

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 16, 1888.

The Lucky Numbers.

At the drawing for the sewing machines at the Burton-Gardner Company's office, the lucky number for the "Household" machine is 1347, which is held by Mrs. A. Cartwright. No. 1857 draws the "American Gem" machine, which will go to Mrs. D. S. Spencer.

Yesterday's Fire.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the roof of the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Hall was discovered to be on fire. The stove pipe connecting with the cement pipe chimney had become detached on the inner side of the roof, and the timbers thus became ignited. The fire department turned a stream onto the roof, and by the use of buckets inside soon extinguished the fire with but little damage.

Diplomacy Tonight.

This evening the Home Dramatic Club appear in the long-advertised "Diplomacy," which made so pronounced a success on its initial presentation New Year's night. This will be the last appearance of the Club for some time, as several of the members go at once to work with the Carole Opera Company on the "Mascot." The management of the Theatre have just put in new heating pipes which encircle the entire auditorium, and they state that no one need fear but that the building will be perfectly comfortable. The performance commences at 8 o'clock.

Concert at Henefer.

The most enjoyable affair of the season for the folks of Henefer took place on Friday evening, January 13th, 1888. It was a concert rendered by the pupils of the district school, about 90 participating in the exercises, which consisted of songs, dialogues, select readings, etc., rendered in a very creditable and effective manner by all the juvenile performers. A noticeable feature was the smiling faces and neat attire of a portion of "Utah's best crop." The whole concluded with a social dance. Much credit is due to Miss Allison, the teacher of the school, for the efficient manner in which the pupils were drilled, also to Miss Mary A. Fowler, the organist, and Brother John Paskett, the leader of the choir.

The Cold Wave.

The present month stands out as the coldest in the history of this valley. Once before, on Jan. 20, 1883, the thermometer went lower than it has done thus far this season—20 degrees below zero—but never has the cold spell held on to the extent of the one we are now having. Today the mercury indicated 9 deg. below zero, and yesterday it reached 17 deg. below at the Signal Service office in this city. To the outer parts of town and in the country, it reached 21 deg. The snow-fall thus far this month has been 14 inches, a very unusual amount. It has been an extremely fortunate circumstance that there have been no winds. Sergeant Korts thinks that the weather will moderate slightly, but that it will be pretty cold for some days yet.

Sentenced for Larceny.

To-day Frank Brooks, who was arrested in Ogden on Saturday, for stealing an overcoat from the Cullen Hotel in this city, was tried before Justice Pyper. He was convicted, and sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and be imprisoned in the county jail for four months.

Returned.

Dr. Ellis R. Ship returned on Saturday evening from the east. She left here in June last, and spent the summer in New York, in which place she devoted considerable time to visiting hospitals, etc. The last three months of her absence were spent in Philadelphia, where she pursued her medical studies.

Dr. Shipp had, during her absence, many opportunities to converse upon the subject of "Mormonism," and on the day before her departure from Philadelphia, she lectured before the students of the Women's Medical College. She has since been solicited to furnish, for publication in a medical journal, a summary of her lecture.

Dr. Shipp can be found at 34 Seventh East Street, where she will be pleased to see her friends.

Axel Christensen was arraigned on the charge of unlawful cohabitation; plea of not guilty entered. He was also arraigned on a charge of adultery, to which he pleaded not guilty.

United States vs. James Hansen, unlawful cohabitation; arraigned and plea of guilty entered; Feb. 13th set as date of sentence.

United States vs. Gahart Jensen, unlawful cohabitation; plea of guilty entered and Feb. 13th set as date of sentence.

Saturday had been set as the date of sentence in the cases of Wm. Williams, M. W. Merrill, Wm. Griffin, Carl M. Borgstrom, W. L. Watkins and Mads Christensen. During the forenoon Judge Emerson stated to the court in behalf of these defendants, that the winter had been very severe, and, as they were mostly farmers their presence was necessary at their farms; and that some of them had not been able to reach Ogden, on account of the snow and storms. He wound up by asking that the sentences be postponed until the second Monday in February. District Attorney Peters offering no objections the court ordered that the sentence be postponed.

In the case of A. J. Kershaw, sentence was postponed, and a motion for a new trial was made by J. N. Kimball, who gave a number of reasons for the motion. The matter was taken under advisement by the court.

In the case of Allen Hunsaker, who was charged with resisting the officers, a fine of $250 was inflicted.

THE LEGISLATURE.

COUNCIL.

Monday, Jan. 16, 1888.

The Council met pursuant to adjournment at 2 p. m. and after roll call and prayer by the chaplain, the journal of Saturday was read and approved.

A communication was received from the House embodying a concurrent resolution for a protest to be presented by Hon. John T. Caine against the proposed reduction of the tariff on lead. On motion of Woolley the resolution was adopted.

Letters were received from W. C. Hall, James Jack, Joseph Barton and O. J. Hollister, thanking the Council for the freedom of the Council.

Woolley, chairman of the committee on judiciary, reported recommending that the amendments of the House to C. F. No. 1 be not concurred in.

The report was adopted and the House notified.

Young presented a bill entitled "A bill for an act in relation to divorce and for the more effectual protection of the lawful wife and to aid in the suppression of polygamy and polygamous practices."

A communication was read from the Governor nominating Arthur Pratt for auditor of public accounts and Bollivar Roberts for territorial treasurer.

Marshall moved his reference to a select committee of three to reply at an early day to the Council.

Woolley wanted to understand why it should be referred.

Marshall thought it proper in consequence of the dispute as to the proper mode in this matter. The Governor can nominate, the Council can approve. The matter is in the courts.

Woolley thought it out of regular order of business.

Marshall didn't know what the regular order was, but wanted it to have proper consideration.

Woolley thought the Council as a whole in executive session should consider this matter. Marshall said there is no nomination to the Senate of the United States but is referred to a (1 talk) special committee.

Woolley still thought it better to consider the question in executive session, following our own precedent, and then if necessary refer it.

Smoot moved to amend by referring to the committee of the whole.

Woolley was in favor of the usual method.

Young wanted to ask what had been the result of consideration in executive session heretofore. If nothing harmonious had resulted, why not try the method of Mr. Marshall. It may not be more amicable, but let us try it.

Woolley, in answer to the gentleman's question he would say, the mode had always resulted in something being accomplished. The Council has always arrived at a decision.

The motions were lost and the Governor's communication was filed for consideration in executive session.

Marshall moved to proceed to executive session now.

The President said he had just received a communication from the House which the clerk would read. It consisted of a concurrent resolution providing for the publication of 200 copies of the law of Congress restricting territorial legislation, for the use of the Legislature. The resolution was adopted.

The House notified the Council of the appointment of Moyle, Thurman and Hoge as a committee to confer with a like committee of the Council on the bill for the compilation of the laws of Utah.

Messrs. Woolley, Marshall and Bryant were appointed by the president as a committee on the part of the Council to confer with the committee of the House on that subject.

Carlisle then moved a recess for fifteen minutes in order to allow the committee to confer.

Woolley reported from the committee on conference for compilation of the laws that they had substantially agreed with the House committee—but requiring further time to make out their report. The time was allowed.

Marshall asked to be excused tomorrow on account of special business.

Granted.

On motion of Marshall the Council adjourned.

Benediction by the chaplain.

HOUSE.

Several members of the House and the chaplain were absent at roll call at 2 p. m. today. Some time was consumed in amending the minutes, when Allen presented a petition from E. T. Sprague for an appropriation as remuneration for services as clerk of the Territorial Supreme Court in cases under Territorial laws, and moved its reference to the committee on claims.

Thurman made the remark that Mr. Sprague's claim would likely be provided for in the appropriation bill, but did not object to the reference of his petition.

Richards presented a claim of G. R. Benap of Weber County, which was referred to the claims committee.

Clark presented the claim of D. R. Harrington for remuneration as minute clerk of the last House, with two years' interest. Same reference.

Messages from the Council were read, announcing its concurrence in the House resolution requesting Hon. John T. Caine to oppose the reduction of the tariff on lead, and its non-concurrence in the House amendments to C. F. 1, in relation to compiling the laws.

On motion of Moyle a conference committee was appointed viz., Thurman and Hoge.

A bill in relation to a Territorial board of equalization was introduced and referred.

A bill in reference to the election of municipal officers was introduced and referred.

A bill prescribing the manner of constructing doors in public buildings was introduced and referred.

A bill to establish a territorial reform school was introduced and referred.

The speaker announced that the clerk's table was cleared, but suggested that the conference committee on compilation might be able to report shortly.

On motion, the House took a recess to await an announcement of the conference committee.

After a recess lasting a little less than an hour, the Speaker called the House to order.

King moved that the Clerk of the House be instructed to notify certain persons that the freedom of the House was extended to them. They embraced the Governor, federal officers, etc.

The conference committee reported progress, and that it would likely be able to report a bill tomorrow.

Hatch introduced a concurrent resolution authorizing the House committee on claims to employ clerical assistance. Adopted.

Messages from the Council were read, announcing the appointment of a conference committee on the compilation bill, and concurrence in the House resolution providing for the printing of 200 copies of the congressional law restricting Territories from passing laws of certain kinds.

On motion of King the House adjourned.

THE GILA VALLEY.

Its Extent and Fertility.—Prices of Produce.

SAFFORD, Graham Co., Arizona, Jan. 4, 1888.

Editor Deseret News:

Since leaving my home in Taylor, Apache Co., I have traveled through a considerable portion of this Territory, and a part of New Mexico, coming by way of Luna Valley, N. M. I find the road over the mountains to be very rough and crooked.

On arriving at the Gila River we find a beautiful, transparent stream, about as large as the Provo River, in Utah. We traveled forty miles down the river to get to this place.

In our opinion this valley has been greatly misrepresented. It is a beautiful valley and very extensive. It is bounded on the south by the Graham Mountains, whose lofty peaks are now capped with snow, and on the north by the Mogollan range of mountains.

THE VALLEY.

Is covered with mesquit and heavy brush, and is very productive. Grain of all kinds does well here and commands good prices, bringing the farmer one and a half cents per pound at his door. All kinds of produce brings corresponding good prices. Eggs bring 35 to 40 cents per dozen; butter 35 to 50 cents per pound.

Potatoes, both Irish and sweet, yield well, and grow very large. President C. Layton informed the writer that three sweet potatoes which came under his observation weighed 21 pounds; they were raised at Thatcher last season.

Thousands of acres of fertile land that is now lying waste in the Gila valley will in the near future be brought under cultivation.

The health of the people is generally good. We hear of no cases of chills and fever at present. This disease is principally confined to those who are located near the river on the low and swampy bottoms, as those that live away from the river on higher ground are not troubled with it. The Gila is not as sickly a country as has been reported by many.

Respectfully yours,
A. G. McCLEVE.
