THE EVENING NEWS.

Friday, - - - August 16, 1872.

PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected Daily by BANK OF DESERET.
Buying at $1.12½; selling at $1.15.
SALT LAKE CITY, August 17, 1872.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 86° in the shade at one o'clock to-day.

MEETINGS IN THE TABERNACLE to-morrow at ten and two o'clock, and in the meeting houses in the various wards in the evening.

PLANTAMOUR'S comet glowed in the sky last evening — that is, it was either the comet or one of the boys' illuminated kites.

GOOD THINGS.—Iron bedsteads, parallel bench vises, iron fence pickets, and galvanized pails. Who sells them?

THE WATERMELON business is something about this time.

TWO DAYS' MEETINGS were to commence at Logan this morning. Presidents B. Young and Geo. A. Smith and other prominent citizens were expected to be present. The weather is charming, and there is no doubt that a pleasant and instructive time will be enjoyed.

IMPROVING. — Good, substantial and somewhat pretentious adobe buildings are arising in the walled inclosure, immediately east of the Eagle gate. This is one of the best building sites within the municipal limits, and the erection of sightly dwellings there will add much to the appearance of that quarter of the city.

PROHIBITION.—It was arranged that Judge McKean should hear the case of Pat Lannan, in application for a writ of prohibition to enjoin the City from further proceedings against him. The Judge did not grant the writ, and we understand the matter was left in statu quo, there being nothing of a decisive nature, so far as the proceedings of yesterday were concerned.

A NOTION passing around and acceptable about this time—"Wet a sheet, and suspend it in a room. Let the ventilation be good and the temperature will sink from ten to twenty degrees in less than an hour." A delightful experiment one of these roasting days when the mercury rushes up into the nineties, and what is more, a moist atmosphere will be secured, which is a most desirable thing on those days when the air is so wretchedly parching that the flesh seems to be drying up on one's bones.

ACQUITTED.—In the case of Oliver C. Obey, on trial for the murder of Charles L. Dolson, the jury of the Probate Court returned a verdict, yesterday afternoon, of not guilty. We may state that the nature of the verdict created no surprise, as we believe it was generally anticipated by the public. When the result of the jury's deliberations was announced in court, the prisoner and his wife embraced each other, and the former received the congratulations of his friends who were present. Both sides of the case were ably conducted, Judge Snow being prosecutor, and Judge Morgan and Col. Jocelyn acting for the defense.

ANOTHER INDIAN OUTRAGE.—The following, which tells of another blood thirsty outrage by Indians, at Mount Pleasant, Sanpete, was received by Deseret Telegraph, this morning, from Nephi:

Jerry Page, operator at Mount Pleasant, San Pete, was badly wounded last night, by an Indian, as he was leaving the office, going home. Just as he was opening the gate, an Indian sprang on him, giving him several cuts on the head. One gash went through his skull. It is thought he will not recover. We get these particulars from his pupils.

THE CALIFORNIA CIRCUS.—On Monday evening, for the benefit of Mr. John Wilson, the California Circus will present the noted equestrian drama of "Turpin's Ride to York."

COMING HOME — By courtesy of President B. Young we are enabled to publish the following dispatch:

New York, Aug. 16.

Brigham Young:

Seymour B. Young, W. J. Silver, Mrs. Riter and myself leave to-night.

W. C. STAINES.

THEATRE.—Mr. Chaplin and Miss Walters sustained their reputation for ability and effectiveness in their respective roles in "Lady Thornhurst's Daughter," although the former had not a great deal to do. Mr. Thorne also played with great care and fidelity, making a capital villain. The two Miss Clawsons deserve commendation, as also do Mrs. Bowring and Miss Jones. Mr. L. Paul improves.

This evening, being the last appearance but one of Mr. Chaplin, there is a bill presented which can not fail to be popular—"Buffalo Bill" and "Po-ca-hon-tas," Mr. Chaplin and Miss Walters in both plays, and in well known favorite characters. Messrs. Margetts, Graham, Thorne, Marden, Thompson, and Harris also appear, and a fine performance is insured.

TELEGRAMS at the Deseret Telegraph office for P. L. Dowling, W. Robinson and Geo. Walker.

ELECTION RETURNS.

ST. GEORGE, Aug. 15.—Complete precinct returns of Washington County have just been received. Geo. Q. Cannon received 720 votes for Delegate to Congress; Maxwell, none. Commissioners to Locate University Lands, Van Cott, Hills, and Rowberry, 720 each. Representative for Washington and Kane Counties, Jos. W. Young, 720. All the county officers were elected without opposition.

ALDEN A. M. JACKSON, County Clerk.

[Per Deseret Telegraph.]

President Young and Party.

LOGAN, Aug. 17.—President Young and company left your city at 5 a.m. yesterday, and reached Hampton Station at 10-45 a.m. whence to this place we came in carriages furnished by the brethren of Cache settlements. We arrived here at 1-45 p.m., somewhat demoralized by excessive dust. To-day the fine large bowery was nearly filled with people from all parts of the county. Elders Geo. Q. Cannon, and F. D. Richards and President Geo. A. Smith addressed the congregation this a. m. a splendid feeling seemed to exist.

Crops were never before more promising.

The red men are here in considerable numbers, all peaceably disposed.

The people everywhere are pleased to see the Presidency and the Twelve. Yesterday a grand procession, of nearly all ages, was out, with music, flags, banners and flowers, to greet the visitors and bid them welcome.

MORE ABOUT THE INDIANS.—General D. H. Wells has courteously handed us the following dispatches:

MT. PLEASANT, Aug. 17th.

Gov. Geo. L. Woods,

Care of D. H. Wells:

Indian depredations here last night. Shall I call out the militia to defend the place, and for services generally in this county? The Indians attacked the telegraph operator about 11 o'clock last night, in front of the office and, we fear, fatally wounded him.

JOHN L. IVIE, Colonel of Militia.

MT. PLEASANT, Aug. 17th.

Gen. D. H. Wells:

As the telegraph operator, Jeremiah D. Page, was leaving the office last night, about eleven o'clock, and when near the gate, by the office, an Indian pounced upon his back and struck him three blows, with a tomahawk, upon the head, inflicting severe wounds, one penetrating through the skull. He was in a critical condition all night, but seems a little better this morning. There were five Indians seen in town about the same time that the attack was made upon Mr. Page. Col. Ivie detailed a scouting party from the home guard, this morning, and they are scouting the base of the east mountains. One scout reports no sign of Indians in that direction.

J. S. WING.

Gen. Wells had an interview yesterday with Gen. Ord and Governor Woods in relation to Indian affairs, at which the former proffered all the men and supplies necessary in any emergency. Gen. Ord and the Governor thought, however, that there were sufficient troops available without making it necessary to call on citizens who were not in the immediate employ of the government.

A body of troops left this morning for Sanpete, and efforts were being made, which we presume were successful, to obtain transportation for them from the end of the Utah Southern track to the scene of their future operations. Gen. Morrow will accompany the troops in person, and will take an active part in endeavoring to bring about a pacific solution of the grave difficulty, and thus, if possible, avert the dreaded calamity of an Indian war.

We understand an invitation will be given to friendly Indians to use their influence with all the red men, especially with the leading ones, to join in a friendly talk, and an offer will be made to them to the effect that if they feel so disposed a deputation of chiefs can be organized to go to Washington, with a view to visiting the chief authorities of the nation for the purpose of laying their grievances before the latter, if they have any, that they may have the same adjusted.

General Ord and the Governor informed General Wells yesterday that they desired it to be understood by the people that themselves and their property would be amply protected. They also stated that should it be found necessary to call on the people to assist the regular military, Gen. Wells would be notified to that effect.

SOLDIERS STEALING.—For several weeks past numbers of citizens in the Eleventh Ward have had reason to complain of the foot-bridges being torn up, gates being lifted off their hinges and strewn around on the streets in that locality. It was known that those senseless depredations were committed by drunken soldiers on their way to Camp Douglass, and, last night, three or four citizens stood watch for the purpose of capturing some of the guilty parties, as the annoyances were of almost nightly repetition. At about one o'clock this a.m. the parties on watch discovered seven soldiers on their way to Camp Douglas, most of whom were carrying a load of something on their backs. Suspecting that the soldiers had been stealing the citizens gave chase, when each soldier who was packing a load dropped it and the whole party broke and ran at full speed. The soldiers had about five rods the start of the citizens, and the former made such good time that the latter were unable to catch them. An examination of the articles dropped by the soldiers disclosed eleven head of fine cabbage, a haversack full of apples and another filled with green corn, a canteen of whisky and a straw hat. The cabbages were claimed this morning by the man from whose lot they had been stolen.

Some of the parties subjected to such annoyances from the soldiers desire us to respectfully draw the attention of the officers at Camp to the matter, in hopes that they may take some measures to prevent their men from committing such acts in the future.

FINE PROPERTY.—The Music Hall, generally known as Ballo's Hall, in the 14th Ward, built and owned by the members of Ballo's now Croxall's Band, is for sale. This is a valuable property and should sell readily at a good price.

ANOTHER L. C. CASE — D. R. Firman was before Justice Clinton to-day. The charge against him was L. C. He was fined $100, but gave notice of an appeal

NOT SO. — A statement has been floating around to the effect that General McLellan had arrived in town. This is incorrect. We believe the gallant gentleman is expected to-night.

DIED.

In this city, August 17th, of teething, MARY ENANDA, daughter of John and Eliza Sholdebrand, aged 1 year and 14 days.

Burial to take place to-morrow, Sunday, Aug. 18th, at 12 a. m. Friends are invited to attend.
