boarding city prisoners during December, $259.20, was allowed.

After the transaction of some other business the Council adjourned till next Tuesday evening.

Conference at Paris.—A conference was held in Duffin's Hall, Paris, Onida County, Idaho Territory, on Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 9 and 10, 1875.

On the stand were President C. C. Rich, of the twelve Apostles; Presiding Bishop, Wm. Budge; and Bishops Henry J. Horne, of Paris; George Osmond, of Bloomington; John A. Hunt, of St. Charles; E. N. Austin, of Liberty; and Peter Jensen, of Ovid Wards.

President C. C. Rich stated that in order to complete the organization of this stake of Zion it would be necessary to organize the High Priests, Elders, Priests, Teachers and Deacons into their several quorums, which he desired to have accomplished forthwith, and he wished the bishops of each settlement to make out a list of the names of all those holding the priesthood in their wards, and to what quorum and office they had been ordained, and forward them to Bishop Budge, and an organization would be effected as soon as these names were handed in.

Elder Dudley Merrill represented Bennington. The people mostly were living their religion.

Bishop Peter Jensen represented Ovid, 40 families, generally striving to do right. Expected to start a day school in a short time. The Relief Society was in active operation.

Bishop E. N. Austin represented Liberty. The people were doing well. Had meetings on Sundays and on Thursday evenings. No schools were nearly completed. Day school well attended.

Bishop H. J. Horne represented Paris. Many were trying to live their religion, while others were careless. Had regular meetings, a good and large Sunday school, and a day school, well attended, with an average of starting and ending a few days. Had a co-operative store on a good basis, with upwards of seventy stockholders, and doing a good business. A large frame schoolhouse was being built in the south end of town, also a co-operative tannery in connection with other settlements. The Relief Society was in a flourishing condition.

Bishop Geo. Osmond represented Bloomington, 63 families and 371 inhabitants. Nine births, four deaths, and one marriage during 1874. Grain raised last year 22,000 bushels, mostly oats. Good large schoolhouse built. Sunday school scholars, 104. Day and night schools fully attended. Relief Society in active operation. People improving. No cases before the high council, and few teachers' trials. No blacksmiths or carpenters in the ward. Young men were averse to learning trades.

Bishop John A. Hunt represented St. Charles. Had regular meetings on Sunday and Thursday evenings. Had a prosperous Sunday school, a day school in operation, and another about to start. Relief Society was doing good. Majority of the married couples were happy. Raised good crops the past season, and tithing paid pretty punctually in kind. People generally felt well. A co-operative saw-mill established the past season, and it was intended to build a meetinghouse and some good dwelling houses as fast as circumstances would permit. Had plenty of carpenters and joiners.

Ep. H. H. Dalrymple represented Preston. The settlement was small, had no regular meetings. Had not raised a crop, but would continue trying. The people were poor, but desired to do right.

Bishop Hyrum S. Rich represented Fish Haven. He had but recently moved there, and the people appeared to be trying to live their religion.

Bishop George Osmond addressed the congregation.

Bishop Charles Robinson represented Montpelier. People generally felt well and were prospering. Meetings well attended. Had a day school. Relief Society was doing good.

Bishop Wm. Budge confirmed the reports of the bishops. But a reformation was needed, many were careless and did not properly value their standing. There was too much drinking and rowdiness, although the elders had endeavored to prevent it. Our young men were in many respects good, brave and intelligent, but they yielded to the corrupting influence of strong drink, smoking, and swearing, in opposition to all better counsels and influences.

President Rich also addressed the congregation.

On the second day of the Conference President C. C. Rich said the Priesthood was communicated to many converts and should be honored, by all those who professed to be Saints, in everyday life. It should be honored in our dancing halls, at public entertainments, and elsewhere. There was too much whisky drinking and other irregularities and improprieties, and confusion generally. Dances should be conducted in order and sobriety, and it would enhance the enjoyment of all present. The man was the head of the family, and he should honor his Priesthood. It was a man's duty to obey his law, and children's duty to obey their parents. In most cases good and holy men had good wives who enjoyed the Spirit of God. But we who were way to an evil spirit might expect her children to be actuated by the same spirit. In the best regulated families kindness and affection prevailed, and it should be the aim of every individual to do no evil in the community. Efforts were being made in two ways to introduce whisky shops. If any person in the church were engaged in that business, it would be doing a good thing for them and the community to cut them off from the church. We had fellowship too much. The bishop had been too lenient. The dead branches must be trimmed off, or we should not be justified. A man who got drunk and destroyed his health, was a bad example to his family, and would ultimately fall under condemnation. The priesthood required nothing of anybody but to do right. The co-operative tannery was an experiment, and when it was proved a success, he wanted to see a co-operative sheepherding organization, for something must be done to stop the destruction of sheep, as they were depended on for clothing. It would be more profitable to raise sheep and manufacture it into clothing than to dispose of grain at past ruinous prices to purchase goods manufactured thousands of miles away. He trusted the people would co-operate in taking care of their stock.

Bishop Budge spoke on the respect due to the priesthood, it being the authority of God on earth. It should have a bearing upon all classes, young and old, and in all the social and domestic relations of the Latter-day Saints. The dances were a good thing, but very disorderly kind, and he was directly opposed to such exhibitions. The temples were being pushed ahead with vigor, and pushed were needed to assist the brethren in their labors.

President Rich proposed that those contributing to the fund for the temple should send their contributions to Bishop Budge.

The several authorities of the church were presented and unanimously sustained, also the following local officers:

Charles C. Rich, as president in that region; Wm. Budge, as presiding bishop; and the following representatives of the several wards: Burton of Evanston Ward, Saml. Pike of Almy, Wm. H. Lee of Woodruff, Randolph H. Stewart of Randolph, John Nebeker of Lake View, John Truff of Meadowville, Hyrum S. Rich of Fish Haven, John A. Hunt of St. Charles, Geo. Osmond of Bloomington, Henry J. Horne of Paris, Peter Jensen of Ovid, E. N. Austin of Liberty, H. Dalrymple of Preston, Chas. E. Robinson of Montpelier, Joseph W. Moore of Bennington, and H. A. Lewis of Georgetown.

G. W. Sirlene, John A. Hunt, Neils C. E. Jensen, John Bingham, Thomas Slight, E. N. Austin, Milton Wilcox, Neils Wilhelmson, Geo. Osmond, Andrus Beck, Solomon Wixon, John C. Stucki, Hyrum S. Rich.

The following names were presented and sustained as home missionaries:

Lake Town Ward, John Nebeker and his wife; Fish Haven, Hyrum S. Rich and Hugh Findlay; St. Charles, John A. Hunt, N. Wilhelmson, Nathan Davis, Moses Booth and Daniel Jacobs; Bloomington, George Osmond, Bloomington, Geo. Osmond, and Wm. Budge; Paris, H. J. Horne, Thos. Slight and Robert Price; Liberty, E. N. Austin and Bro. Morgan; Montpelier, Chas. Robinson; Bennington, Joseph W. Moore and Dudley Merrill; Preston, H. H. Dalrymple.

President Rich said he expected the missionaries would be actively engaged during the winter, and he wished them to preach by the promptings of the Holy Spirit, not to be tedious in their discourses, but to speak what the Spirit dictated and then stop.

Bishop Budge spoke upon the importance of temporal matters, the erection of temples, payment of tithing, public works generally. Last of starting and ending $5,000 back tithing had been paid in that state. Surplus stock would pay most kinds of tithing, and such a disposal of stock would be a benefit to the church. Those indebted to the P. E. Fund should exert themselves to the utmost to pay the same. It was a debt of gratitude, and on its payment depended the emigration of hundreds of poor and faithful Saints. He recommended the observance of the advice of Prest. Rich in regard to obtaining records and enrolling the names of all members of the Church in the respective branches. Some rules were read for the controlling of dancing parties in Paris.

Prest. Rich advised the Saints not to sustain or sympathize with any man who took a course leading to evil, otherwise the power of Satan would be increased to their own injury and that of those who sympathized with or sustained them. Such a man was given to drinking, swearing or smoking, and was as well treated as those who abstained from such things, the influence would be evil. Every good person should sustain the young lady who would refuse to dance with a man in liquor. If they would do this, there would soon be a reformation amongst our young men. Those who were guilty of such evils were not safe companions for a woman, in time or in eternity, unless they reformed, and there was a great risk in our young people read too many love stories. The love that came from God loves everything that was good. That was the love we should cultivate, for there was a good deal of so-called love that was not real, but was the exhibition of an imtemperate passion. The most accomplished scamp could make love to a young woman just as well as a good man could, but that should not be sufficient for a young lady. She should scrutinize the man, weigh his moral character, and ascertain how well he would fulfill his promises. We should have an eye on our future prospects, for we had the power in this life to damage them for ever. He recommended the people to sustain the Deseret News and the Juvenile Instructor, and not sustain papers which had no interest in sustaining the people. We should abstain from the use of bad and foul language, and cultivate refined feelings, which were a source of joy and happiness, much more so than vulgarity and rowdiness. We should not allow ourselves to be run over by evil characters. We should be to blame if we submitted to an evil principle. We should not circulate evil reports. A man who would not honor his brother would not honor God. We should be to blame if we would not embrace those principles that led to happiness.

It was resolved that the Conference sustain Bishop Geo. Osmond as superintendent of Sunday schools for the stake.

Bishop Osmond urged the Saints to patronize the Juvenile Instructor.

A priesthood meeting was appointed a week from Sunday.

ROBERT PRICE, Clerk of Conference.
