It is estimated by the Commissioner of Pensions that forty millions will be required for the payment of pensions the next fiscal year.
Judge Ota, for many years official reporter of the United States Supreme Court, said to day while reflecting as witness in a case before Commissioner Purdy, that he had formally resigned the commission.
It is understood that he will be succeeded by J. B. Smith.

The announcement of the charge will be formally made from the Bench by Chief Justice Waite next week.
Comptroller Knapp will decline to grant authority to operate a National decision is based on the ground that the application is not proper, under the banking act.

Secretary Teller has written a letter to the Attorney General submitting the question whether he can legally detail an examiner in the pension office to a district Colonel. United States District Attorney, who is investigating frauds by attorneys and claim agents upon pensioners.

In concluding his letter, Secretary Teller says, his endowment will be to carry out the law regarding this matter, and to assist to the best of his ability and authority in the prosecution of those persons who have committed offences against the pension laws or are guilty of other statutory or common law offences.

After hearing the defense offered by Knox & English, pension attorneys of this city, suspended a short time ago, they were to-day debarred from practice before the Interior Department by Secy. Teller.

shot and killed yesterday at Kenneth, Tenn., in this county, by Sam-tragedy grew out of a scandal in which Edwards had been charged with seducing a step sister of Rob-pelled from the church, his guilt

D. W. Carruth, indicted police commissioners, have brought suit against the grand jury, each claim-that it exceeded its official functions when it did so.

interfered, and a pistol was knocked out of the hand of one of the white men and exploded. All the stores were closed immediately, the alarm bells sounded, and the people came out. The Town Sergeant, who came out soon after with one of the military companies, and command-slightly wounded. Walter Holland was shot in the head. He is the son of J. Holland, chairman of the and hopes are entertained of his recovery. By agreement, no services were held in the churches to-day.

The city is under the supervision of Richmond, Va., 4.—An immense mass meeting of citizens of Richmond was held at the first regiment armory this (Sunday) evening, to express their sentiments concerning the riot at Danville. The preamble to the resolution of the meeting was that the riot at Danville was the result of a conspiracy to force an issue upon the white people by the leaders of the colored movement.

The resolution was adopted.

Swiftness of the Law and the Old Soldiers—How it is Done.
WASHINGTON, 4.—Judge Ferris, second auditor of the Treasury, in his annual report, exposes methods by which soldiers of the late war and government are being swindled by unprincipled attorneys and agents. He says not one in ten of the applications for arrears of pay and bounty possess any merit, and that twenty of all these claims are based upon suggestion, or by the voluntary action of the claimant.
The attorney seeks out his client and represents to him that he is entitled to a large sum of money, or other help, that they have not been paid all that is justly due them; that some new law, or new construction of the existing law, entitles them to more bounty, or further pay. A small fee in advance is required, generally two or three dollars, and the attorney promises in fact that can be got, with the promise that no more will be demanded unless the claim be allowed. The fee paid, the application filed and in the rejected.
The attorney really never looks after the claim. It does not pay. He has received his little advance fee, and he has no more to do with the claim. The soldiers are swindled, and they frequently denounce the government and its officers, who simply pay the attorney's fee as they find it. Another class of worthless claims is constantly increasing, namely, claims for bounties already paid. In many cases the soldier has been paid his bounty, and yet he claims it again. The attorney makes out a new claim, and the government is swindled. The attorney's fee is made years ago. To perjury is sometimes added, and the lapse of time since the war increases the chances of success to the forgers and perjurors. Should these records be destroyed, and such calamity is not beyond possibility, government would certainly be defrauded out of millions of dollars.
