SESSION OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

Impressive Funeral Services Over Remains of George G. Taylor.

NEW UTAHA THEATER OPENING

Ruben Evans Returns from German Mission—West Weber School Affairs—Weddings.

At the regular meeting of the city council last night, Councilman William Craig was elected mayor pro tem to serve during the absence of Mayor Giesman on a campaign tour.

The council passed three ordinances, one levying the tax for paving Grant avenue between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets; another ordinance for creating sewer district No. 8 and a third for paving and gutting Twenty-third street between Wall and Madison avenues.

The street committee recommended that Thirty-second street from Porter to Quincy avenue be opened and graded. A petition asking for the opening of Porter avenue from Twenty-third street south to the city limits was referred to the street committee.

Officer Zach Sleeth was granted a leave of absence until Nov. 10. The leave was granted at Officer Sleeth's request, as he wishes to give his attention to his campaign for sheriff.

WEST WEBER SCHOOL AFFAIRS.

The complications of the West Weber school district will be again before the board of county commissioners Thursday morning at a special meeting to be held for the purpose of adjusting the matter. West Weber was recently cut off from the school district to permit the taxpayers of that place to liquidate $2,000 of indebtedness which the district of No. 1 had repudiated.

The separation brings up various questions of responsibility for smaller debts and the ownership of school property. The trustees of both districts, together with the county school superintendent, will meet with the board in an endeavor to adjust matters. The county commissioners yesterday transacted the usual business pertaining to roads and other routine business.

WEDDING BELLS.

Marriage licenses have been granted to the county clerk to the following couples: Isaac Flinders, 28, and Miss Cora Blanch Hendrickson, 19, both of Ogden. Thomas W. Stokes, 22, and Miss Annie E. Nichols, 18, both of Point Lookout. Bookler county. They were married at the county clerk's office by James Stokes, father of the bridegroom.

William P. Michael, 24, of Pocatello, Idaho, and Miss Ellen F. Strum, 18, of Ogden.

Samuel J. Grix, 23, and Miss Ella K. Chandler, 22, both of Ogden City. They will be married in the Salt Lake Temple tomorrow. The groom to be is one of the popular mail carriers of Ogden.

Elder Reuben Evans, son of Supt. Thomas B. Evans of the Weber stake Sunday school, who has been in Germany on a mission for the past 21 months, returned Saturday, enjoying the best of health and spirits. He reports that the missionary work in that portion is progressing quite satisfactorily, though the restrictions placed upon the "Mormon" missionaries, the right to hold public meetings and distribute tracts is denied the missionaries in most parts of the nation. Notwithstanding these disadvantages, the Elders are making many converts.

OGDEN'S NEW UTAHA THEATER.

Ogden's new playhouse, the Utaha theater, which has been erected on Twenty-fifth street just above Washington avenue, is one of the best vaudeville theaters in Utah. The building, which has been completed during the past week, is substantial and attractive, having a seating capacity of 1,500, with a fine large stage and pretty scenery.

C. C. Richards, Jr., who has so successfully conducted the Utaha park during the past summer, will manage the new theater. The building is commodious and artistic on the interior, which is finished in a pretty decorative scheme of cream and red. It is well lighted with electricity, and in all is a fine little theater, that will be well provided with good vaudeville performances to please the theatergoing public of Ogden. The new playhouse has its opening tonight with a strong company of 12 performers.

GEORGE G. TAYLOR LAID TO REST

All that was mortal of George G. Taylor was laid to rest yesterday afternoon in the Ogden city cemetery after a funeral service held at the Fifth ward meetinghouse. The speakers were George Poulter, Hon. F. J. Cannon, Joseph William Taylor of Salt Lake City, Thomas A. Shreeve and H. H. Thomas, who eulogized the deceased and spoke of the hope beyond the grave, giving comfort to the bereaved family. The ward choir furnished some sweet music. Many beautiful floral offerings were laid on the casket. The Ogden Typographical union, of which deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body, and acted as pallbearers.

UNDER BONDS TO KEEP PEACE.

Alfred Henderson was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Sebring and Benlap last evening on the charge of threatening to kill Mrs. Bessie Hill. The complaint alleges on Oct. 12 Henderson pulled a pistol on Mrs. Hill and threatened to shoot her head off. Henderson was taken before Judge J. A. Howell and his bond fixed at $500, which he promptly furnished. J. P. O'Neill, with whom he is employed, going on his bond. Mr. Henderson is quite well known in Ogden. He denies the charge made by the woman. It is understood the woman and he had some trouble over a considerable sum of money, which she, it is said, obtained from him. The preliminary hearing of the case will come in a few days, when some interesting facts pertaining to the action are expected to develop.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING.

Mark Barnes, the music dealer, had his horse and buggy taken Friday afternoon from the honor of his place in business on Washington avenue. He reported the matter to the police and sheriff's office, who were unable to locate it until yesterday, when it was found at Pleasant View by Deputy Sheriff Robert Shaw. He found it at Cragan Brothers' farm, where it had been placed Saturday morning by Mr. Cragan. It was found that the horse and buggy had been driven to Pleasant View by a young man named Cyril Price, who went there to a dance. He fled the outfit up behind the hall and went in and danced. Being under the influence of liquor he forgot the horse and buggy after the ball, and left it out in the cold all night, without either feed or water. Deputy Shaw placed the young man under arrest and

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

Joseph Taylor was arrested last evening on the charge of cruelty to animals; he left his team out all Saturday night in the cold rain.

A largely attended Republican rally was held Saturday night at Huntsville. The Democrats held forth at the same place last night.

Manager Grant of the Grand Opera House has two strong bookings for this week—this evening, "The Sign of the Four" will be presented, and Thursday and Friday will give a matinee and night performance in Stanislaus' strange new play entitled "Salambo".

A farewell party will be given Friday evening in the First ward amusement hall in honor of Elder Elmer C. Jones, who leaves soon on a mission to California.

Elder Madison, who for the past three years has been laboring as a missionary in Germany, has returned home much pleased with his successful labors.

C. F. Middleton, B. F. Livingston, E. T. Woolley, James L. Middleton and Miss Minnie Kiesel have been appointed delegates to the Transmississippi congress, which meets at St. Louis the latter part of this month.

A meeting of the Republican ladies of the city and county is called for Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the county court house to perfect the organization of the Ladies' Republican club.

DEATH OF RUDGER J. WHITE.

Rudger J. White, a well known and highly respected young man of Kaneville, Weber county, died yesterday at his home from a severe attack of typhoid fever, from which he had suffered for over a month. He was 16 years of age, and has resided at Kaneville all his life; he is the son of Charles L. and Elizabeth Starkey White. The funeral services will be held at the Kaneville ward meetinghouse, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

EXCITING ENCOUNTER WITH BEAR.

Frank Adams, a sheep herder, who has been herding sheep near Joseph Peery at the head of Beaver canyon, brought to the county clerk's office yesterday afternoon the pelt of a huge bear which he had killed, and received $250 bounty on the same. Mr. Adams had a very thrilling experience a couple of days ago when he encountered the bear near his camp. He only had a 22 rifle with which to defend himself against the mad beast, which came towards him with open mouth. He leveled the gun and poured a dozen shots into its body, the last shot fortunately taking effect in the infuriated beast's brain, ending its career. It is almost certain that had not the last shot struck the bear in the brain it would have pounced on Mr. Adams and killed him. The bear weighed about 800 pounds.

UNUSUALLY GOOD CROPS OF TOMATOES AND BEETS—MISSIONARY DEPARTURES.

Special Correspondence. Willard, Boxelder Co., Oct. 17.—Again the dreaded typhoid is in our midst. There are at present four cases.

The tomato crop this year is unusually good. For about three weeks the canners have been unable to handle the tomatoes as fast as they have ripened and as a result considerable of the crop has spoiled. The output this season will greatly exceed last year's.

The beet crop is excellent. After a week's shutdown, digging begins again today.

Apolos B. and Asa Taylor, two of our promising young men, left Salt Lake on the 16th inst. for a mission to New Zealand. Prior to their departure a purse of $100 was raised for each of them through entertainments given under the direction of the amusement committee.

The "political pot" is beginning to get somewhat heated. The district schools are quite well attended and are doing good work.

George H. Tribe, wife and daughter have returned from a pleasant visit at St. Louis.

Presidential Election will make no Change.

No matter which candidate is elected, Foleys' Honey and Tar will remain the people's favorite remedy for coughs, colds and incipient consumption. It cures colds quickly and prevents pneumonia. A. J. Nutsham, Batesville, Ind. writes: "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me. But did not improve. I then tried Foleys' Honey and Tar and eight doses cured me." Sold by F. J. Hill Drug Co.

BEE DIGGING RESUMED.

Only One Case of Smallpox Remaining—Increasing School Facilities.

Special Correspondence. Monroe, Sevier Co., Oct. 14.—After a stoppage of 10 days, bee diggers will commence to dig the sweet roots. These stoppages are very annoying—more especially as the weather is quite cold.

Miss Lillian Andersen has just returned from a few months' visit with her sisters in Canada, and Sister Ida Gould has left for Canada to spend a time with her sisters.

Sister Dora Nielsen left for Salt Lake City last week to be operated upon for lung trouble. She was accompanied by her husband, Brigham Nielsen, and her brother, Lorenzo Lisonbe. Much anxiety has felt here for the result. Believing that the operation will be successful, the school board has rented the town hall and will fit it up for the primary department.

Dr. J. B. Nelson, the quarantine physician, reports that one case left of smallpox, and hopes the disease is entirely subdued.

The potato crop is very prolific this year and of good quality.

The Best Doctor.

Rev. B. C. Horton, Sulphur Springs, Texas, writes, July 28, 1899: "I have used in my family Ballard's Snow Liniment for many years, and it has proved to be the best I have ever used for headache and pains. It is expected to have the walls up in two more weeks, and as soon as possible the roof will be put on, which is all that is intended to be accomplished this year.

This valley has been visited recently by two good rains and the ground is in a good condition for putting in fall grain.

MRS. STENA ELISON DEAD.

Republicans Honor Local Citizens—Quarterly Conference Nov. 6 and 7.

Special Correspondence. Oakley, Cassia Co., Oct. 12.—Mrs. Stena Elison, widow of Erick Elison, died yesterday at her home here today. She had been troubled with slight attacks of rheumatism for a day or two, but felt easier today until the middle of the afternoon, when the affliction seemed to touch the heart and she expired in a few minutes. Mrs. Elison was born at Gomersburg, Sweden, July 12, 1829, emigrating to Utah in 1853, residing at Grantville, Millville and Logan, respectively.

The deceased has been a widow for nine years. Three children survive her, Joseph Elison of Garland, Utah, and Mrs. Edith Gray and Emma Elison of Oakley. The family is highly respected for their sterling integrity and devotion to the cause of truth.

DEATH OF A CHILD.

Another death occurred in the family of Charles Chadwick this morning. Their little son, aged 19 months, appears to have eaten too heartily of cabbage, which the stomach was unable to digest, and after an unsuccessful effort to relieve the child with medical aid the little fellow passed away as before said.

Confidence visitors are returning from Salt Lake bringing with them enthusiastic reports of the success of the meetings and of the Utaha stake fair.

REPUBLICANS HONOR LOCAL CITIZENS.

At the recent Republican convention, held at Abilene, Tex. four townsmen were honored with nominations, viz: George A. Day, for the state senate, and John L. Smith, for the position of assessor and collector of Cassia county.

ACADEMY OPENS.

The Cassia state academy has opened with an enrollment of over 50 students. The aim of the general board of education is to give the school all the advanced work that can be successfully carried on. Many young people will yet enter this fall.

Appointment for quarterly conference in the Cassia stake has been made for Nov. 6 and 7, at Oakley.

There are lots of small steers and beef cows that will be held over this year and for this reason there will be rather tight for some people.

The crops were very good this year. Ward conference was held here last Sunday.

The trees and all vegetation are bending low under the weight of the adhering snow. We have as yet had no frost to kill the tender vines and all are green and fresh under the snow.
