

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

There is not a single formal social function to record for this week. But there have been a considerable number of informal affairs. These have consisted principally of lake, circus, park and other outing parties. Some pretty home luncheons have been given, but they also lacked formality and were all the more pleasant on that account. The coming week will start off at a little livelier pace occasioned by the Miller-Englin engagement at the Theater at which several box parties will be entertained Monday and Tuesday night.

One of the most delightful events of the week was the informal garden party given by the Misses Arton and Jasmine Young for Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick. The picturesque grounds were unlighted except by the rays of the moon and everywhere were attractive nooks and seats. Many rugs, benches and swings were found under the trees and by the waterfall. On the porch punch was served and during the evening ices and coffee were served in the dining room and on the lawn. Fifty guests were present.

Sunday evening Mrs. Agnes Osborne entertained at a most informal at home for Mrs. Geneva Jennings Baker at her handsome studio on South Main. A number of friends called during the evening to wish Mrs. Baker an enjoyable journey to her new home in New York City.

On Thursday evening the Misses Jean and Beatrice Hyde gave a very enjoyable party. During the evening an interesting contest took place and afforded much amusement for the guests. The rooms were artistically arranged with great numbers of sunflowers. On the verandas were cozy corners and divans, while on the lawn were many rugs and seats. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Preston J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Romney, Misses Mrs. Royal Daynes, the Misses Grace Cannon, Florence Grosbeck, Misses Abbie Wardrobe, Edna Harker, Mrs. Smith, Davis, Morris, Ida Davis and Nettie McKay, Annie McKay, Annie Cannon, Myrtle Lyon, Winifred Woodmansee of Ogden, Katherine De Gull, Minnie James, Kate Thatcher, Chambers, Williams, Mame Hyde, Florence Minor of Logan, and the Misses Bitter and Messrs. Art Gates, George Morris A. Irvine, Will McKellar, Wm. McAllister, M. Davis, Elbert Thorpe, M. A. Pond, A. C. Rees, S. J. Clark, Gill Richards, Rollin Dole, Brown, Whitney and Taylor.

Wednesday evening Mr. Walter Stone was the host of a jolly circus party. After the performance the party were driven to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marshall, where they enjoyed a Dutch supper.

Dr. and Mrs. Root gave a beautifully

WEDDING BELLS

At St. Mark's cathedral Wednesday afternoon the marriage of Miss Edna Phelps and Arthur B. Gattrell took place. The ceremony was performed by Dean Eddie at 4 o'clock in the presence of the relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The altar and chancel were beautifully decorated with flowers, ferns and palms. As the bridal party entered the church Miss Gattrell played the Lohengrin wedding march, and during the impressive service "Oh, Promise Me." At the conclusion the Mendelssohn wedding march was heard. The bridal party left the church and went to the home of the bride's parents on Twelfth East street, where a wedding supper was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Gattrell left for their new home in Eureka, whither many good wishes from local friends follow them.

Wednesday in the Salt Lake Temple the marriage ceremony of Miss Clara Jones and Mr. J. P. Smith of Logan was solemnized. After the ceremony the happy young couple left for their home in Logan. Both Mr. and Mrs. home in Logan.

DUCHESS OF WESTMINSTER DISLIKES AMERICANS.

The American woman abroad is too popular. So think some of the exclusive Englishwomen at the court of St. James's, now preparing to boycott their trans-Atlantic rivals.

Thursday evening a jolly party enjoyed a moonlight picnic at Walker's farm.

The M. M. S. O. U. club held its second meeting yesterday at the home of Miss Nellie Bull. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing and social chat. Luncheon was served during the afternoon, the table being prettily decorated with pink and white sweet peas. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Pearl Branch.

On Tuesday Miss Florence Decker gave a very pretty luncheon. The table was adorned with flowers and ferns. Those present were the Misses Ellis Stern, Mary Sargent, Elsie Keyser.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

Ogden, Utah, Aug. 8.—One of the most fashionable home weddings that has ever taken place in Ogden, occurred on Tuesday evening, Aug. 4, at the beautiful home of William Schausenbach on Twenty-fifth street when his daughter, Miss Minnie Fagline Schausenbach, and Mr. Charles H. Bowman of Butte, Montana, were married. Rev. Alfred Brown of the Episcopal church performing the ceremony, which was witnessed by only the relatives of the contracting parties, excepting the ushers, bridesmaids and members of the S. O. O. G. club. Promptly at 8 o'clock, the sweet strains of a stringed orchestra playing Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" were heard and the wedding party wended its way down the winding staircase to the spacious double parlors. First came the bridesmaids each dressed in white and carrying bouquets and ferns, and they with the ushers formed an aisle, through which entered Miss Wilhelmina Kiesel, maid of honor, followed by the bride on the arm of her father. The groom, who had as best man his brother, John G. Bowman, of Iowa City, awaited the bride. The bridesmaids were Misses Margaret Park, of Salt Lake City; Katherine Schneider of Toledo, Ohio; Eva Kuhn of Salt Lake City; and Jollette Marks of Ogden. The ushers were F. C. Schram of Salt Lake, Grant Hampton, C. H. Kircher and W. J. Shealy of Ogden City. The bride wore a beautiful gown of crepe with duchesse and point lace and veil and carried white roses. Miss Kiesel was gowned in a pretty costume of white and green and carried carnations. A reception was tendered the young couple's many friends after the ceremony. The home decorations were beautiful and artistic, the color scheme being white and green. The contracting parties are both very popular. The bride is a young lady of talent and refinement and the groom is professor of mechanics and mining engineering at the state school of mines at Butte. Mr. and Mrs. Bowman left Ogden on the Southern Pacific for California to spend a short time, when they will return to Butte to make their home. They were the recipients of many fine presents and hearty congratulations.
