

Utah Central Railroad.

NEW TIME CARD, MAR. 22, 1885.

PASSENGER TRAINS LEAVE SALT LAKE DAILY, AS FOLLOWS:
Going North.	8:00 a.m.	Going South.
Atlantic Express.	8:00 a.m.	Midford Express.
7:20 a.m.
PASSENGER TRAINS ARRIVE IN SALT LAKE, DAILY, AS FOLLOWS:
From North.	7:51 p.m.	From South.
Pacific Express.	7:51 p.m.	Midford Express.
6:40 p.m.

JOHN SHARP, General Superintendent.

THE 'HOUSEHOLD' SEWING MACHINE, MANUFACTURED BY THE Household Sewing Machine Co., Providence, R.I.

BURTON, GARDNER & CO., Agents, OPPOSITE Z. C. M. I.

DAVID JAMES & CO., Plumbers, Tanners, Gas and Steam FITTERS.

ARE PREPARED TO DO Plumbing, Gas Fitting and Steam Heating Tinning, Roofing, Guttering, Etc., IN ALL ITS BRANCHES ON SHORT NOTICE. City Water Pipes and Fixtures put in on Reasonable Terms. Call and Examine our Stock of Plumbing Supplies, Gas Fixtures, Water Filters, Etc. 67 MAIN STREET.

LUMBER YARD

AND PLANING MILL,

HALF-A-BLOCK EAST OF DEPOT.

- LUMBER. DOGS.
- LATH. SASH.
- SHINGLES. MOULDINGS.
- CEILING. FRAMES.
- FLOORING. PICKETS.
- HARDWARE. RUSTIC.
- SASH WEIGHTS, GLASS, ETC.

ALL BILLS PROMPTLY FILLED

BUILDERS.

Contractors, and Manufacturers.

TAYLOR, ROMNEY & ARMSTRONG,

Late Tailor, Taylor & Co.,

P. O. BOX 62.

WIRIS SOAP FOR THE LAUNDRY FOR THE TOILET ESSENCES FOR THE HANDKERCHIEF COLOGNES AND TOILET WATER JAS. S. KIRK & COMPANY CHICAGO.

Dr. FOOTE, Senior,

Of 120 Lexington Avenue, New York.

Hereby cautions the public NOT to employ or communicate with a man styling himself "Dr. Foot, Jr." without making due inquiry.

This man came to Salt Lake City representing himself as the son of Dr. Z. B. Foote of New York, the well known specialist, an abundance proved by affidavits. As rumors came into Salt Lake City from Dakota and Montana from an expose made there, he changed his name and represented himself as the son of a more noted specialist in New York City than Dr. Z. B. Foote, the well known author, Mr. J. R. Trow, of the well known "New York Tribune," in New York City (forty years in the directory business), Dr. J. R. Trow, of the "New York Tribune," and the Hon. ABRAHAM WALKERMAN, for many years Postmaster in New York City, also Surgeon of the Port, gave their affidavits that there are no other doctors in New York by the name of Dr. Z. B. Foote, excepting Dr. Z. B. Foote, the author of "Medical Common Sense," etc., and the two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. HENRY T. FOOTE. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will hereafter always employ the initials E. B. in designating his name. Hereafter he has been known not only at home but wherever his publications have been circulated by the name of Dr. FOOTE, Jr. Greater care will be taken hereafter in view of the fact that an unprincipled person has assumed to profit by his and his father's reputation. Those desiring further and more detailed information in regard to this matter, will receive it by addressing Box 214, Salt Lake City, Utah. Those desiring information of advantage to plaintiffs will kindly communicate the same to J. W. Jew, with Sutherland & Mc Bride, Salt Lake City. Those desiring to consult Dr. Foote professionally or to order remedies should address either Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Sr., or Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Jr., 122 Lexington Ave., New York.

the women shall be equally with the men for this of

So that the accessories to the polygamous marriage shall be equally punishable with the principals.

"So that adultery, seduction, lewd and lascivious conversation, and kindred offenses may be punishable, as in the States and other Territories of the Union."

"Now may we ask that you will help us, by seeing that these facts and considerations are brought at once to the attention of the Members of Congress from the various districts in which you live, to the end that they may be interested in securing for us, at the approaching session of Congress, such legislation as will once and forever put a stop to the further spread of polygamy."

Yours in behalf of Christian homes and American institutions, Done in Salt Lake City, November, 1881.

Now be it known these are not all the words of the petition of these great lovers of Christianity, after the improved plan of the Scriptures and the Pharisees, but they show unto you enough, yea that you may see they are the best and truest words, and the angel said unto me, behold the foundation of a church, which is the most abominable above all other churches, which slayeth the Saints of God, yea, and tortureth them and blindeth them down, and yoke them with a yoke of iron and bringeth them down into captivity."

And it came to pass that I beheld this great and abominable church; and I saw the devil, that he was the foundation of it, and I also saw gold, and silver, and silks, and scarlets, and fine twined linen, and all manner of precious clothing, and I saw many harlots."

Therefore the device of these ministers of the great and abominable church, which is the whore of all the earth, were the law-makers that were made, and gazed, and rode until their child was born, which was the Edmunds law.

And what the law lacked in its meaning and intent to make up for the full power asked for by the priests men, behold in the administrations of the law, are not all these points granted by the judges?

Yea, they not rule in accordance with the spirit and intent thereof, even so much so that they make provisions to suit themselves?

Yea, are not the judges the willing tools of the ministers and those who hate the people to stir them up to wage a war of extermination against the Saints?

Yea, are they not willing, and do they not manifest works, by their words, that they will go to extreme lengths in order to carry out their purposes?

And do they not do all these things under a cloak of religion? How do men feel when they hear Satan attempting to rebuke him?

But know ye not that these ministers, judges and law-makers, and the whole host of the crusaders, sing psalms, and wave their hands in holy ecstasy, and expect to float away beyond the bounds of time and space on wondrous beds of ease?

And with all this, do they not prate and rant and rejoice when they see one, who once professed to be a Saint, recant and come under the law and take the "gag promise" of the judges?

Though Congress said, "A man shall be legitimized, yet has not Zane said they were bastards? Are these things so?"

Thank you, they who have made promises to the judges feel happy in saying to the world, we have become fathers of bastards? Have they not done so in their crawling on their bellies before the judges? Is it not painful to contemplate that men are not men?

Will not the heathen rise up in judgment and condemn them? Poor is a poor word to use, in connection with their names, and not only theirs but all the who do likewise!

Therefore, how on ye wolves! what your fangs sharp! Rule on ye judges! Let your spleen be vented! Ye, and all the who bow to your mandates, shall verily have your reward!

"Your plural wives are concubines, and your children are bastards," so says the learned, but with all this saying thus make it so? Ye should know, Did not the Pharisees of old say that "Jesus cast out devils by the power of the devil?" Did they not malign and bring all manner of false accusations against him? And are ye not to have your names cast out, and the name of His was? The servant is not greater than the master; and blessed are ye when ye suffer for righteousness' sake; but cursed be ye when ye prove yourselves servants of sin, and bow down and worship Lucifer!

the women shall be equally with the men for this of

So that the accessories to the polygamous marriage shall be equally punishable with the principals.

"So that adultery, seduction, lewd and lascivious conversation, and kindred offenses may be punishable, as in the States and other Territories of the Union."

"Now may we ask that you will help us, by seeing that these facts and considerations are brought at once to the attention of the Members of Congress from the various districts in which you live, to the end that they may be interested in securing for us, at the approaching session of Congress, such legislation as will once and forever put a stop to the further spread of polygamy."

Yours in behalf of Christian homes and American institutions, Done in Salt Lake City, November, 1881.

Now be it known these are not all the words of the petition of these great lovers of Christianity, after the improved plan of the Scriptures and the Pharisees, but they show unto you enough, yea that you may see they are the best and truest words, and the angel said unto me, behold the foundation of a church, which is the most abominable above all other churches, which slayeth the Saints of God, yea, and tortureth them and blindeth them down, and yoke them with a yoke of iron and bringeth them down into captivity."

And it came to pass that I beheld this great and abominable church; and I saw the devil, that he was the foundation of it, and I also saw gold, and silver, and silks, and scarlets, and fine twined linen, and all manner of precious clothing, and I saw many harlots."

Therefore the device of these ministers of the great and abominable church, which is the whore of all the earth, were the law-makers that were made, and gazed, and rode until their child was born, which was the Edmunds law.

And what the law lacked in its meaning and intent to make up for the full power asked for by the priests men, behold in the administrations of the law, are not all these points granted by the judges?

Yea, they not rule in accordance with the spirit and intent thereof, even so much so that they make provisions to suit themselves?

Yea, are not the judges the willing tools of the ministers and those who hate the people to stir them up to wage a war of extermination against the Saints?

Yea, are they not willing, and do they not manifest works, by their words, that they will go to extreme lengths in order to carry out their purposes?

And do they not do all these things under a cloak of religion? How do men feel when they hear Satan attempting to rebuke him?

But know ye not that these ministers, judges and law-makers, and the whole host of the crusaders, sing psalms, and wave their hands in holy ecstasy, and expect to float away beyond the bounds of time and space on wondrous beds of ease?

And with all this, do they not prate and rant and rejoice when they see one, who once professed to be a Saint, recant and come under the law and take the "gag promise" of the judges?

Though Congress said, "A man shall be legitimized, yet has not Zane said they were bastards? Are these things so?"

Thank you, they who have made promises to the judges feel happy in saying to the world, we have become fathers of bastards? Have they not done so in their crawling on their bellies before the judges? Is it not painful to contemplate that men are not men?

Will not the heathen rise up in judgment and condemn them? Poor is a poor word to use, in connection with their names, and not only theirs but all the who do likewise!

Therefore, how on ye wolves! what your fangs sharp! Rule on ye judges! Let your spleen be vented! Ye, and all the who bow to your mandates, shall verily have your reward!

"Your plural wives are concubines, and your children are bastards," so says the learned, but with all this saying thus make it so? Ye should know, Did not the Pharisees of old say that "Jesus cast out devils by the power of the devil?" Did they not malign and bring all manner of false accusations against him? And are ye not to have your names cast out, and the name of His was? The servant is not greater than the master; and blessed are ye when ye suffer for righteousness' sake; but cursed be ye when ye prove yourselves servants of sin, and bow down and worship Lucifer!

the women shall be equally with the men for this of

So that the accessories to the polygamous marriage shall be equally punishable with the principals.

"So that adultery, seduction, lewd and lascivious conversation, and kindred offenses may be punishable, as in the States and other Territories of the Union."

"Now may we ask that you will help us, by seeing that these facts and considerations are brought at once to the attention of the Members of Congress from the various districts in which you live, to the end that they may be interested in securing for us, at the approaching session of Congress, such legislation as will once and forever put a stop to the further spread of polygamy."

Yours in behalf of Christian homes and American institutions, Done in Salt Lake City, November, 1881.

Now be it known these are not all the words of the petition of these great lovers of Christianity, after the improved plan of the Scriptures and the Pharisees, but they show unto you enough, yea that you may see they are the best and truest words, and the angel said unto me, behold the foundation of a church, which is the most abominable above all other churches, which slayeth the Saints of God, yea, and tortureth them and blindeth them down, and yoke them with a yoke of iron and bringeth them down into captivity."

And it came to pass that I beheld this great and abominable church; and I saw the devil, that he was the foundation of it, and I also saw gold, and silver, and silks, and scarlets, and fine twined linen, and all manner of precious clothing, and I saw many harlots."

Therefore the device of these ministers of the great and abominable church, which is the whore of all the earth, were the law-makers that were made, and gazed, and rode until their child was born, which was the Edmunds law.

And what the law lacked in its meaning and intent to make up for the full power asked for by the priests men, behold in the administrations of the law, are not all these points granted by the judges?

Yea, they not rule in accordance with the spirit and intent thereof, even so much so that they make provisions to suit themselves?

Yea, are not the judges the willing tools of the ministers and those who hate the people to stir them up to wage a war of extermination against the Saints?

Yea, are they not willing, and do they not manifest works, by their words, that they will go to extreme lengths in order to carry out their purposes?

And do they not do all these things under a cloak of religion? How do men feel when they hear Satan attempting to rebuke him?

But know ye not that these ministers, judges and law-makers, and the whole host of the crusaders, sing psalms, and wave their hands in holy ecstasy, and expect to float away beyond the bounds of time and space on wondrous beds of ease?

And with all this, do they not prate and rant and rejoice when they see one, who once professed to be a Saint, recant and come under the law and take the "gag promise" of the judges?

Though Congress said, "A man shall be legitimized, yet has not Zane said they were bastards? Are these things so?"

Thank you, they who have made promises to the judges feel happy in saying to the world, we have become fathers of bastards? Have they not done so in their crawling on their bellies before the judges? Is it not painful to contemplate that men are not men?

Will not the heathen rise up in judgment and condemn them? Poor is a poor word to use, in connection with their names, and not only theirs but all the who do likewise!

Therefore, how on ye wolves! what your fangs sharp! Rule on ye judges! Let your spleen be vented! Ye, and all the who bow to your mandates, shall verily have your reward!

"Your plural wives are concubines, and your children are bastards," so says the learned, but with all this saying thus make it so? Ye should know, Did not the Pharisees of old say that "Jesus cast out devils by the power of the devil?" Did they not malign and bring all manner of false accusations against him? And are ye not to have your names cast out, and the name of His was? The servant is not greater than the master; and blessed are ye when ye suffer for righteousness' sake; but cursed be ye when ye prove yourselves servants of sin, and bow down and worship Lucifer!

the women shall be equally with the men for this of

So that the accessories to the polygamous marriage shall be equally punishable with the principals.

"So that adultery, seduction, lewd and lascivious conversation, and kindred offenses may be punishable, as in the States and other Territories of the Union."

"Now may we ask that you will help us, by seeing that these facts and considerations are brought at once to the attention of the Members of Congress from the various districts in which you live, to the end that they may be interested in securing for us, at the approaching session of Congress, such legislation as will once and forever put a stop to the further spread of polygamy."

Yours in behalf of Christian homes and American institutions, Done in Salt Lake City, November, 1881.

Now be it known these are not all the words of the petition of these great lovers of Christianity, after the improved plan of the Scriptures and the Pharisees, but they show unto you enough, yea that you may see they are the best and truest words, and the angel said unto me, behold the foundation of a church, which is the most abominable above all other churches, which slayeth the Saints of God, yea, and tortureth them and blindeth them down, and yoke them with a yoke of iron and bringeth them down into captivity."

And it came to pass that I beheld this great and abominable church; and I saw the devil, that he was the foundation of it, and I also saw gold, and silver, and silks, and scarlets, and fine twined linen, and all manner of precious clothing, and I saw many harlots."

Therefore the device of these ministers of the great and abominable church, which is the whore of all the earth, were the law-makers that were made, and gazed, and rode until their child was born, which was the Edmunds law.

And what the law lacked in its meaning and intent to make up for the full power asked for by the priests men, behold in the administrations of the law, are not all these points granted by the judges?

Yea, they not rule in accordance with the spirit and intent thereof, even so much so that they make provisions to suit themselves?

Yea, are not the judges the willing tools of the ministers and those who hate the people to stir them up to wage a war of extermination against the Saints?

Yea, are they not willing, and do they not manifest works, by their words, that they will go to extreme lengths in order to carry out their purposes?

And do they not do all these things under a cloak of religion? How do men feel when they hear Satan attempting to rebuke him?

But know ye not that these ministers, judges and law-makers, and the whole host of the crusaders, sing psalms, and wave their hands in holy ecstasy, and expect to float away beyond the bounds of time and space on wondrous beds of ease?

And with all this, do they not prate and rant and rejoice when they see one, who once professed to be a Saint, recant and come under the law and take the "gag promise" of the judges?

Though Congress said, "A man shall be legitimized, yet has not Zane said they were bastards? Are these things so?"

Thank you, they who have made promises to the judges feel happy in saying to the world, we have become fathers of bastards? Have they not done so in their crawling on their bellies before the judges? Is it not painful to contemplate that men are not men?

Will not the heathen rise up in judgment and condemn them? Poor is a poor word to use, in connection with their names, and not only theirs but all the who do likewise!

Therefore, how on ye wolves! what your fangs sharp! Rule on ye judges! Let your spleen be vented! Ye, and all the who bow to your mandates, shall verily have your reward!

"Your plural wives are concubines, and your children are bastards," so says the learned, but with all this saying thus make it so? Ye should know, Did not the Pharisees of old say that "Jesus cast out devils by the power of the devil?" Did they not malign and bring all manner of false accusations against him? And are ye not to have your names cast out, and the name of His was? The servant is not greater than the master; and blessed are ye when ye suffer for righteousness' sake; but cursed be ye when ye prove yourselves servants of sin, and bow down and worship Lucifer!

the women shall be equally with the men for this of

So that the accessories to the polygamous marriage shall be equally punishable with the principals.

"So that adultery, seduction, lewd and lascivious conversation, and kindred offenses may be punishable, as in the States and other Territories of the Union."

"Now may we ask that you will help us, by seeing that these facts and considerations are brought at once to the attention of the Members of Congress from the various districts in which you live, to the end that they may be interested in securing for us, at the approaching session of Congress, such legislation as will once and forever put a stop to the further spread of polygamy."

Yours in behalf of Christian homes and American institutions, Done in Salt Lake City, November, 1881.

Now be it known these are not all the words of the petition of these great lovers of Christianity, after the improved plan of the Scriptures and the Pharisees, but they show unto you enough, yea that you may see they are the best and truest words, and the angel said unto me, behold the foundation of a church, which is the most abominable above all other churches, which slayeth the Saints of God, yea, and tortureth them and blindeth them down, and yoke them with a yoke of iron and bringeth them down into captivity."

And it came to pass that I beheld this great and abominable church; and I saw the devil, that he was the foundation of it, and I also saw gold, and silver, and silks, and scarlets, and fine twined linen, and all manner of precious clothing, and I saw many harlots."

Therefore the device of these ministers of the great and abominable church, which is the whore of all the earth, were the law-makers that were made, and gazed, and rode until their child was born, which was the Edmunds law.

And what the law lacked in its meaning and intent to make up for the full power asked for by the priests men, behold in the administrations of the law, are not all these points granted by the judges?

Yea, they not rule in accordance with the spirit and intent thereof, even so much so that they make provisions to suit themselves?

Yea, are not the judges the willing tools of the ministers and those who hate the people to stir them up to wage a war of extermination against the Saints?

Yea, are they not willing, and do they not manifest works, by their words, that they will go to extreme lengths in order to carry out their purposes?

And do they not do all these things under a cloak of religion? How do men feel when they hear Satan attempting to rebuke him?

But know ye not that these ministers, judges and law-makers, and the whole host of the crusaders, sing psalms, and wave their hands in holy ecstasy, and expect to float away beyond the bounds of time and space on wondrous beds of ease?

And with all this, do they not prate and rant and rejoice when they see one, who once professed to be a Saint, recant and come under the law and take the "gag promise" of the judges?

Though Congress said, "A man shall be legitimized, yet has not Zane said they were bastards? Are these things so?"

Thank you, they who have made promises to the judges feel happy in saying to the world, we have become fathers of bastards? Have they not done so in their crawling on their bellies before the judges? Is it not painful to contemplate that men are not men?

Will not the heathen rise up in judgment and condemn them? Poor is a poor word to use, in connection with their names, and not only theirs but all the who do likewise!

Therefore, how on ye wolves! what your fangs sharp! Rule on ye judges! Let your spleen be vented! Ye, and all the who bow to your mandates, shall verily have your reward!

"Your plural wives are concubines, and your children are bastards," so says the learned, but with all this saying thus make it so? Ye should know, Did not the Pharisees of old say that "Jesus cast out devils by the power of the devil?" Did they not malign and bring all manner of false accusations against him? And are ye not to have your names cast out, and the name of His was? The servant is not greater than the master; and blessed are ye when ye suffer for righteousness' sake; but cursed be ye when ye prove yourselves servants of sin, and bow down and worship Lucifer!