EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, - - March 1, 1881.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

City Council meets to-night.

The grand ball by the Knights of Pythias, last evening, was a big success.

The comedy of "Our Boarding House" underwent another rehearsal last evening.

The 18th Ward entertainment, to be given in the Social Hall, is still preparing.

The poetical entertainment given by Brother William Clegg in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms last evening was very interesting. Other Wards would do well to secure Bro. Clegg for an entertainment.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Fine Horses.—Two Normandy stallions imported direct from France, and aged respectively 7 and 9 years, have been bought by a number of our enterprising stock raisers. They cost $3,600 in Ogden and were purchased of the importer who passed through to California, other day.

Surprise Party.—David Booth, of Brigham City, sends us an account of a birthday surprise party given on the 22d ult., to Brother Owen P. Jones, mail carrier of that place. It occurred at the residence of Brother M. D. Rosenbaum, and was a most happy affair. Brother Jones is blind, but is nevertheless a faithful and efficient mail carrier, and he much appreciated the kindness bestowed upon him by his generous-souled friends, as a testimonial of their esteem and confidence.

The Knights of Pythias Ball.—One of the finest events of the season, of a terpsichorean character was the grand ball by the Uniform Rank of the Knights of Pythias, which took place at the Continental Hotel, last evening. The attendance was very large and the affair was a finished and enjoyable success, from beginning to end. The Knights in uniform looked splendid, the ladies looked lovely, the music was beautiful, and the supper first-class. The Knights have good reason to be proud of their ball.

"Runs in the Family." — The Leader has the following to say of the well-known Logan firm of J. H. Brown & Son, stone and marble workers. Speaking of the senior partner the paper says:

"For hundreds of years his ancestors were workers in stone and marble, and he himself has turned out some very fine specimens of that kind of work in Logan. His son Harry is now in Boston studying under the sculptor Bartlett, who compliments him highly on his talent, and only recently another son, Willie, aged only 16 years, has executed two fine pieces of work on grave stones. One is a cross, over which lies a palm branch. This is the boy's very first attempt with the mallet and chisel, and proves beyond a doubt that he has the true genius of the sculptor. It is a beautiful piece of work. The other is a rose sprig on which is a full blown rose, leaves, and a rose bud, the stem of which is broken, allowing it to droop, beautifully typical and appropriate for the grave of a child."

In Preparation.—The dramatic and operatic entertainment, for the benefit of the 18th Ward Sunday school, which has been in preparation for several weeks, will be produced at the Social Hall on or about the 10th inst. Although for the benefit of the Sunday school, it is by no means a children's entertainment. The first part, "My Wife's Bonnet," is a farcical sketch, in which Messrs. H. M. Wells, O. F. Whitney, L. Cummings, and Miss Lottie Claridge, of the Home Dramatic Club; Mrs. S. H. Clawson, well known to the theatrical public, Mrs. L. Cummings, (her first appearance) and Miss Ada Allen (ditto) will take parts. The second portion is a highly amusing burlesque operetta entitled "A Capital Joke," in which Messrs. J. D. Spencer and H. G. Whitney, of the above named Club, and Miss Edith Clawson and Miss Louie Wells, both accomplished vocalists will appear. The operetta is a good natured satire on Edison and his inventions, and we are informed is really a meritorious thing. The Orchestra will be composed of Messrs. Mark Croxall, C. S. Burton and other fine musicians.

A Pleasant Occasion.—A pleasant little affair, and not so very little either, took place at the residence of Sister Emeline B. Wells, in the 13th Ward, last evening. The lady was the recipient of a surprise party, arranged by Dr. Ellen B. Ferguson, Dr. R. B. Pratt, Sister M. I. Horne, and a number of other lady friends, to commemorate the anniversary of her birth. About 75 persons, including President John Taylor, Apostle F. D. Richards: Counselor D. H. Wells, Hon. Wm. Jennings, Elder C. W. Penrose, and ladies were present. Sister Wells was taken completely by surprise at the party, and completely by storm when the presentation of a handsome gold watch and other gifts were made by her warm-hearted friends. Doctor Ferguson, in presenting the watch, made an excellent speech and also read a poem composed for the occasion by Augusta J. Crocheron. This was followed by the reading of another poem, written by Emily H. Woodmansee, the reader being Dr. Roumania B. Pratt. Supper was partaken of and the feast which had been brought along by the company, was truly elegant. After the repast a kindly-worded and appropriate speech was made by President John Taylor. Various amusements were then entered into, until it was time for the assembly to disperse. Sister Wells was overpowered with gratitude for the unexpected honor shown her, which, however, was a well deserved token of the esteem in which herself and her useful labors are held by a large and steadily increasing circle of friends. Her actual birthday only occurs once in four years, being February 29, but the sisters could not wait for so long an interval.

BOARD OF TRADE.

The Delegates elected by the several Wards of this Stake for the purpose of organizing a Board of Trade, convened in the Council House at seven o'clock last evening. After the usual preliminaries the following report was submitted:

To the Chairman and members of the Convention of Delegates from the several Wards of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion, in Convention Assembled:

Gentlemen—We your committee appointed on Monday, Feb. 14, 1881, to draft the necessary documents and take other preliminary steps with a view to the organization of a Board of Trade, beg leave to report the accompanying preamble and articles of association, and respectfully recommend their adoption.

Respectfully,
JOS. E. TAYLOR,
GEORGE ROMNEY,
W. W. RITER,
JOHN NICHOLSON,
ISAAC BROCKBANK,
Committee.

The Preamble and Articles of Association above referred to were read and amended to read as follows, and so passed:

Preamble and Articles of Association of the Salt Lake Board of Trade.

PREAMBLE.

We, the delegates of the several wards of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion in convention assembled, for the purpose of organizing a Board of Trade, whose object, powers and functions shall be to promote the general welfare of the community by fostering domestic trade, protecting home manufactures, encouraging the investment of capital in the mining of coal, iron and other useful minerals; also in manufacturing and other industrial enterprises; promoting harmony between the employer and employed, or capital and labor; the diffusion of knowledge regarding the proper methods of tilling the soil and raising stock, securing to the farmer a reasonable compensation for his labor, to the capitalist a fair return on his investment, to the artisan, mechanic and laborer a just compensation for his services, and to all the greatest attainable good, do adopt these

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION.

Art. 1. The name of this Association shall be The Salt Lake Board of Trade, and the period of its existence shall be twenty-five years, unless it be sooner dissolved.

Art. 2. This association shall consist of one member from each Bishop's Ward, and four members at large.

Art. 3. The members of the Board shall be elected by a convention of delegates consisting of two from each Bishop's Ward.

Art. 4. The first election of members of this Board shall take place at the Salt Lake Assembly Hall, Salt Lake City, at 1 p. m., on the first Saturday in March, 1881, and succeeding elections annually thereafter.

Art. 5. The Board shall have power to choose from among its own members a President, first and second Vice-Presidents and Treasurer, and to select a Secretary from the members of the Board, or from such other source as they may deem best.

Art. 6. A regular meeting shall be held on the last Saturday in each month, at such time and place as may be designated, from time to time, by the Board.

Art. 7. The President joined by five members may, at any time, call a special meeting of the Board, to be held at such time and place as the notice of the holding of such meeting may specify.

Art 8. The President shall, at all meetings of the Board, have the casting vote in case of a tie, and shall have control of the business of the Board, under its direction. The Vice-Presidents shall exercise all the powers and duties of the President whenever the latter shall be absent or shall be unable, from any cause, to discharge the duties of his office in person. In the absence of the President and Vice-Presidents, a President pro tem may be elected for each meeting by and from among the members of the Board. The Board shall have power to fill any vacancy occurring by reason of death or otherwise, between the times of the general elections.

Art. 9. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to take and record minutes, attend to correspondence, be the custodian of books, papers, pamphlets or other printed and written matter, and perform such other duties as the Board may require and direct. He may also perform the duties of Treasurer.

Art. 10. One-third of the members of the Board may, at any meeting, constitute a quorum for business.

Art. 11. To provide means for the purchase of books, pamphlets, stationery, etc., or for printing and distributing useful information, or other purposes, the Board shall have power to assess its members in any sum not exceeding one dollar per month, and to provide necessary funds in such other manner as it may deem advisable.

Art. 12. These articles may be amended by the Board at any regular session at which at least two-thirds of all the members shall be present; but no amendment shall be passed at the meeting in which it is first introduced.

Art. 13. These articles shall be accepted and adopted by a vote of not less than two-thirds of all the delegates present at a meeting for that purpose.

It was decided that each delegate should call upon the Bishop and Counselors of the Ward which he respectively represented, and inform them that it was expected that two efficient men would be elected from each Ward on Thursday, March 3d, at the Fast meetings, to elect members of the Board of Trade, as provided in Articles 3 and 4 of the Articles of of Association.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

It seems strange that anyone will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and has proven itself to be the best blood purifier ever discovered, effectually curing Scrofula, Weakness of the Kidneys, all Nervous disorders and Debility. It corrects indigestion. It makes the old feel young, and the young feel gay; and will invariably drive out of the system the many ills that human flesh is heir to. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health renewer, for it acts like a charm, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system. "GROWING YOUNG AGAIN."

A gentleman, the cashier of a Western bank, who had used Compound Oxygen for a little over a month, say in a letter: "I gained eight pounds while I was taking it, and almost began to thing that I was growing young again. As I had no distinct ailment, but only a general sense of good-for-nothingness, accompanied by extreme nervousness and an inability to sleep long at a time, my case is not so striking as many others which I have read of in your pamphlet; but there must be multitudes in my condition who would use your preparation gladly if they knew of it." Our Treatise on Compound Oxygen, which is sent free, contains a large amount of information in regard to this new treatment. Address Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1109 and 1111 Girard St., Philadelphia. w5

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL

TO SEE what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East, the popular and well-known

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

You are landed by the Union Pacific R. R. in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the C. and N. W. Palace train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, elegant Day Coaches, Smoking, Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., ready to convey its passengers through Iowa and Illinois, and into Chicago. Gliding smoothly along over the superb track of steel rail through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discovers the high rate of speed at which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and ease in traveling, will find the "North Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. Ask for Tickets upon Ticket Agents selling them via this road; all Agents sell them. Examine your Tickets, and refuse to buy if they do not read over this Road. If you wish the best Traveling Accommodations, you will buy your Tickets by this route, AND WILL TAKE NO OTHER.

Remedy for Hard Times.

Stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style. Buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of running after expensive and quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, and makes the proprietors rich, but put your trust in the greatest of all simple, pure remedies, Hop Bitters, that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see better times and good health. Try it once. Read of it in another column. d&w

In the Whole History of Medicine
