CRITICAL ANALYSIS.

UNIVERSITY OF DESERET,
Salt Lake City, June 8th, 1887.

By carefully examining DeLand's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, I find that it is free from Alum, Starch, Flour, Bone Ash, Ammonia and White Earth; and that it consists essentially of Cream of Tartar and Bi-Carbonate of Soda.

The Baking Powder examined I purchased at Barnes & Davis, in this city.

EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, - March 7, 1888

PACIFIC COAST NOTES.

CULLED FROM LATEST WESTERN EXCHANGES.

—Lebanon (Or.), March 1.—The bedroom of Thomas Pebler, a prominent merchant of this place, was entered last night by burglary, who stole $75 from the pockets of Mr. Pebler's pantaloons. The burglars was committed so stealthy that the occupants were not disturbed, and there is no clew to the perpetrators.

—A dispatch from Baracoa, eighty miles from Havana, tells of the fiendish crime of an inhuman mother. She chopped off the heads of two of her children with a hatchet and held two others in a tub of water until they were drowned, and then cut them up. She said, when arrested and taken to jail, that the devil had tempted her to the crime.

—A special from Washington the San Francisco Chronicle says: A pension was today granted to Ah Lin, a Chinaman who served in our navy during the late war. It is understood to be the first pension granted to a Chinaman by the United States government. It is to be paid to the Chinese consul at San Francisco, who is designated by Ah Lin to receive the pension for him.

—Marie Rose, an American Indian woman, employed as a domestic in the home of I. W. McLaughlin at 2016 Fillmore Street, San Francisco, was found lying dead on the floor of her room on the morning of Feb. 29. An autopsy showed that she had died of asphyxia. Her room was very small and not ventilated, and the gas, which was burning, consumed all the oxygen in the atmosphere until she actually smothered.

—Chico, March 1.—A distressing accident occurred here last evening. B. F. Young and a fellow-workman were doing some repairs at the foundry that required the pouring of molten babbit metal into some boxing. When the boxing was filled the metal exploded and threw the hot lead into Young's face. His face was badly burned and his eyes were blinded, a rim of lead being formed over each eye. He will lose his sight.

—Jackson, March 1.—The principal business portion of Sutter Creek was destroyed by fire this afternoon. The fire started in Corbett's Hotel, on the east side of Main Street, and burned all the business places on that side of the street. It crossed to the west side at Werner's butcher shop and swept the entire block, over twenty business houses being destroyed, with nearly all their contents. The postoffice is a total loss. The loss will reach over $100,000. The fire is still burning, but under control, at 6 p. m.

—Carson, March 1.—Yesterday a fragment of a human skeleton was brought to this city from Pine Grove, near Genoa. The original skeleton must have been fully twenty-five feet long. The bone was a portion of the leg below the knee, and at the point where it joined the knee was eight inches across, or five times the usual size. The fragment was about two feet long, splendidly preserved, and weighed about twenty pounds. All the local physicians agree that it is unquestionably a portion of the skeleton of the largest human remains ever discovered. Parties are going to Pine grove to search for the rest of the skeleton.

—Chas. H. Meeker has brought suit against George W. Leek, a dentist of San Francisco, for damages done him when in the dental chair. The complainant avers that Leek is not a graduate of any dental college and is thoroughly inefficient and extraordinarily careless. The complainant further states he went to Leek with an aching tooth to be extracted and carefully pointed out the troublesome molar, but the dentist pulled the wrong tooth—a sound one—bringing on an hemorrhage which came near causing Meeker's death, and to stop which cost him nearly $200 in cash. He was laid up in bed thirty-three days, and for this and the pain he desires the soothing sum of $5000.

—Thomas Gibbs, the waiter, who was assaulted and stabbed by four Chinese, at the corner of Jackson and Stockton streets, San Francisco, on the night of Feb. 29, died of his wounds at the receiving hospital yesterday. No further light has been shed on the case by the police, except that the conviction grows with them that the two coolies, one of whom carried a bloody knife, arrested near the scene of the assault shortly thereafter, are guilty. The Chinese Six Companies notified the Chief of Police yesterday that they would jointly pay a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of Gibbs' murderers.

—Richard E. Taylor was arrested in San Francisco, Feb. 29th, charged with grand larceny, by Detective Rogers of the central station. Last December a newly imported solar condensing lens was stolen from Jonasen & Co., wholesale photographers, at 118 Golden Gate Avenue. Johnson was then in the firm's employ and was suspected of the theft. He denied it, but was discharged. Yesterday Detective Rogers, who had first undertaken the case and never forgotten it, found the lens in the possession of a citizen who had innocently bought it for $45 from Taylor. The lens was worth vastly more. Taylor was then arrested and his bail was fixed at $2000, which he could not furnish.

—A dispatch from Houston, Texas, says: A shocking massacre occurred at Sanish Camp, sixty miles west of this city, Sunday morning. The settlement is composed of Mexicans, negroes and white desperadoes. A negro cabin was set on fire and the occupants were deliberately shot down as they rat-hall awake out of the burning house. Five were killed outright and one severely wounded, while two were burned to death in the cabin. Another negro was caught and hanged to a tree. The butchery was the outcome of a suit for the possession of land recently decided in favor of the dead negroes in the district court at Wharton. Spanish Camp is far from any telegraph station and full details of the massacre have not been received.

—Josef Garcia di Cadiz, an old gentleman of decayed fortune, met with with an awful death last Thursday afternoon, either by his own design or by accident. He lodged, through the good will of friends, in a small room on the third floor of a building at the corner of Montgomery Avenue and Vallejo Street, San Francisco. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon he was seen at his window wiping his face with a towel. A moment later the shock of his body striking the brick walk forty feet below was heard. Running to the spot, a neighbor found the old man huddled, head downward, in a heap, his shoulders and arms broken and his skull crushed. The body was taken to the Morgue. Di Cadiz was born of a Spanish father and English mother in New York City and was 82 years old. He married when a young man in Buenos Ayres, and came to San Francisco in 1849. Later, he spent a number of years in Europe, South America and other parts of the world. He was an educated and cultured man, and was long a professor of mathematics here and elsewhere. With advancing age his reason seemed to have failed him. He lost the property he had accumulated, and had differences with his aged wife. He betook himself to a life of solitude, and was provided with means by General Vallejo and other prominent Spanish citizens among whom the Professor was much esteemed. Deputy Coroner Johnson, who closely investigated the case, is of the opinion that the old man's fatal fall was an accident.
