COOK ON THE FAMILY LIFE.

IN his Boston lecture on "Infidel and many hundreds as well. IN his Boston jecture on "Infidel Attack on the Family," to which we made some reference last Thurs-day, Rev. Joseph Cook called up three ancient virtuous women to look into the eyes of the free lovers of modern times. All these exam-ples cited by the lecturer were pa-gans. Could not a Christian minister flad any Bible exemplars as evi-dence of the beauties and benefits of the family condition." Are there dence of the beauties and benefits of the family condition." Are there no Scripture heroines who could look into the eyes of the anti-tamily philosophens." Where are Hannah the mother of Samuel, fluth the daughter of Naomi, Miriam the sis-ler of Moses, Eachel and Irah the children of Laban, Sarah the wife of Abraham the patriarch." Are they not worthy to stand up on a lavel with Phocion's wife, with level with Phocion's wife, with Panthes and the fillal Pompelian daughter? It is rather strange that BY TELEGRAPH. a preacher of the gospel must go to heathendom alone for his examples, PER WORTHRN UNION TELEGRAPHLINE. one of whom was a suicide.

THE DISTRESS IN WALES.

By request of Elder John Parry, we publish the following portions of a letter written by Brother John D. Evans of Cwmbach, now living at Pontypridd, South Waler, as it shows something of the terrible while he was afsea war might have D. Evans of Cwm bach, now living shows something of the terrible suffering endured by the poor in that part of the country. A good work is being done in raising means to help out the Weish Saints who are in affliction, and it is to be hoped that their fellow country-men in Utah will amply respond to their thrilling appeal for help. "With much sorrow I pen you the following few lines. Our health as a family is moderate, nothing to boast of, but our temporal circum-stance are very poor indeed. The trade has fled from this country, to where, I am not propared to may. But this much I know, that hup-dreds of mortals are falling daily to the ground, dwing to starvation. The collieries do not work on an aver-age more than eight days a month; this is a fact. The peor workman is also pressed so much in his occup pation that even when he does work, he can not earn but two shil-lings a day. Provisions are very lings a day. Provisions are very high indeed. Flour is 225, per hunhigh indeed. Flour is 22% per hun-dred, butter is 3d. per its, cheese is 9d. per ib., sugar 5d. per ib., and all others are very high indeed, and this great warin the east is 'how the means of rising averything. Clothing is also very dear. A suit of clothes for as adult will cost 25.
