"That makes simplicity a grace" (S.)

—Ben Jonson

The old craftsmen as well as the old poets found the true grace in simplicity. In like manner is oftentimes most graceful when most simple. It is not necessary to incur great expense in order to adorn one's home with the best examples of Gorham silverware.

Even the most inconsiderable articles of household use or personal adornment are pre-eminent in design and admirable in workmanship.

Due Notice is served

Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, unadulterated witch hazel. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits. Those persons who get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are never disappointed, because it cures. Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, 115-117 Main Street.

HYRUM.

DEMISE OF TWO VETERANS.

Peter Larson and Julius Johnson Answer Final Summons.

Special Correspondence. Hyrum, Cache Co., April 21.—Peter Larson and Julius Johnson, two high school seniors, died yesterday. Peter Larson is supposed to have died from an attack of heart failure, for he expired very suddenly at the dinner table. Up to the time of death he had enjoyed excellent health and unusual vigor for a person of his age. He was born in Sweden, Nov. 24, 1822; married, 1849; embraced the Gospel in 1862; immigrated in the spring of 1863, arrived in Salt Lake City in the autumn; located in Mill Creek ward, where he remained three years; moved from there to Bear is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders.

Mrs. M. J. Cray, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like. Kodol digests what you eat and makes it easy on the stomach." C. M. I. Drug Store, 115-117 Main Street.

EUREKA.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. JARVIS

Farwell Social Tendered Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Thomas.

Special Correspondence. Eureka, June 19.—Mrs. Carolina Jarvis, wife of William M. Jarvis, died instantly this morning at her home, from an attack of heart disease. The lady was attending to her household duties, when suddenly she was warned the fatal summons came. Mrs. Jarvis was 46 years of age and leaves a husband and six children, four of whom are under the age of ten. The deceased was one of the most popular ladies in Eureka, being of a sunny and happy disposition. She made friends by the score and her social life was sought. Her sudden passing away was an awful shock to the residents of the camp.

The remains were taken in charge by Undertaker Rustie, and will be shipped to Salt Lake City, where they will probably be buried in Calvary cemetery on Tuesday. Arrangements were made for a special train to convey the body to the capital city.

The pupils of the public school at Silver City were the guests of the trustees and teachers of the school of the term, and were treated to a splendid luncheon, including candy and lemonade.

The county road between here and Mammoth is undergoing a thorough overhauling by Road Supervisor Frank Scholmer, who is also having the streets of the twin camps well cleaned up under instructions from the county commissioners.

The Harris Brothers, Sterling, John H. and H. S., of Tinto, have taken a long railroad contract at Versailles, Missouri, and have moved their families to that city.

The choir and primary association of the L. D. S. Church at Mammoth gave a very enjoyable farewell party to Mr. and Mrs. Morgan M. Thomas on Thursday evening. A fine literary program was rendered and ice cream and other choice edibles were served during the evening. The Ladies Relief society presented the worthy couple with a comfortable and elegant rocking chair in appreciation of their energetic work in behalf of the society. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will move to Spanish Fork, where they will make their future home. They carry with them the best wishes of the people of Tinto for their future welfare and success.

BEAVER.

SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

Death of Richard Tassell—B. B. B. Y. A. Conference.

Special Correspondence. Beaver City, Co. April 21.—The district schools of this city closed last Friday after a very successful year's work. The commencement exercises were held on Friday evening, in the meetinghouse, and were a most interesting program. Ninety graduates received their diplomas. The promotion to higher grades were many and from the work evidenced were well deserved.

RICHARD TASSELL DEAD.

Richard Tassell, of whom mention was recently made, as being seriously ill, died on Thursday and was buried on Saturday. He came to Beaver about 25 years ago from England, and has always manifested a good disposition. He leaves a wife and three children.

Charles P. Bird is at the point of death.

B. B. Y. A. CONFERENCE.

A well attended and interesting conference of the domestic, ward and stake organizations of the city was held at the city hall.

River City, with the intention of making his home his permanent home, but conditions there not suiting him, he, after a lapse of some 5 or 6 years, sold out and moved to Hyrum, where he has lived ever since. His wife by first marriage died over a year ago after which he married a young wife, who now survives him, as also do seven children born to him during the first marriage, many grandchildren and a great grand child. He held the office of a High Priest.

Julius Johnson's death was occasioned by cancer of the stomach and tumor combined. About two years ago he underwent a surgical operation at Logan for the complaint, the same proving insufficient it was repeated a year later by Dr. Root at the Holy Cross hospital at Salt Lake City, but after having suffered untold agony and pains for two years he answered the final summons.

He deceased was born Feb. 12, 1847, at Onso parish, Norway, emigrated with his parents in 1855 and located at South Weber, where the family remained upwards of seven years; left there and arrived here in 1862, married Oct. 2, 1871, performed a two years' mission to his native country during the years 1888-92; was a very industrious, public spirited and useful man. A wife and six children mourn the loss of a kind husband and loving father.

Funeral services of the remains of the two will be held at the stake building tomorrow.

The stake officers of the Primary organization held a meeting yesterday which was attended by President Louis R. Felt, Josephine R. West and May Anderson of the general board, and President Mattie H. Hansen of the Cache Valley stake. The words of encouragement and instruction given at the occasion by the visiting officers were highly appreciated by all in attendance of the local officers present.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue and throat continually in back and sides, to appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle cured me. I am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No other remedy failed to try them. Only the guaranteed, at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.

SMITHFIELD.

LARGE ACREAGE OF BEETS.

Heavy Yield Anticipated—Fine Residues Under Way.

Special Correspondence. Smithfield, Cache Co., April 18.—A number of fine buildings are in process of construction in Smithfield, among them a 6-room dwelling for James Porter, a 4-room dwelling for Gus Larsen. The new dwelling office for Larsen and will be a handsome brick structure when completed.

James J. McKie, having charge of the drilling. The farmers expect a heavy yield of the roots and will take every measure to insure success.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

FALLS HEIR TO $250,000.

Good Fortune of C. M. Anderson—Settlers Go to Canada.

Special Correspondence. Mount Pleasant, Sanpete Co., April 22.—A large party of settlers left here yesterday for Canada. Among the party were the following: Moroni Seely and family, Alma Bennett and family, Olf Erickson and family, P. C. Melville and family, Oscar Barton, Jr., and family, Kimber Barton and two sons, George Seely and family, James Bradley and family, Jesse Wilcox and family, Mrs. Erickson and children, J. C. Barton, Robert Mills and R. T. Pickers, and of Mt. Pleasant: Eliason brothers of Moroni, Mrs. Larab and children of Wales, and several parties from Fairview. The ladies who are already married their husbands, who are already in the Canadian country. The party goes through direct to Sterling, Can., where it will arrive about Friday. Most of them have been farmers here, but will go into the stock raising business in Canada. Messrs. Erickson, Melville and Moroni Seely have been here before and are very well pleased with the outlook.

FALLS HEIR TO BIG FORTUNE.

It is reported from Spring City, this county, that C. M. Anderson of that place, a young man of 35, has fallen heir to a large estate in his native country, Denmark, valued at a quarter of a million dollars. The estate, which is said to consist of $200,000 cash and a country seat valued at $175,000, comes to the young man through the death of his father. Something like twelve years ago the younger Anderson left the parental abode and came across the seas to America and Utah. Since that time little or no information has come to him from his former home, and he has not been back during the period of time intervening. He came to Spring City, married and settled down. He has since the most prosperous, having his wife and a number of children in support, and no capital but his own strength on which to start. He has secured in that time a humble little home and a comfortable living for himself and family. He has been selected by the people of his town upon several occasions to see them in the capacity of marshal and as water commissioner, having been the incumbent of this latter office at the time his good fortune came to him.

BAKER CITY, OREGON.

Saw Mill and Factory Making Record Run.

Special Correspondence. Baker City, Ore., April 18.—Operations at the mill plant of the Oregon Lumber company are being carried on in the midst of the most prosperous season in the annals of that manufacture. Orders are in from Chicago, Milwaukee and Nebraska and other points east. The shipping department at the mill is working its force 120 hours daily. The reservoir holds 250,000 feet of logs. There are now 100 men employed at the mill, and the payroll for the month of April will reach $100,000. Log trains are being run daily and the crews in the camps are getting out timber at a rapid rate.

In the box factory a full crew is working and orders are being shipped out rapidly. It is with difficulty that the order book is kept clear.
