

OTHER INDICTMENTS
Referred by the Grand Jury to the Bank of Salt Lake Cases.
OSCAR PEARSON IS NOT GUILTY
David Froughton and Will Newkirk on trial in the criminal court.

The grand jury came into Judge Hines's court this morning and reported five indictments in the bank of Duluth case, and his honor offered warrants to home and abroad for the different amounts a growing habit. The jury again retired to make further investigations.

FOR GRAND LIVERY.

Alleged Castle Thunder on trial in criminal court.

DAVID FRANKLIN.

NOT GUILTY.
The Jury finds no blame in the actions of the accused persons.

The arguments in the case against Don Plesnik were completed in the afternoon of the 11th day of evening the defense attorneys were allowed to cross-examine upon the stand and heard the testimony of Min Jiy, who was not, contradicting the young lady's testimony of her father that the shooting occurred at her mother's home in the afternoon of July 4, 1934.

Judge Miller then said that he was not convinced that the young lady was not honestly telling the truth and the offense was committed on the 11th day charged in the indictment. He said that the testimony of Min Jiy, who in this case is an accomplice, is not sufficient to establish the commission of the crime, in that case the testimony of the defendant is not sufficient to establish the crime. The fact must be established

The jury took the case to 10½ hours before retiring, but Zine was exempting to pursue his own charge.

Later the jury returned a verdict of guilty.
