Pacific Investigating Committee.

OMAHA, June 22.—Before the Pacific Investigating Committee to-day, Guy C. Barton, the president of the Omaha & Grant Smelting and Refining Company, was examined. Sidney Dillon and Frederick L. Ames were the only officers of the Union Pacific connected with his company; they each held 880 shares of stock worth par. Asked by Governor Pattison why his company in one period of sixteen months received rebates of $253,000 from the Union Pacific, witness replied that this had been allowed in order that low grade ore could be made salable. If the

was exacted it could not be handled. The company also did twice as much business as any other of its class in the country. Its competitors enjoyed similar rebate privileges.

General Traffic Manager Kimball was recalled. The Union Pacific had to pay rebates because its competitors did. As to discriminations, witness said in some cases the company gave a preference by rebate to large shippers who were under obligations to send all their business by the Union Pacific. He admitted that this might in "some cases," shut out small shippers. The company had given rebates to the Standard Oil Company, and there had been times when that company had a pretty large preference over all other shippers of oil. This might be embarrassing to but the Union Pacific found it embarrassing when the Standard took its business away and gave it to the Pacific Mail, which would transport for the Standard 800,000 cases of oil by sea before the year was out. The commissioner requested Kimball to furnish the comparative statistics of the business done by the Union Pacific for the Standard and other companies.

Crimes and Criminals.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—A woman known as Ann J. Butterfield, who has latterly been working at a bakery at Riverside, California, has been identified as one of the persons who apparently had some knowledge or connection with the alleged abduction of Mrs. Albert Brooks, of Juniata, Michigan, who recently came into the possession of a large fortune at Denver, Colorado, and then mysteriously disappeared. The Butterfield woman as the person who sent both of the letters to a banker at Vassar, Michigan. The letters in question had been written by parties in Riverside to Mrs. Brooks at Denver. It was also learned that the Butterfield woman had received a copy of the Detroit Free Press of June 11, noting the receipt of letters at Vassar. When some inquiry began to be made about her she disappeared, departing last Sunday. She was reputed to be worth $40,000. Parties who were investigating the matter declared that the woman is either one of the abductors, or she is the lost Mrs. Brooks herself, and that the receipt of the large legacy upset her mind. A good photograph was secured of the woman, which will be sent east. She is apparently 40 to 45 years of age, of stout build and having plain features.

THE SHARP TRIAL.

NEW YORK, June 22.—In the Sharp trial, Bright, of counsel for the Broadway road, testified regarding his visit to Judge Bartlett, of the supreme court, in regard to the order dissolving the injunction which restrained the board of aldermen from granting the franchise. Witness refused to produce his books showing the transactions between the firm and his clients as requested by the district attorney.

BUFFALO, June 22.—Parant, the defaulting cashier of the Hochelago bank of Montreal, has been arrested here charged with the embezzlement of $22,000, the larger part of which has been recovered.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 23.—John T. Maxwell, a to-day shot and killed a man named John Ricketts at Irondale, six miles from this city. About ten days ago Ricketts went to the house of Maxwell during the latter's absence and attempted to outrage his wife.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 22.—The Cora Lee case went to the jury this afternoon. The jury is still out.

Violent Storm.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 23.—A violent storm broke over the city and coast as far south as Virginia this morning, uprooting buildings, and doing much damage. Several people were killed.

Heavy Fire.

NEW ORLEANS, June 23, 1:30 a. m.—A fire broke out in the rear of the upper portion of Frederickson's drug store at 130 Canal Street, in the Touro buildings, the most important business block in the city. The fire is now burning fiercely.

3:15, a. m.—The fire is now under control. The loss is about $22,000. No loss of life is reported.

Getting On Finely.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—The steel stern post for the cruiser Charleston was successfully cast here to-day. The post is twenty-two feet long on the keel with an upright of twenty feet, and weighs upwards of 15,000 pounds. It was claimed by the eastern competitors for the building of the cruiser that a post of that size could not be cast on the Pacific coast.

Rumored Abdication.

VIENNA, June 22.—Rumors are current that King Milan, of Servia, is about to abdicate.

Shipping Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The Pacific Coast branch of the American Shipping and Industrial League had a largely attended convention in this city to consider the remedies to prevent the decay of American shipping.

Fraud on a Lottery.

KEY WEST, June 22.—The royal Havana lottery after the last drawing was mulcted to the amount of $85,000 through counterfeit fractional portions of tickets bearing the number drawing the capital prize. The capital prize called for $200,000. The forgery was not discovered until after the above amount had been paid on it.

The Colored Folks.

ST. LOUIS, June 22.—The colored people of this city are making preparations to take part in the reception and entertainment of the Grand Army veterans during their encampment in September. The committee of arrangements will try to induce the colored soldiers and colored members of the Grand Army to attend the encampment.

Supreme Grand Lodge.

CHICAGO, June 22.—The present and past Grand Master Masons of the United States met this morning to organize what will perhaps be known as the Supreme Grand Lodge. About fifty delegates from the different states were present under the authority of their different state grand lodges, and it is their intention to perfect an organization in the next few days that will have the authority of the highest lodge now existing. The new organization will only be composed of the past and present grand commanders.

Travelers' Association.

ST. LOUIS, 22.—The Travelers' Protective Association to-day decided to admit employing merchants as honorary members of the organization. It was also resolved to attach a salary of $2,500 per annum to the office of president, to enable that officer to devote his whole time to the interests of the association.

The Hawaiian Trouble.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—In connection with the rather startling statements brought by the passengers from Honolulu last week, predicting a revolution in the Hawaiian Kingdom, it has been disclosed that the steamship Australia, which sailed from this port yesterday for Honolulu, carried 900 Winchester rifles, 64,000 cartridges, four cases of revolvers and a quantity of powder. The schooner Forest Queen carried 13 cases of powder, two cases of bullets and one case of pistols. The barkentine Colusa carried two cases of arms and ammunition With a single exception the firms to whom these arms were consigned are what are known as opposed to the government. They were evidently not shipped on account of the government, since heretofore arms of the Hawaiian troops have been ordered direct.

Advices from Vancouver, British Columbia, are that the British corvette Conquest starts for Honolulu next Sunday, having received secret orders from the foreign office in London. The flagship Triumph, which is now at Esquimault, is preparing for sea and her destination is unknown, but it is supposed she will follow the Conquest. These war ships are sent to guard the interests of the British settlers on the islands. At the British consulate silence is preserved as to the orders given the men-of-war.

The Sellere Case.

PARIS, June 22.—U. S. Minister McLane gives public notice stating that he offered Baron Raymond de Sellere, who was recently placed in a lunatic asylum by relatives, and who in 1886 in New York declared his intention of becoming an American citizen, only friendly service in securing his liberty. It was alleged that the minister had demanded the baron's release, and that the French cabinet had taken the matter into consideration. McLane says his offer was personal and in no wise official or diplomatic.

The Veterans.

SARATOGA, June 22.—Saratoga is crowded with representatives of the Army of the Potomac. Various army corps had special reunions during the forenoon. At noon a general reunion of all the bodies took took place. The following vice-presidents, elected by corps, were announced: First corps, Gen. Fairchild; second corps, Col. Edw. A. Dudley; third, A. Bartlett; signal, Capt. R. B. Wood, Jr.

Several resolutions were offered on the matter of the return of the captured flags, but all were laid on the table.

A resolution passed that the next annual meeting be held in Gettysburg, July 1st, 2d and 3d, 1888, and that survivors of the Army of Northern Virginia be invited.

THE INDIANA CONFERENCE.

Progress of the Work in the Hoosier State.

Editor Deseret News:

Our conference having just closed, a short account of the Elders' labors in this part of the Lord's vineyard may be of interest to your readers.

Since last October, the elders, sixteen in number, have labored in southern Illinois with the exception of two who labored in Indiana.

All the brethren are feeling well in health and are filled with the spirit of their mission as is evinced by the work reported. While in conference capacity the Elders and visitors from a distance were hospitably received and cared for by the Saints and friends.

There were six public meetings held on Saturday and Sunday, the 28th and 29th of May, when the brethren spoke by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, to the interest and edification of the many hearers.

ON THE FIRST DAY

after opening with prayer and singing, remarks were made as follows: The Gospel was preached in the Adamic and Noahic dispensations, for we read the son s of God worked righteousness which Paul says is revealed in the Gospel of Christ. Jesus obeyed John's counsel and also submitted to his baptism, thus, by example as well as precept. He commanded all men to obey that ordinance. It is by obedience to the Gospel and its ordinances that grace will save us. Thus by baptism of the water and the spirit we are securing the grace which will save us if we walk in the light. That the Redeemer may present the Church unto the Father pure and without spot or blemish, it must be properly organized having certain officers and rules of regulation that justice may be administered therein. Some of its officers were Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Elders, Bishops and Deacons, with signs and miracles following the believers. But for the "falling away" this organization would have continued among men from the Apostolic to the present day.

AT THE AFTERNOON MEETING

the speaker said, there having been a falling away and the violent having taken the kingdom by force, it must be again restored in these latter-days. A part of the interpretation of Nebachadnezzar's dream was then read. The laws of adoption and the necessity of obedience thereto to enter into the kingdom as citizens was dwelt upon. Catholicism was the only order of faith in existence among men for hundreds of years after the apostolic period; therefore expounders of the other doctrines can have or claim continued authority through no other channel unless by new revelation from the heavens. The Protestant churches do not recognize either channel, therefore must their own claimed authority be assumed. Direct revelation is absolutely necessary in any age when the Gospel is on the earth.

The speaker at the

showed the world do not believe in Jesus Christ. His text was II John, 9: "Whoever transgresseth and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son." Without faith it is impossible to please God. It is also written, "He that believeth not shall be damned." Faith is the moving cause of all action. The devils believe and tremble, but without works faith is dead.

Jesus set himself up as the type of perfection and said, "Follow thou me." If the reception of the Holy Ghost should precede the baptism of the water, then would John have baptized with the Holy Ghost and would have taught the people that He who should come after him would baptize with water. There are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost; these three are one; and there are three that bear record on earth, the Spirit the water and the blood.

THE EARTH

in its creation was destined to obey these Gospel ordinances. By faith the worlds were made; after the fall, in Noah's day, it was baptized with water; has since then flowed with sacrificial and human blood, but righteousness will yet cover it as did the waters, and finally it will become as a sea of glass, fit for the abode of celestial beings.

Becoming an adopted son of Christ's fold, we should thereby become a member in such a church organization the pattern of which Jesus gave, even as a block in the great temple in which dwells the Holy Spirit.

After the opening exercises on a discourse on the divinity of Joseph Smith's mission and the Book of Mormon was delivered. The testimony of the three also the eight witnesses was read. Whatever in the book substantiates its own divinity substantiates the divine calling of Joseph Smith. The book is not unscientific, makes no contradictory statements, does not disagree with the Bible. A skeleton with a wooden leg lately found on the Missouri river, proves knowledge in an art among the early inhabitants which was unknown upon the eastern continent at so early a date.

SUNDAY MORNING,

BRASS PLATES

bearing inscriptions of ancient date, found in Polk County, Illinois, ruins of once beautiful cities, canals, etc., prove that a civilized nation once inhabited this land, a true record of which people is found nowhere but in the Book of Mormon.

The Church of Christ was to be built upon the rock of God revealing His Son to the head of the Church; and inasmuch as the world have for ages denied continued revelation there must be a revelation of the Son in these latter-days. The Latter-day Saints and the blood of the martyred Prophet Joseph Smith are enduring estimonies that God has again revealed His Son and has opened up a new dispensation for the salvation of the human family. The gates of hell can never prevail against a testimony founded upon immediate revelation from God. This foundation was to be laid in a land abounding in the good things of the earth.

THE COMING FORTH

of the Book of Mormon found the people drunken, but not with wine; staggering, but not with strong drink. The words of the book were "delivered to one" (Prof. Anthon) "that is learned" and the book was delivered to and translated by the unlearned youth Joseph Smith. The stick of Ephraim has come forth in the Lord's own time and way and one with the Bible, the stick of Judah, to the confounding of false doctrine, and they that erred in spirit are learning doctrine.

The preparatory work—gathering of Israel, temple building, etc., necessary before Christ shall come, was taught by the Prophet Joseph Smith and the work is being consummated by his followers. The testament of the Book of Mormon was sealed by the death of the testator Joseph Smith.

Testimonies were borne to the above remarks. The Elders with an air of inspiration sang, "We thank Thee O God for a Prophet."

In the opening exercises of the

AFTERNOON MEETING,

a hymn composed by Wm. M. Palmer, while on a mission in Michigan in 1884, was sung with good effect.

The president of the conference gave a short report of baptisms, children blessed, deaths, families emigrated, persecuted, Elders in the field since last October; also was read the financial report of the Northwestern States Mission, comprising four conferences.

The general authorities of the Church were sustained as presented at the last General Conference held at Provo; also the officers of this mission and the traveling Elders.

A discourse on the subject of the gathering was then delivered in power and with convincing scriptural argument. The gathering Saints of nearly every land and clime are a standing testimony to those nations of the divinity of Joseph Smith's mission.

THE COUNCIL MEETINGS

held after the two days' services were a very interesting part of the exercises to the Elders and Saints present. The brethren gave a short account of their labors and treatment received since last conference. In a number of instances related, some of the brethren had barely escaped the violence of wicked and threatening mobs; others had been forced to sleep out of doors in the most inclement months of the year. But these things have in no wise hindered the spread of truth, for invariably the Elders with all prayerfulness and humility, moved forth with increased faith and courage.

The results of the labors of the fourteen Elders in this field since October are as follows: Forty-six baptisms; 18 children blessed; 912 meetings held; 4 families emigrated and a number of administrations to the sick with good results.

During the services the Sacrament was administered, and the Elders were allotted their field and traveling companions. The president occupied most of one day, giving instruction and counsel applicable to the brethren messengers of the everlasting Gospel.

ANGUS VANCE,
Clerk of Conference.

A Deadly Duel in the Dark.

A Lincoln, Neb., special of the 18th says: A terrible duel between a criminal and an officer of the law occurred about twelve miles from here. A Mrs. Clenam, whose husband was in jail here, applied for a divorce, and Constable Jacoby, of this city, was sent Saturday evening to notify her that the case would come up in the district court to-day. He had been at the house but a short time when it began to rain, and he concluded to wait. In the meantime Clenam, the husband, escaped from the jail, and at 9 o'clock in the evening reached his home. Seeing the constable's horses hitched, he cut them loose and started them for home. Then he began to stone the house, knocking out all the windows and severely injuring his wife and two children. Jacoby, drawing his revolver, went out into the darkness and emptied the weapon at the infuriated husband without effect. Then he grappled with him and a desperate struggle commenced, which lasted through the darkness and rain until three o'clock in the morning, and ended a mile from the house. Jacoby's skull is fractured and he will die. Clenam is a mass of bruises, but he will recover, while one of his children, whom he hit with a stone, will die.

Is hereby given that Sam Levy, manufacturer of fine Hand Made Cigars, can compete with the east or west. Having been established for the past fifteen years in this city, I call attention to the fact that my Cigars are made of a finer and purer quality of tobacco than any of my competitors', and dealers that want a good article should not fail to patronize Home Industry when it can be bought at home for the same price, and thereby you will give employment to men and boys, and the money remains here, instead of sending it away.

Dealers should try and build up their own city, and all I ask is a fair trial on any of my brands, such as "The Famous," "My Own," "Old Crow," "La Crema," "La Calidad," etc., etc., and then you will be convinced.
