GENERAL.

Mayor Ludington, of Milwaukee, publishes the following appeal for help: "MILWAUKEE, 14.—The calamities that have befallen our State and some of our neighboring States are truly appalling. Over 1,500 men, women and children have been burned to death in Wisconsin alone. Their business houses and farms to a large extent are entirely destroyed, the very soil having been burned, destroying all the autumn and root crops. They are utterly destitute and will require full support, at least until another season. Seven counties in our own State are thus in great part desolated, and whole regions of country in western Michigan are in the same condition, and these fires are still raging and destroying. Milwaukee is doing all she can do. By her close neighborhood to Chicago she was enabled to send large quantities of supplies into the devastated city during the progress of the fire, feeding her firemen and exhausted citizens. Vast numbers of Chicago sufferers are now filling our houses and buildings, and we are administering to their necessities. We have supplied hundreds of tons of provisions and clothing-stores and other needful articles to Chicago, to northern Wisconsin and Michigan; but the amount of suffering in our State is still beyond our power to assuage. We appeal to the public for aid, and will be the dispensers of supplies to the sufferers in Wisconsin and west Michigan, having made every necessary arrangement to accomplish these purposes with economy and effect. All contributions in clothing, bedding and other necessary supplies may be directed to Harrison Luddington, Mayor."

CHICAGO, 16.—The following resolutions were passed on Saturday night at full meetings of the banks, "Whereas the books and treasure of the national banks in this city, the safety of which was to some extent uncertain when the resolutions of the 12th instant were adopted, have been recovered intact, and whereas a careful examination of our assets since that time has convinced us not only of our entire solvency, but of our ability to carry on our business as usual without delay, therefore resolved that all the national banks of this city will open their doors, at the temporary offices now occupied by them for the transaction of business, on the 17th inst. at 10 o'clock a.m."

The rain of Sunday night, the systematic work commenced by the relief society, the rebuilding movements in the burned district, the orderly conduct of the more needy sufferers, the presence of the military, the discovery that the cylinders of the great pumping engines of the water works are uninjured and will be at work in a short time, and finally the resolutions of the banks to resume payments in full on Tuesday, have combined to put a much more cheerful aspect on affairs after the excitement, terror and loss of rest during the past week. There will perhaps be a temporary reaction, but it will bring renewed strength, and the disciplined forces of reconstruction will commence work in earnest. All the papers are being published but the Times; all on the west side. The Tribune is coming out with nearly as fine a sheet as ever, and quite as large. It is understood that the Western Union Telegraph Co. intend to pay the losses of all their married employees who lost their household goods and personal effects. The city is still under the charge of Gen. Sheridan, and is filled with visitors from all parts.

CHICAGO, 16.—There is wonderful activity in the south division of the burnt district. Thousands of men are at work clearing away the debris, recovering safes, and putting up temporary buildings. Laboring men can find plenty to do at liberal wages. The banks, yesterday unanimously resolved to open for business to-morrow, and to pay at once every dollar due to depositors with promptness. The Insurance companies settling their losses has inspired renewed confidence among business men. The reports of loss of life are greatly exaggerated. The number of dead bodies discovered falls short of one hundred. The paper-rulers of the city, almost to a man have been thrown out of employment by the fire, and nearly all rendered homeless and destitute; therefore an appeal to their craft throughout the country will be made for aid. Contributions will be faithfully distributed. They should be addressed C. H. Day, No. 256, Washington Street.

MADRID, 16.—A great republican meeting was held in this city to-day, at which resolutions were adopted declaring that the pardo would offer an untiring opposition to every form of government for Spain which was not republican. Several speakers addressed the meeting, some of them being very pronounced in their expressions against the present government; the most violent proclaimed their perfect sympathy with republicans everywhere, and with the international societies, and declared that the faith of the republicans of Spain was identical with the doctrine of liberty and equal rights, now rapidly spreading through all the countries of Europe.

WASHINGTON, 17.—The following dispatch was received to-day, dated Chicago:

"Hon. Geo. S. Boutwell.—The Chicago banks are sound and paying every dollar on demand. Good feeling prevails. [Signed]

H. R. HURLBURT,
Comptroller of Currency."

ALBANY, 17.—Governor Hoffman received this afternoon a sub-committee of the committee of seventy, who asked him to use his power as executive to arrest abuses and protect the State, and asked that military forces be placed in readiness to quell any riot that may arise. The Governor said he would do anything he could in the matter, and would certainly use the military in case of disturbance and do his whole duty as he might further find it.

It is estimated that three and a half millions, currency, was shipped to Chicago yesterday; and to-day the Express says there is great anxiety in financial and commercial circles to hear from the Chicago banks, and if the people of Chicago are inspired with confidence.

BOSTON, 17.—The schooner E. A. Horton was seized and taken to Guyesbone, N. S., for violation of the fishery law. She was cut out by unknown parties, supposed to be American seamen, on the night of Oct. 8th. Considerable excitement was caused yesterday by the announcement that an English man-of-war was cruising in the bay, awaiting the arrival of the Horton. Collector Babcock, of Gloucester, has been here in consultation with the President, and a revenue cutter was dispatched under sealed orders. It is said a frigate from the navy yard had been sent to Gloucester, and future developments are awaited with anxiety.

A special to the Traveller from Gloucester this morning, says collector Fitz Babcock has telegraphed for the revenue cutter Hugh McCullough, of Portland, which will reach this port to-day. The Mahoning has already come and gone outside. There are four vessels in these waters and any attempt to seize the Horton by the English vessel will meet a successful resistance. The Mahoning is said to have strict orders not to let the Horton be taken.

CHICAGO, 17.—The resumption of business by the city bankers to-day, both national and savings institutions, was regarded with great interest by business men and the citizens generally. Some apprehension was felt that there might be a run upon the banks by depositors, and the State savings institution had made preparations for such a state of affairs, by providing an extra number of tellers and having a force of policeman stationed at the entrance to prevent a rush. These precautions appeared rather ludicrous, when instead of a frenzied crowd eager to obtain funds, a solitary individual, usually a woman, would walk quietly up and ask for five to twenty dollars, while quite frequently instead of the payer teller's desk. At none of the various national banks was there anything like a run, but on the contrary in many instances more money was deposited than was drawn out. The 3rd national bank, for instance, paid out some $45,000 and received on deposit $72,000. The beneficial effects of the confidence thus exhibited in the banks by the people, cannot be over-estimated, and in spite of the miles of blackened and still smoking ruins lying spread out before them, the people to-night are feeling almost jubilant.

NEW HOTEL.—In visiting the store of Taylor & Cutler we were much surprised to see the improvement which has been made in the establishment. Quite an addition has been made to the length of the store, which the demands of business imperatively require. Besides the improvement in the store, Brother Taylor is fitting up a large number of offices and bedrooms, and is making his preparations for carrying on a hotel on the European plan. In the building adjoining the store, which the firm formerly occupied for hardware, arrangements are being made for an office and sitting-room, and he is fitting up a very complete dining-room. When his arrangements are completed it will be a very convenient stopping place for business men and travelers. It is his intention to furnish those who patronize him with meals varying in price from twenty-five cents to five dollars, according to the extent of their orders. A person taking a room at the house will be at liberty to eat at his table or not as they choose. They will pay for what they get only. This plan has answered admirably in other cities, and no doubt it will be very popular here.

Aaron Johnson Arrested—The Court.

PROVO, Oct. 18.—About half past three o'clock, this afternoon, Marshals Patrick and Paul arrested Bishop Aaron Johnson, at his residence, in Springville, without resistance. He is now in Provo, in charge of the city Marshal, H. C. Rodgers, for safe keeping, until to-morrow morning. THE CLIFTON STUD.—We have received from R. W. Cameron, Esq., of 23, South William Street, New York, catalogues and pedigree of his Clifton stud of thoroughbreds, which will be sold to the highest bidder at the Clifton Stud Farm, Staten Island, New York, Nov. 1. The stud consists of "three imported stallions, seven imported mares, and seven native thorough-bred mares, all stunted to Warminster, Hampton Court, Eclipse, and Leamington; six two-year old colts and fillies by Leamington, and one imported colt by Blair Athol [said to be the finest horse in England]; five yearlings by Leamington, and seven weanlings by Warminster and Hampton Court."

The sale will also include Mr. Cameron's choice herd of Alderneys and a small flock of imported Cotswold sheep.

An old friend of ours, well acquainted with Mr. Cameron, speaks in high terms of him, and informs us that many of the horses in the catalogue are very superior animals, of the best English blood, and that Mr. Cameron thinks that a few of them would much improve the blood of the horses in this Territory.

The catalogues are at the service of any of our influential citizens, who are interested in stock raising.

HORSE STEALING.—We are informed that a large band of horses was stolen and driven off from the west mountains a few days since. It will be well for owners of stock on the range to look well to their property, for roughs are undoubtedly increasing.
