

CONFERENCE IN MILWAUKEE.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 12.—The Wisconsin Elders met in conference at Milwaukee, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 11 and 12.

At the Priesthood meeting held at the meeting hall, 1715 First St. S., there were present besides the 16 Elders laboring in the Wisconsin conference President German E. Ellsworth of the Northern States mission, and Carl L. Smith, secretary of the mission, and Sisters Emeline McMaster and Jennie Romney, lady missionaries from Chicago.

Excellent and timely instructions were given by President Ellsworth, Secretary German and Conference President Edw. H. Hale. The Elders were strengthened by each other's testimonies and benefited by instructions given.

Encouraging reports were given from the various fields which showed the Wisconsin conference to be in a prosperous condition. Some 35 baptisms have been performed since last conference, and many people have heard the Gospel.

Three public meetings were held, one Saturday evening at the meeting hall, and two Sunday, Nov. 12, at 2 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. at the meeting hall, at which were largely attended by Saints and friends.

The Elders met in Priesthood meeting Monday, Nov. 13, at the Pond du Lac hall, where they received instructions as to their labors and were assigned to labor as follows:

Milwaukee—President E. H. Hale, Lot S. Hess, Robert Steller, Carl E. Ernst, South Milwaukee—Alfred Bolshewer and Marion C. Clark. La Crosse—Nahum R. Jensen and Aaron W. Jackson. Oshkosh—Chas. Erdman and Hyrum Y. Rigby. Chippewa Falls—Geo. L. Beebe and Fred J. Alden. Janesville—Edward Jansche and H. Earl Nelson. Ashland—Henry F. Burton, Jr., and Frank Beecher.

BAPTISMS IN MINNESOTA.

Brainerd, Minn., Nov. 12.—The undesignated were called to open up a field for mission work in this city, where we arrived on Aug. 5, finding a very bitter feeling of prejudice among the people toward the Latter-day Saints. We held a number of successful open air meetings, distributing a large amount of literature and broke down prejudice to some extent, so that we were able to get into the houses of the people and there present the Gospel to them. On the 11th, inviting the privilege of leading one honest soul down into the waters of baptism. About 20 investigators and friends gathered on the banks of the Mississippi river to witness the ceremony. It being the first performed in this city, Elder Lewis officiating. The convert is Mrs. Dela Onery. At night a very successful meeting was held at her home where she was converted. On the 12th, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. A number of very earnest investigators were present, and by the request of one Mrs. Bridgman, a meeting was appointed for the following Wednesday at her home.

The work is progressing nicely and prospects are fair for a good harvest in the near future, if present conditions continue. We are very thankful to the Lord for the success that He has blessed us with. The "News" is a welcome visitor.

WILLIAM EDGEWORTH, ALANSON LEWIS.

DEATH OF CHURCH MEMBER.

Duquoin, Ill., Nov. 8.—On October 5 Sister Justine Schmick, Waldheiser, wife of George Frederick Waldheiser, passed away, leaving many relatives and friends to mourn her death. She was a native of Germany, born in Wuerzburg, Sept. 1830, was married in 1852 and is the mother of 11 children, of whom 9 children, with her husband, survive. She was baptized a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on July 25, 1894, in Jackson county, Ill. and has been a good and faithful Latter-day Saint, always ready and willing to lend a helping hand wherever needed. On Sunday, Oct. 29, Elders John Christensen, George M. Smith and John M. Holdaway arrived at the home, and at 2 p. m. a goodly number of friends and relatives assembled and a memorial service was held in memory of a dear and loving wife and mother. After the impressive services the assembly repaired to a perfect family and decorated the grave of the departed, with flowers. Elder John Christensen dedicated the grave, all returning to their homes much impressed with the peculiar doctrine of a perfect family organization in heaven, where all will meet as father, mother and children. If they keep the perfect law of heaven. The cause of Zion is spreading, and our Elders are doing an excellent work, making many friends and some converts.

JOHN M. HOLDAWAY.

FOREIGN MISSION FIELDS.

CONFERENCE IN SAMOA.

Gathering Place Growing Satisfactorily.—More Baptisms.

Aia, Samoa, Oct. 25.—The general conference for German Samoa, including Upolu and Savaii, convened at Saunafu Oct. 14 and 15. As early as the 11th, Elders and Saints began to arrive from Savaii and by the 13th about 150 people were enjoying the hospitality of the Saints of Saunafu, who have been diligently preparing for this event for months past. Seventeen members are finished and there was plenty of food in the plantation. So unlike many previous conferences, the Saints had a bounteous supply during their entire stay.

On the afternoon of the 13th Elders' meeting was held. There were present Thomas S. Cart, president of the mission; Carl L. Smart, secretary; Francis M. Young, president; Felix D. Baird, Clifford Porter, W. E. Ware of Upolu, George A. Lewis, president, Faith 12, Clifford, Charles Lallathine and William Park of Savaii, and Brother Jacob Olsen of Aia.

President Cart greeted the Elders with words of encouragement and counsel. Every one present bore earnest testimony to the divinity of the work, and reported their fields of labor. Elder F. M. Young was honorably released to return home. Elder F. D. Baird was sustained and set apart as president of the Upolu conference. Jacob Olsen was ordained an Elder.

The first general meeting was held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Elder Cart presiding. The four general meetings were well attended. Native Saints and Elders from Zion occupied the time to the edification and satisfaction of all present. The general theme was the gathering of the Saints to the new home at Saunafu, which, although not yet one year old, has made gratifying progress.

Jr., and John O. Mellor bore testimonies to the truthfulness of the Gospel of Christ.

Elder Joseph W. McMurrin, Jr., and Mrs. McMurrin sang very beautifully, "God Bless Our Mountain Home."

President Grant, spoke of the divine mission of the Prophet Joseph Smith, the origin of the Book of Mormon, and the advancement which the Latter-day Saints have made along all lines of progress.

The meetings were well attended, and were characterized by the pouring of the "Spirit of God." There were between six and seven hundred people present at both afternoon and evening meetings.

On Sunday afternoon President Grant and Elder Anderson met with the Elders of the conference, and in the evening with the local Priesthood. Many valuable instructions were given.

H. ALBERT WATSON, Clerk of Conference.

STAKE CONFERENCES.

JORDAN STAKE.

The Jordan stake conference was held at Sandy, Salt Lake county, commencing Saturday, Nov. 11, at 10 a. m.

There were present of the General Authorities President Anthony H. Lund, Elders Hyrum M. Smith and George Albert Smith of the quorum of the Apostles, President J. Golden Kimball of the First Council of Seventies, and Bishop Orrin F. Miller. Elder James Tensior and President Hyrum Goff of the stake presided reported the stake in good condition, and the organizations are in fine working order with the president and High Council united. Bishops C. Burgess, W. D. Kuhre, Gordon S. Bills, John A. Egbert reported their wards.

Timely instructions were given the Saints relative to every day duties by the visiting brethren. The duties of acting teachers were especially emphasized, also the teaching of the children the principles of the Gospel in the home, that they may be valiant for the truth. The Seventies were counseled to attend their quorum meetings and other duties, and the Priesthood generally to magnify their callings as teachers and instructors among the people, and to labor for the salvation of souls was the paramount duty of those who held the Priesthood. The Saints were enjoined to be faithful, devoted and true to the covenants and to live in accordance with their belief and profession, as the Gospel is an every day religion. The sacredness of the Sabbath day, and the accountability of man for his Maker, were impressively presented to the people.

On Sunday afternoon the sacrament was administered under the direction of the Elders of the stake, and the general authorities of the Church and of the stake were present and sustained.

The usual M. I. A. conference was held Sunday evening. President Lund, Elders Smith and Kimball were among the speakers.

NIELS LUND, Clerk of the Stake.

WAYNE STAKE.

The quarterly conference of the Wayne stake convened at Loa, Nov. 11 and 12. President Willie E. Robison presided. The general president of the stake authorities W. E. Robison, J. S. Ekersley, G. S. Bastian. There was a very good attendance, all the wards were represented except two. Reports of the different wards were made by the following Bishops: W. H. Morrill or Loa, Heit E. Mayfield of Fremont, Joshua H. Cook of Lyman, Heber J. Wilson of Teasdale, Walter G. Hanks of Caldwell, Torrey was reported by Bishop's Counselor John W. Cameron. Relief society and other auxiliary organizations were reported in good condition.

The general and stake authorities were sustained by unanimous vote in the Sunday afternoon meeting. The president of the Y. L. M. I. A., Sister Tursu A. Ranson, was released with a vote of thanks for her faithful labors in the association. Sister Flora A. Russell was sustained as president, with Sisters Edith H. Lazenby and Ada Potter as counselors. Alousia Taylor, secretary, and Lillian Grundy, treasurer. Elder Peter Nielson was sustained as president of the Elders' quorum, in place of Elder Gus Williams, resigned.

Stake Clerk John T. Lazenby reported his visit to the different wards in the interest of the records, which were found in good shape.

Addresses were made by the stake presidency, Patriarche Eliza H. Blackburn and R. F. Brown, and Elder Peter Nielson, a returned missionary, the instructions were timely and good, exhorting the Saints to get out of debt and live in unity and avoid fault-finding and discontent.

Conference of the M. I. A. of the stake was held on Sunday evening.

JOHN T. LAZENBY, Stake Clerk.

SNOWFLAKE STAKE.

Holbrook, Ariz., Nov. 14.—At the Snowflake stake conference, held at Snowflake, Navajo county, Arizona, Nov. 11 and 12, President Francis M. Lyman and Elder Rudger Clawson of

HOUSEHOLD WORRIES

There is Not the Slightest Need For Some of Them Existing in Salt Lake City.

The average mother finds sufficient annoyance and worry performing the ordinary duties in the rearing of a family, but the cares and anxiety are doubled when there is added to ordinary conditions that of weakened kidneys in a juvenile member of the family. How to cure it should be of untold value to Salt Lake City mothers. Read this:

Mrs. James N. Haverly, wife of James N. Haverly, carpenter, residing at 442 north Third West, says: "My little daughter, six years of age, had weak kidneys, from which she has suffered ever since she was an infant. Her trouble was inability to retain the kidneys secretions. I employed doctors and used many advertised remedies, but nothing did her any good until I obtained Doan's Kidney Pills at the F. J. Hill Drug Co. These pills have helped her so much, which is a great relief to the child, that I am very grateful for having my attention called to them. I can really recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to mothers having children with weak kidneys and you are at liberty to refer to me regarding them."

the Apostles' quorum gave excellent discourses on the necessity for preaching the Gospel and on tithing and urged the people to get out and keep out of debt. The life possibilities and mission of the young people, chastity and other important subjects were also impressively treated.

The conference was greatly enjoyed by a large attendance from the Saints. The general and local authorities were unanimously sustained, and judging by reports from the Elders, a general good feeling of fellowship prevails throughout the stake.

SAMUEL F. SMITH, Stake Clerk.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES.

Elder Robert Hutchinson Moyes of the Second ward, Ogden, passed through this city Oct. 14, 1903, on his return from the British mission, for which he was set apart Oct. 12, 1903. He labored in the Irish conference for 19 months, and in the Scottish conference the remainder of the time.

Elder J. Andrew Woods, Jr., of Thatcher, Graham Co., Arizona returned the first part of the month from the Central States mission, for which he was set apart Sept. 8, 1903. The Louisiana and Missouri conferences were his fields of labor, nearly two years in the first named and the remainder of the time in Greene county, Mo. He reports both conferences in good condition. He made many friends and baptized a number of converts.

Elder John P. Smith, Jr., of the First ward, Logan, Cache Co., arrived in this city November 9, 1903, on his return from the Central States mission, for which he was set apart Nov. 10, 1903. The conferences of West Kansas and Missouri were his fields of labor. The people are becoming very friendly to these districts and the Elders are enabled to hold more cottage meetings. The labor missionaries especially, did much good in Kansas City in this way.

Elder Chester B. Walker of Reservoir, Idaho, who was set apart June 9, 1903, returned Nov. 9, 1903, from the Central States mission, where he labored in the St. John conference for 25 months and in Kansas City, Mo., the remainder of the time. The work of the Lord is progressing very nicely in this part and much revivification is being removed from the minds of people.

Elder Hyrum E. Perry of Parry, Box Elder Co., passed through this city, Nov. 12, 1903, on his return from his Eastern States mission, for which he was set apart Oct. 27, 1903. The conference of New York was his field of labor. Notwithstanding the great indifference existing relative to religious matters, a few honest souls are being added to the Church.

Elder Nephth Henworth of Woods Creek, Davis Co., returned November 14, 1903, from the Northwestern States mission, where he labored in the St. John conference of Tacoma, Seattle, Boise and Portland was his field of labor. A good work is being done in this mission and a few are receiving the truth.

Elder Ezra Anthony Valentine of Brigham City passed through this city Nov. 16, 1903, on his return from the Scandinavian mission, for which he was set apart Oct. 27, 1903. The conferences of Copenhagen, Norway, and Copenhagen, Denmark, were his fields of labor, in both of which the work of the Lord is progressing. A great many are slowly but surely. Climatic conditions make traveling rather difficult in winter. And the people being poor, have to work early and late, therefore have little time to listen to the gospel message. Yet some few honest souls are eager to hear the gospel message and accept the same.

Elder Louis S. Keller of Mink Creek, Onida Co., Ida., arrived in this city Nov. 16, 1903, on his return from the Scandinavian mission, whither he was sent Aug. 4, 1903. The conferences of Trondheim, Norway and Aarhus, Denmark, were his fields of labor, in both of which he reports the Elders are gaining friends and a few are being added to the fold.

Elder Jens P. Nielson of Mink Creek, Onida Co., Ida., arrived in this city Nov. 16, 1903, on his return from the Scandinavian mission, for which he was set apart Aug. 4, 1903. The Copenhagen conference was his field of labor, where he baptized a few good members.

Elder Lars P. Jensen of Ovid, Bear Lake county, Ida., arrived in this city Nov. 16, 1903, on his way home from the Scandinavian mission, to which he was assigned July 23, 1903. The Copenhagen conference was his field of labor. He presided in the Lolland and Falster branch, the first 12 months, and made many friends and some investigators. The balance of the time he presided in the northeast Sjælland branch, where the Elders had the pleasure of baptizing a number into the Church, and many are investigating the work.

Elder Hans J. Vool of Mount Fort ward, Ogden, Weber county, arrived in this city Nov. 16, 1903, on his return from the Scandinavian mission, for which he was set apart Oct. 14, 1903. The conferences of Trondheim, Norway, and Copenhagen, Denmark, were his fields of labor, in both of which the work is progressing.

Elder Nels C. Christensen of Brigham City, Idaho, returned Nov. 16, 1903, from the Scandinavian mission, for which he was set apart Dec. 1, 1903. The conferences of Copenhagen, Norway, and Copenhagen, Denmark, were his fields of labor, in both of which the work of the Lord is progressing. A great many are investigating the Gospel, and the Elders are doing a good work.

Elder Hyrum P. Nokieby of the Fourth ward, Ogden, arrived in this city Nov. 16, 1903, on his return from the Scandinavian mission, for which he was set apart May 3, 1903. Christiania, Norway, was his field of labor, where there is great need of more Elders.

Elder Norman Ellis Shorten of Ogden, Utah, returned Nov. 16, 1903, from the British mission, whither he was sent Sept. 15, 1903. The London conference was the scene of his labors, and he reports the work there progressing nicely, with bright prospects. During the last six months 35 baptisms were reported.
