EDITORIAL NOTES.

Fence advertising has had luck in France. An enterprising Yankee...

Frank Moses, once governor of the State of South Carolina, has been steadily declining from his once proud estate...

Elocutionists promise to be as plenty as doctors of medicine in the future. Out of 103 students entered at the Boston school of oratory...

There is a bitter race feud between the English and the French-Canadian residents. The latter have been boycotted out of all parts in the show...

In the health exhibition now in progress in London, there were exhibited articles of under-clothing made of pine needles or leaves...

Who remembers anything about a gold medal being presented to the widow and children of John Brown by the people of France?

Cholera is fighting for the Chinese far better than their army. Admiral Courbet telegraphed to the French minister of marine...

Says a sensible exchange: A German Baron and Baroness have been found sadly destitute in Chicago. Now, mark you! There is a worthy and educated German in Chicago...

The Boston Advertiser says: A Chinese pamphlet against Europeans has been published in Hong Kong. It asserts that the Europeans are not human beings...

A HORRIBLE TALE. At that the Salt Lake Tribune has a bit of a real anti-Mormon sensation. It is a horrible tale...

The Providence Star says: Among the famous papers for future reference by historians, General Grant's will takes a foremost place. He will give to the world just what is needed...

In Mr. Frey's interesting and useful dictionary of literary pseudonyms, we find the real name of Fanny Forester, author of 'Tripping in a Suburban Land'...

EXPOSE THE SLANDERS. In the Evening Standard of November 8th, we called attention to an atrocious calumny of which one J. M. Goodwin of this city was the author...

than reveal the secrets of the Church, and that 'Gentiles' are 'subjected to every sort of annoyance' through spies who 'find out everything possible about their history and belief'...

We endorse the suggestion in the Herald. Let the civic authorities give the fellow a chance to tell what he knows or pretends to know about policemen who are 'Danites'...

This Goodwin's Tribune training as a sneak and a Paul Pry into private domestic affairs, as a defamer of good men and women, as a professional falsifier and hired slanderer...

Business interests in this city have materially suffered from the slanders which have been spread abroad, from sources as petty and mean as the author of the falsehoods in the Leadville Chronicle...

And this is a very natural question. We are aware that some of our good friends are opposed to any notice being taken by the Deseret News of the disgusting and persistent professional slander-mongers...

ST. LAWRENCE COUNTY. Canton, N. Y., 13.—The St. Lawrence county canvassers were in session last night at Canton and all day today...

A HORRIBLE TALE. At that the Salt Lake Tribune has a bit of a real anti-Mormon sensation. It is a horrible tale...

St. Louis, 15.—Maj. Gen. W. S. Harney was married this evening at the Cathedral to his former betrothed, Miss Mary St. John, 34, and the bride 40 years of age...

Denver, Colo., 15.—At 10 this morning the train from Ft. Collins on the Colorado Central railroad was drawing into Beaver Brook station, two of the rear cars were thrown from the track...

FOREIGN. Latest Trans-Atlantic News. London, 15.—Billion from Holland to the amount of 200,000,000 was purchased in open market yesterday...

The awful mystery of this murder in blood which has been the subject of so many inquiries was held over the body of the woman and that Sexton Taylor took charge of the remains of the deceased, who had been abandoned by her friends...

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY! How to detect diseases and the cause, and how to cure, after all other remedies have failed. All can have positive proof, free of charge, by calling on DR. W. M. JONES, ELECTROPATHIST.

THE MANUFACTURE OF SUGAR! PROSPECTS OF THAT IMPORTANT BRANCH OF HOME INDUSTRY BRIGHTENING. SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, November 13th, 1908.

Editor Deseret News: Your readers doubtless remember that your issue of the 10th of October last, appointed a committee to investigate the manufacture of sugar from sorghum cane...

DEATHS. STEVEN—At Beaver, November 2, 1908, of inflammation of the kidneys and dropsy, Margaret Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph and Lucy Stevens, born August 15, 1860; aged 32 years, 9 months and 14 days.
