Sunday School Review .- The snnual review of the Primary Class of the Seventeenth Ward Sabbath School, numbering adarly 200 children, will take place to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock. Parents and friends of the school are invited.

Information Wanted -- Mary Martiu or Postlethwaite, who is supposed to have salled from Liverpool on the Clara Wheeler, November, 1854, en route for Salt Lake, is requested to report her whereabouts to James Jack at President Taylor's office. By doing so she may hear of something to both her own and her relations' advantage.

. . * A Demonstration .- An immense crowd of friends, unable to gain admission to the court room this morn ing while the brethren were receiving their sentences, awaited their appearance in the street in front of the Wasatch Building, and on their emerging from the stairway greeted them with a hearty hand-shaking. So numerous was the concourse and so eager were all to show their respect and honor for their convicted brethren, that it was with difficulty that President Cannon made his way to a burgy near by-After getting into the vehicle and before being driven away, he arose and thanked his friends for the manifestation of their good feelings.

Teachers' Association. - The Teachers of Salt Lake County met today in the Fourtsenth Ward Assembly Rooms, and after the usual opening exercises, the Vice-President, C. F Wilcox, presented a few miscellaneous filled completely with the sand and matters to the teachers, which were followed by Prof. T. B. Lewis on Class. Discipline. The gentleman so ably treated upon the subject that when the that large streams from the hills flowed time allotted for asking questions arrived the teachers were satisfied.

On motion, the remainder of the programme, with the exception ditches. As none of these roads enter of the general discussion, was laid over for next meeting.

The discussion, being a subject of great importance to the teachers, was freely spoken upon. A criticism was offered by N. Bawden, and after singing the benedletion was pronounced by Mr. G. M. Mumford.

- -Honor to the Persecuted -An informal reception was tendered to President Angus M. Cannon and Elders A. Milton Musser and James C.
