(Special to the "News.")
Provo, Aug. 2.—Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon the work of registration has proceeded with some dispatch. There is a marked falling off in the rush as compared with yesterday. At this hour there have been about 700 registrations. It has not been necessary to do anything in the way of maintaining a line as the crowds have come in small squads of from two to half a dozen people.

The first day of registration for the Utah reservation opening passed off without any disagreeable feature whatever. The number registered was 2,350, not as large a number as was expected, but from all reports there are many coming in today. The Rio Grande Western expects to bring 1,500 people from the south over their Sanpete valley branch, and reports from other points indicate a large number of new applicants. It is not probable, however, that there will be as many people in Provo today as yesterday. Those who will be here will be here for business, while a large proportion of the crowd yesterday was for the purpose of information only. The local people who registered, as they considered gave way to the strangers, many of whom were accompanied by being able to return to their homes last evening.

PROVO WAS EQUAL.

If the supposition is right that Provo has the largest crowd, the fears and hopes, that Provo could not entertain the strangers have been proved groundless. The eating places, while well patronized, could have accommodated more people, and if any without places to sleep it is for want of sufficient effort on their part to get the necessary information, from the Commercial club bureau of information or other sources. There are places for all. Additional tents were placed on the courthouse square yesterday by Mr. Traft and the Commercial club bureau has applications from citizens for lodgers that have not been filled. There is no complaint from any of the quality or price of the food served, and if there was a complaint, it is justifiable. But the strangers are not a complaining crowd, they are good natured and orderly and seem to be enjoying themselves.

COMING WITH TEAMS.

People with teams are still arriving from different parts of Utah and adjoining states. They are camped in the outskirts of the city and some have moved up the canyon six miles south, where they combine the pleasure of a summer outing in the mountains with the business of getting a farm from Uncle Sam.

There are also a number of people, several hundred camped in Springville, six miles south, and Mr. Kelly has opened a notarial office to take their applications, which they bring on to Provo when they register. Mr. Kelly says that Springville is not crowded, and could take care of many more if they would come. The bulk of the people here seem to be from southern Utah, and the scarcity of water for irrigation in some places has caused the people to look for land in better watered localities. The applicants are mostly farmers, young men who are looking for a place to make a farm. There are also a number of miners from various mining towns of the state, who will improve their holdings if they can get a place and have a place to take their families and make a home for themselves when they become tired of working under ground. But all classes are represented. The festination of chance seems to be hard to resist. A yesterday, and left their address, to which notification of the drawing will be sent, and many more would have registered had they been able to get time they had. At Springville is not whether many of them would leave a circus to settle on a farm, if they have a chance, is doubtful. There are a number of women, mostly widows with sons, who will go on the land and build homes.

WANTED TO GAMBLE.

The town has been remarkably free from grafters of the kind that usually follow large crowds, or if they are here, they have not been doing business. The extra police force sent by City Marshal Henry, and the determination of the mayor, marshal and council to make good order, will make it very easy for those who wish to work. There is a feeling of disappointment on the part of some who have come here to conduct gambling plants over the department of "frenzied finance." One of them appeared Mayor Roylance yesterday and offered to "make it right" with the mayor. The mayor said he would run a game. The mayor said, "No, we don't want any of your Promises to be Long Drawn-Out Contest Between Railroads and Combination of Employees.

ONE REASON FOR CALLING IT.

Mr. Perham Says It Was Because General Manager of G. N. Said So Percent of Men Were Loyal.

St. Paul, Aug. 2.—The strike of the telegraph operators of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern railways today settled into what promises to be a long drawn-out contest between two of the largest railroads of the west and a combination of employees who claim to have the power to tie up the money-making end of these two roads so that the companies will be willing to grant their demands.

President Perham and his assistants began today their attempt to close up all the loose ends of the strike which was ordered last night to counteract the lockout ordered by the railroad officials yesterday. At strike headquarters telegrams were arriving by the score from every point along the two systems from loyal unionists stating that everything here to a man had gone out and that a complete tie up was effected. On the other hand an equal number of telegrams were being sent to heads of unions at various points instructing them to set picket lines.

"There is nothing to say now except that we have a full fledged strike on and that so far as our reports go every man is out on both lines," said Mr. Perham today.

"I ordered this strike after we tried all other ways of settling our grievances against the railroad and after they had locked out our men because they would not sign impossible agreements. Another thing that made me call this strike was the statement of the general manager of the Great Northern that 80 per cent of the men remained loyal to the road. That and the fact that about 400 non-union men were on their way from Kansas City to fill the vacancies on the Northern Pacific caused me to decide to show them that they were wrong in their estimate as to the number of loyal men. Well, all our men are out and our complete is that the tie-up is complete. The roads are not running any freight trains. They may run passenger trains, but mostly in the air. One person was killed, and there are forty injured in the hospitals, three or four of whom may die.
