KIRBY'S FRIENDS SHOCKED.

News of His Suicide Causes Much Sorrow Among the Host of Town Men.

The tragedy from Los Angeles in connection the suicide by poison of W. E. Kirby, in the city, was a shocking surprise to the many friends of the unfortunate man in this city, Kirby's case was no reason for committing so dreadful a step of that kind. Much speculation, however, is now proceeding as to the actions of the force here to relief to the minds of his friends who have seen him, and there is no doubt in their minds that his mental faculties were somewhat affected.

Mr. Kirbye had letter to his wife, dated at San Francisco on February 26, was affectionate in the terms, and contained no communication that he was in any trouble. Kirby left here on February 15, for what purpose he would not reveal from his friends, but it is thought that he went to make a draft for $10,000 with which to purchase a mine. He was well known in Los Angeles as a mining man, but had never been known to be in funds or to let his friends have.

About three weeks ago Mrs. Kirby left here to a mother sister of her husband, and it is presumed that Kirby knew that the discovery and he decided to end his life rather than face the music. He called a few of his friends here.

Funeral Services.

The funeral services over the remains of Mary Belle Bowes-Smith were held in the South Cottonwood meeting house at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, numerous relatives and friends from all parts of the county being present. The casket was covered with beautiful floral tributes.

Bishop's counselor, T. A. Wheeler presided, and after appropriate remarks of singing and prayer, speaking and testimony bearing were made by Bishop Wm. Jennings, Counselor Jos. Taylor, John Sutherland, W. H. Kramer, John Lawrence and Thos. A. Wheeler, all paying the highest tribute to the good qualities of the deceased. They had never heard an evil word spoken of her and never knew of her doing wrong in any way, but on the contrary, a kind word and word for others. She was always quiet and unassuming and a model Latter-day Saint.

Many floral carriages followed the remains from the residence to the meeting house and to the cemetery, where the casket was lowered to its last resting place, the grave being dedicated by Elder Jos. Taylor.

CITY TAX LEVY FIXED.

4 in 7 Mills on the Dollar—Closed 9 to 1 Not Most Deficiency.

After considerable discussion the members of the City Council at a meeting held last evening, fixed the tax levy for the current year at 7 mills on the dollar. A question arose as to whether last night's session was a regular meeting in July, or an hour to the first Monday. Monday being a legal holiday gave occasion for the question arising. President Barnes ruled that it was a continuation of the regular session.

The ordinance providing for a levy was then segregated as follows: For general purposes, 4 mills; for interest on bonds, 2 mills; for sinking fund, 1 mill. The assessed valuation of the city is $40 mills; assessed, $10,000,000; total, $10,000,000; assessed, $10,000,000; total, $10,000,000; assessed, $10,000,000; total, $10,000,000
