BREVITIES.

New York street railroads are running smoking cars.

The Cretan rebellion has cost Turkey 40,000 men.

Whitfield's Tabernacle in London is to be pulled down.

Fame and a river—narrowest at the source, broadest afar off.

Chicago is investing a million of dollars in places for religious worship.

Ice which was put up in America, in 1865, is now selling in the East Indies.

It takes 150,000 gallons of water to keep the Boston Common fountains running an hour.

New Elgin, Ill., ten years ago a shrubless prairie, has now a forest of pine and birch. The trees were raised from the seed.

Richard Greener, a negro, took the first Boylston prize at Cambridge. The second was taken by Godfrey Morse, a Jew.

The shoe business of Lynn, Massachusetts, for the past year is estimated by the Reporter at seventeen millions of dollars.

A swimming school in Frankfort displays the following sign in English: "Swimming instruction given by a teacher of both sexes."

In the recent Quaker yearly meeting at Philadelphia, a preaching member was not allowed to speak because his hat and coat were out of the style of Penn.

A young man named Zephariah Hendrics died suddenly in South Bend, Indiana, a few days since, from the effects of a long continued bath after violent exercise.

"Taint de white nor yet de black folks what hab de most influence in dis worl', but de 'yeller boys," said old Aunt Chloe, as she jingled a few gold coins that had come down from a former generation.

Before a West Point cadet can get leave of absence he must take a pledge that he will keep sober the three days immediately succeeding his departure, and three days immediately preceding his return.

In Nevada, a contemplative Digger Indian sat watching a party of base ball players, who seemed to him to be working very hard. Turning to one of them, he asked: "How much you get one day?"

Professor Gamgee affirms that one-fifth of the common meat of Great Britain—beef, veal, mutton, and lamb—is diseased, while Professor Gerlach states that in Berlin at least as much diseased as healthy meat is consumed.

Providence has a colored boy, aged thirteen years, who for a few cents will take a mouthful of glass, chew it up fine and swallow it. He says he has followed the business since he was nine years old, and can keep fat on it!

In Dublin, a great Methodist orator once attempted to preach from the text, "Remember Lot's wife," and made a failure. He afterwards remarked to Dr. Bond that he did not know the reason of his failure; the venerable doctor replied that "he had better let other people's wives alone."

At all the dry goods stores in Berlin, where the Princess Victoria buys goods, female clerks are employed. This is done in compliance with the special request of her Royal Highness, whose great hobby is the extension of female labor beyond the narrow circle to which it is still confined.

During the war, a lady passing from cot to cot through the wards of a hospital, was shocked to hear one fellow laugh at her. She stopped to reprove the wretched patient. "Why, madame," said he, "you have given me a tract on the sin of dancing, when I have got both legs shot off!"

The Mankato, Minnesota Record has a remarkable story of the death of a woman in Faribault county, who had gathered a quantity of potato bugs, burned them in her cooking stove, and while leaning over the stove inhaled poisonous fumes. She fell to the floor insensible, and died in about ten minutes. Her husband, inhaling the fumes, was only saved by timely medical aid.

Multitudes of women lose health and life every year, in one or two ways; by busying themselves in a warm kitchen until weary, and then throwing themselves on a bed or sofa, without covering, and perhaps in a room without a fire; or lay removing the outer clothing, and perhaps changing the dress for a more common one as soon as they enter the house after a walk or a shopping. The rule should be invariably to go at once to a warm room and keep on all the clothing at least for five or ten minutes, until the forehead is perfectly dry. In all weather, if you have to ride or walk on any occasion always do the riding first—Dr. William M. Hall, M.D.

Little Walter Draper is a very good little boy, according to all the rules laid down for good little boys. Last Sunday he asked permission of his mother to go down to the Gould and Curry reservoir, which his mother refused, because it was the Sabbath. Good little boys sometimes cry a little, and Walter began blubbering.

"Why, Walter," cried his mother, "I'm astonished! The idea of your wishing to go down to the reservoir on the Lord's holy Sabbath, to go swimming with a lot of bad little boys!"

"Boo, hoo!" blubbers Walter, "I didn't want to go a swimmin' with 'em ma; I only wanted to go down an' see the bad little boys get drownded for goin' a swimmin' a Sunday—boo hoo!"—Ex.
