Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Further Particulars of the New York Disaster.

New York, 1, evening.—Boiler Inspector Horton, of the sanitary squad reported to Superintendent Walling late this afternoon that he went to the building at 63 Barclay Street, succeeded in finding the steam boiler, and found that they were intact and everything connected with the steam apparatus in good order. The inspector said that one of the copper tanks, filled with material for making candy, must have exploded, breaking the kerosene lamps, with which the building was lighted, scattering the burning fluid in every direction. The total loss is $425,000, insurance $325,000, well distributed among thirty-seven eastern and foreign companies. A legal point has been made by the representatives of some of the insurance companies which have risks on Greenfield's buildings. They hold that, inasmuch as the policy of the policies the companies are responsible only for damages occasioned by fire, and the explosion occurred before any fire was discovered, the value of the property destroyed must be based upon its condition at the moment between the explosion and the fire it occasioned.

The coroner empaneled a jury this afternoon. It is not decided when the inquest will be held. The scene of fire is illuminated by two huge bonfires. About twenty-five men are engaged in removing the debris by baskets full from the ruins. The firemen were busy all the evening until after 11 o'clock, endeavoring to extinguish two large streams of fire which came from the gas mains under the ruins and a large force of police is keeping back the crowd, who have gathered to watch the searchers.

The following is a list of the missing persons who undoubtedly perished in the ruins: August Drexler, I. S. Griebach, Ferdinand Koeber, Albert Krummery, John Krummery, Mrs. Mary Rodman, Josephine Shepard and William Stark.

Lake Shore Railroad Report.

The annual report of the Lake Shore, issued to-day, shows the gross earnings to be $13,532,939; the net earnings, $4,215,851; interest, etc., $2,742,000; balance, $1,765,934, of which there went for the Ashtabula accident $393,940.

Reception of the Presidential Party by the Union League Club.

The Union League club looked at the brightest to-night, and its splendid parlors were prettily adorned with so distinguished an assemblage of ladies and gentlemen as gathered there in honor of the reception to President Hayes.

The rooms were elaborately decorated for the occasion. The theatre of the club, which communicated by folding doors with the reception hall, was tastefully draped and rare flowers and shrubbery filled the place with perfume and lent attraction to the scene.

Leading from the theatre to the reception hall, and from the latter to the main reception, facing on Madison Avenue, were thrown open and the whole continuous space was where the reception proper took place. The saloon was decorated with flags of all the States and a picture of President Hayes was surrounded with United States flags.

At 7 o'clock the carriages began to arrive by way of Madison Avenue, and after depositing their occupants, left by Fourth Avenue and Twenty-sixth Street, to prevent confusion. From 7 o'clock until 9 o'clock, and consisted of President Hayes, Mrs. Hayes, Burchard Hayes, Webb C. Hayes, Miss Hayes, General O. O. Howard, ex-Assistant Secretary R. C. McCormick, and Miss McCormick. They were all dressed in full evening costume and were received at the entrance by the reception committee.

The distinguished party were at once escorted to the reception parlors. Hon. John Jay received the President and his party and gave them a hearty welcome to the Union League Club.

The reception was altogether of an informal character and no address was made. Secretary Everts and wife arrived shortly after the President's party had joined them in the saloon. By this time the rooms were uncomfortably crowded, and promenade was difficult. Many prominent persons were present.

After an hour's pleasant conversation and promenade, during which the many splendid paintings and works of art adorning the walls of the club were admired, an adjournment was taken to the banquet room on the floor below, where an elegant collation was partaken of.

The President and party left shortly before 11:30 o'clock and were driven to their hotel. It was long past midnight before the last of the many guests had left the saloons. The reception was generally considered one of the most agreeable and successful ever given by the club.

Removal of Silver—Mass Meeting.

TOLEDO, O., 21.—A mass meeting was held to-night, to express views on the subject of the remonetization of silver. Mayor Jones, Judge J. R. Seney, John I. Sherwood and others spoke. A resolution was unanimously adopted to urge upon the senators and representatives in Congress the immediate remonetization of silver, and that the coinage be as free and unlimited as that of gold and of the standard value of the dollar of our fathers, to wit: 412 2/3 grains of standard silver.

A resolution was also passed denouncing the resumption act and demanding its immediate repeal.

Paterson's Condition Critical.

WASHINGTON, 21.—The condition of Senator Paterson of South Carolina this evening, is considered very critical. He to-day, suffered a severe attack of congestion of the brain. His relatives have been telegraphed.

Fatal Quarrel.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., 21.—Wm. Martin, residing in Washington township, in a quarrel with two brothers, named Caleb and Frank Briggs, struck the latter on the neck with a knife, severing the jugular vein and killing him instantly. Caleb was also seriously cut. Martin escaped. The trouble arose from a quarrel about a sister of the Briggs boys.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 21.—A Vienna correspondent telegraphs that although all apprehensions of seraglio conspiracies and coups d'etat at Constantinople seem to have disappeared, the least thing is sufficient to revive them; thus the unexpected appearance of Suleiman Pasha at Constantinople with 10,000 men, has given rise to the fear that some change of the kind is impending therefore it is not surprising that the Sultan and his government should seek support in parliament and make it share in the responsibility for the course to be followed.

This movement of Suleiman, and other reports of the withdrawal of the Turkish field forces from about Esmed, seem to indicate that in the quadrilateral necessary the garrisons have been left to make the best defense they can; moreover, that their energies will soon be taxed, for it is officially announced that Gen. Todleben has been appointed commander-in-chief of the Rostchuk army. This looks very much as if a siege of Rostchuk is imminent, and that General Zimmernan will seize the opportunity of advancing against Silesia.

There is nothing as yet to indicate the destination of the army of the Czarowitz, whether it is to advance on Shumla or join the force at Tirnova and then advance across the Balkans. It will take some time before a definite opinion on a large scale will be possible, although the movement of troops from Plevna in various directions has begun. Some days must pass before an influence at work at the front is felt.

Prince Charles of Roumania has received the Iron Cross from Emperor William.

It is said the Porte will shortly order a fresh levy of 300,000 men.

The Turkish communications between Nisch and Laskovitz, by capturing and destroying the Schetelch bridge after a stubborn engagement.

The St. Petersburg Globe publishes an article on the early meeting of the British Parliament and the possible measures of the English cabinet. The article declares that Russia may awake, without anxiety, the issue of this political episode and may quietly continue the work which she began, in the new situation.

A Vienna special says: Negotiations have been proceeding for the conclusion of a treaty of alliance between the Danube. No understanding has been reached, so far, as Russia wishes the neutrality to extend to the sea, while England and Turkey seem only inclined to let it reach to Tullna.

Greece and Crete—Threatening Demonstrations.

A dispatch from Athens says the Greek military estimates for 1878 will show an increase of 10,000,000 drachmas.

The Christians of Crete are electing assemblies which will appoint military chiefs.

The Porte has sent a commissioner to offer guarantees for reforms. The insurgents, however, demand annexation.

A correspondent at Athens is assured that many Cretan chiefs, dissatisfied with the cautious policy of Greece, have adopted as their programme freedom under the protection of England.

The Athenian clubs propose to make threatening demonstrations in favor of war, on Sunday, which the authorities intend to suppress.

FRANCE.

Political Affairs.

PARIS, 21.—Waddington, minister of foreign affairs, held a reception to-day of all the officials of the foreign department here, and addressed them to the effect that the republican regime was now claimed to be definitely established, and if this was distant to any of them they would do well to seek another career.

YURKEY.

Peace Negotiations.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 21.—Several members of the Turkish parliament intend to solicit government, in the chamber, to open negotiations for peace.
