DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Deseret July 15, 1895.

AT THE TABERNACLE.

Elder Abraham H. Coston Addresses the Congregation.

A Large Number of Visitors, Including Many Friends in the Educational Field, present.

Services were held in the Tabernacle Sunday, July 14th, 1895, at 2 p.m. Elder Angus M. Cannon, president of the Tabernacle, presided. The building was filled to its usual capacity, there being present a large number of visitors from the late educational conference held in Denver.

The choir sang the anthem.

Let us thank our Lord for His Prayer by Elder John G. Oxford.

The choir sang the hymn.

On my Father, Thou dost teach me to thank thee for thy grace.

Elder Austin H. Cannon addressed the congregation. He said the services of both tabernacles had been organized for the association of the men and women of talent who are in our midst from other parts of this country.

Communication with the people over has been a clear subject, and one which has received the attention of the Tabernacle.

Almost the first building erected in every settlement of the people has been the school, and there always has been a desire upon the part of the Mormon people to give their children every opportunity for intellectual advancement. They have no school in any part of the earth in everything that pertains to the welfare and comfort and blessing of the human family. They believe that they will be called to govern the affairs of men, who are to stand among them, and to bring high-minded and greatest invention and development that the world has ever seen.

The testimony which the Tabernacle holds in is not entirely that of the Tabernacle, but the Tabernacle is in contact with the moral training and physical and moral and spiritual education which are in progress to the complete development of man.

It is well to develop the mental and physical, the physical for enjoyment, and where this is the sole aim of education nothing should be taught more individual.

The saints believe there is something more important than the physical development of man and his material existence, and that is the spiritual development of man and his spiritual existence.

The child was picked up in a comfortable position and removed to Dr. Miller's drug store where she received medical attention and where she was given a small dose of opium.

The child was injured to the extent that partial paralysis of the lower limb resulted. Hope, however, for her complete recovery are entertained.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

In this subject which their should do which would entitle to receive from me, I am sorry to say, is not in the examination of teachers in the training and keeping at the residential school, the main standard to be held to their personal character and worth. This standard is in their moral qualities. The moral influence of a teacher can scarcely be overcome in the after life of a child, and the influence of a good teacher will be felt throughout the whole life of the student. The speaker knows of teachers who have been confined in working out moral standards, but these have been more successful than those who have given more attention to the physical education and care over the children than of a character in less than upward and onward. The people should teach their children correct principles, and then let them go out to find them to follow, but let them not be compelled to follow them.
