The India Office publishes a dispatch, dated January 12th, from Lord Carnarvon, the acting Indian Secretary, in the absence of Lord Salisbury, to Lord Lytton, Governor-General of India. It requests that a weekly summary be henceforth sent by telegraph giving the main facts in regard to the famine. Lord Carnarvon, in summing up the information he has hitherto re-840,000 persons are already employ- tice of the suffering, my object in ed on the relief works in Madras writing this note will be attained, and 250,000 in Bombay. The government estimates that the show of famine in Bombay will gradually increase, reaching a maximum in April, when 1,00,000 persons will require relief. After which it will gradually decrease. In Madras the prospect is proportionately worse. The districts affected in Madras cover 80,000 square miles, and con tain a population of 18,000,000. In Bombay the famine-stricken territory covers 54,000 square miles, and has a population of 8,000,000, 5,000,-000 of which are in districts more immediately afflicted.
