

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

MISS KATHERINE ROGERS as "Leah" in "Leah, the Forsaken," and "Margery" in the "Rough Diamond," at the Theatre to-night.

IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been relaid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets by the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western. You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information, with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago.

Some of the papers in publishing 14th notes follow them up with the explanation: "The 14th note is a 100 pounder," etc. Why wouldn't it be as useful to finish up death notices the same way—"a 100 pounder," "a 300 pounder," or marriage notices—"respectively 100 and 170 pounders." But then some of them would be wife-pounders and that wouldn't do. Take it all back—let 'em pound.—Ez.

CHAMBER'S ENCYCLOPEDIA.—Messrs. J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, announce that, by a recent purchase, they have become the sole proprietors of the American Revised Edition of the "Chamber's Encyclopedia," and are thereby enabled to offer the work at much lower rates than hitherto. In the course of its recent thorough revision, the American edition was edited with the special view of supplying the wants of American readers. It also possesses a special attraction in containing a series of over seventy-five full-page engravings not contained in any other edition. 450

A FRIGHTFUL CHORUS.—Nothing strikes so unpleasantly upon the ear of an affectionate parent as the wheezing, snuffing, coughing, and hoarse voices of a family of children laboring under bad colds.

A chorus of this dismal kind is kept up in some households the winter through, simply because the father and mother are either ignorant of the means of cure or are guilty of gross neglect. HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR, will establish quiet in three days. No cough or cold can resist its soothing influence.

PIKE'S TOOTH-ACHE DROPS.—Cure in one minute.

PURE OLIVE OIL.—Constantly on hand the genuine article directly imported from France, for sale by Louis A. Bertrand, at his residence, half a block west from the Valley House and three doors from the Utah Hotel, and by Mr. Risley, watchmaker, opposite the Everett Office; price from fifty cents to two dollars, according to the size of the bottles.

Are a Frenchman, I do testify that my olive oil is the very best in the market.

NOTICE.

About the 29th Inst. a team will leave the Tithing Office with supplies for the St. George Temple. Any persons wishing to forward articles to men working on the Temple can do so with this team free of charge, by leaving them plainly addressed at Bishop Hunter's office.

Those Mules.—A dispatch from deputy sheriff Samuel D. Sirrine, from Laramie, states that that officer had succeeded in gaining possession of the mules stolen from Mr. R. J. Golding.

Glutton.—The hay market is glutted just now. Any numbers of loads of the article, but not many purchasers, probably not for the lack of the people who need it, but more on account of the lack of the where-withal to buy it with.

Accident.—Night before last Sister Armet, wife of Brother John Armet, of the 20th Ward, had the misfortune to break her arm, between the wrist and elbow joint. The accident occurred while the lady was attempting to drive a cow into the barn. It being nearly dark at the time, she stumbled over some brush and fell.

Who is She?—There is an aged Swedish woman going around town soliciting alms, who refuses to give any further account of herself than that her name is Anna, and that she formerly lived in some part of Sanpete. It is probable that she may have left her home without the knowledge of her relatives, presuming she has any, by whom she should be looked after and cared for.

The Iron Works.—To-day we met Mr. W. B. Pace, who has lately been on a visit to the Iron Works at Iron City, Iron County, and from whom we learn that everything is progressing favorably in connection with this enterprise. Iron is being turned out steadily, and orders for castings are frequently being received and filled. A new blast furnace is in process of construction and is expected to commence running in March.

Information Wanted.—Graham Douglass, of Fort Ephraim, Sanpete, left his home, at that place, over six months ago, to search for employment in this city. His wife and children, at Ephraim, have not heard anything from him since shortly after being informed by him of his arrival here, and are very much concerned about him and anxious to gain some tidings of his whereabouts. Any person that can communicate anything concerning him to those desiring the information will perform a good action in doing so.

19th Ward U. O. Soap Factory.—Specimens of soap, comprising castle, Thomas's Patent, and pale sapon, made at the above establishment were exhibited at the News office yesterday afternoon, which, judging by appearances, are fully equal to any imported soaps now in this market. The managers of the factory will shortly have ready for market, a supply of toilet, shaving and fuller's scouring soaps, also of miners' adamantine candles, all of which they warrant to be fully equal if not superior to anything in the same line in the Salt Lake market of foreign make. Having started the enterprise, they are determined to make it a success, and to ensure this they have secured the necessary apparatus and skill, and offer to the public various brands of soap, the quality of which cannot be surpassed and at the very lowest market prices. All they ask is a trial of their several brands, being satisfied that that is all that is necessary to ensure complete success to their enterprise.

That Sneak Business.—The person alluded to in last evening's News, as the would be claimant of Mr. Smith's land, made another brief call yesterday morning, in order to ascertain why the lady had not visited a certain wagon office, at a certain time, according to request, when he was very briefly informed that she was not in the habit of either buying or selling property, or anything else, without the knowledge or counsel of Mr. Smith. Why can not this matter be settled in the legal way, on the facts of the case, and this sneaking underhand business be dropped? It is not congenial to Utah wives to visit wagon offices, unknown to their husbands, to do business with other men.

A Good Picture.—We have seen a life sized bust portrait of the late respected Elder Thomas Williams. It is an oil painting, and was taken from a photograph of the subject. In our view and in the opinion of many persons who have seen it, it is an excellent portrait, bearing a very strong resemblance to the original.

Although the picture was finished several days ago, and hung for some time in Mr. Savage's gallery, we have not alluded to it in the News till now, the reason being that we desired to see it, and form a judgment upon the merits of the picture, previous to being made aware that it was the production of one of our home artists. Some people have a most deplorable weakness for placing a marked appreciation on foreign productions, pictures included, and a corresponding depreciation of any thing that is produced at home. The saying that "a prophet hath honor save in his own country" does not appear to apply exclusively to the inspired predictors of future events, but also to matters of production of every kind in the particular localities where they are produced. In judging of pictures or anything else, a person should be certain that his conclusions are based on correct hypotheses, and that his opinion is the result exclusively of the real estimate he has formed of the merits or demerits of the article under consideration. Why prejudice should run at all in the channel indicated, it is hard to say, but that it frequently does is in many instances a self-evident fact. It would be better, providing prejudice were allowable, under any circumstances, that it should lean the other way, for then it would tend to the cultivation and encouragement of art and manufacture in every locality where such an inclination were fostered; and this applied universally would tend more to progress in that direction in the world generally.

The portrait was painted by Mr. Geo. M. Ottinger, of this City.

Theatre.—Last night the beautiful drama of "Galatea, the Statue," excellently performed, was witnessed by a large and appreciative audience. Miss Rogers enacted the part of "Galatea" in her well known able and artistic style, and was ably supported by the company.

This evening there is a most attractive and liberal bill, consisting of the romantic and powerful drama of "Leah, the Forsaken," and the popular farce of the "Rough Diamonds."

In "Leah," Miss Rogers appears in the title role, Miss Cogswell as "Anna," Mrs. Douglas as "Martha," Miss Napper as "Jewess," Miss D. Clawson as "Rose," Miss I. Clawson as "Little Leah," Mr. Margolis as "Lorenz," Mr. Forster as "Adelbert," Mr. Lindsay as "The Schoolmaster," Mr. Marden as "The Pastor."

In the "Rough Diamond" Miss Rogers appears as "Margery," Miss Cogswell as "Lady Plato," Mr. Marden as "Sir William Evergreen," and Mr. J. C. Graham in the Buckstonian character of "Cousin Joe."

During the evening the Orchestra will perform "Balklunge Waltzen" by J. Streibinger, and "Wiegen a Wogen, Schottische," by A. Lehman.

To-morrow evening, for the benefit of Miss Rogers, that talented lady will appear in the beautiful and popular comedy of "An Unequal Match."

A "Bummer"—A fellow, giving the name of William Brandon, was picked off the streets last night by the police and placed in the lock-up. He had on his person an unsigned certificate, stating that, in traveling from the east, he had been robbed of his railway ticket for San Francisco and his money, and had been put off the train and had his feet frozen from exposure. On the strength of this piece of paper he has been soliciting, and subsisting on charitable contributions, upon which it is supposable he also got drunk.

The Utah Southern.—The Utah Southern Railroad will commence running trains to and from Payson on and after Monday, February 1st. Should the weather continue as favorable as it is at present, it is expected that the road will be completed to its southern terminus by the 20th of February.

A Relief.—To-day we saw a relic of the past, lately received from Erie, Pa., by Mr. James H. Vannatta, of this city. It was an oak walking stick, made from the plank of the flagship of Commodore Perry, of the war of 1812.

Lecture.—Mr. Savage had a large and attentive audience last evening at the 19th Ward Literary Institute, to hear what he had to say about "Things Not Generally Known."

There is a message at the W. U. Tel. Office for Mrs. Kate Berry.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Right of Way Granted.

WASHINGTON, 23.—The House bill granting the right of way and depot grounds to the Oregon Central Pacific railway company, through the public lands of the U. S. from Winnemucca, Nev., to the Columbia River, via Portland, Oregon, was amended and passed. Begs submitted a resolution instructing the judiciary committee to inquire into the expediency of repealing the act of June 1, 1872, granting a subsidy to the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.; Sprague, of R. I., objected to the present consideration of the resolution, and it was sent to the judiciary committee.

Petitions against More Taxation.

The Louisiana Discussion.

After the presentation of a large number of petitions against the restoration of the duty on tea and coffee, and for the repeal of the act of 72, the Senate adjourned. The duties of 10 per cent duty, the business on the calendar was proceeded with, and at the expiration of the morning hour the Louisiana discussion was resumed. Conkling took the floor. The galleries were densely crowded, and many persons enjoying the privilege of the floor occupied seats there.

HOUSE.

Filibustering Continued.

10 a.m. The situation is unchanged. The republicans are determined to hold out till Monday, when the rules may be suspended; they hope by that time that the refractory republicans will yield. The house has not been without a quarrel since the contest commenced; the democrats can spare about half their number for rest.

dred and ninety voted the last call.

The Dead Lock, and an Effort to Break it.

There was no change throughout the afternoon, McCrary asked when it would be in order to move to amend the rules, so as to break the dead lock. The speaker said not till Monday. McCrary then gave notice that, on Monday, he would make such a motion. This was objected to, and the roll call was continued. This indicates it to be the policy of the majority to renew, next Monday, the motion which was made and defeated last Monday, to amend the rules so as to prohibit, for the rest of the session, the speaker from entertaining dilatory motions whenever such a measure is before the House. Under such a rule, the passage of the civil rights bill and other acts having the support of a majority of the members, would be plain sailing.

EASTERN.

The McGarran Affair.

NEW YORK, 23.—The McGarran resolution proves not to be a joint resolution, simply an instruction by the house, alone, which thus undertakes, without legislation, to reopen a case which the courts have settled, and to disturb vested rights which the judiciary have affirmed.

Tilton Called.

In the Beecher trial, to-day, ex-Judge Fullerton called Theo. Tilton, who took the chair for Mr. Everts objected to Tilton being sworn, and made a long argument.

Mare Island.

WASHINGTON, 23.—The senate naval committee's report has the following in regard to Mare Island: "This is the only navy yard on the Pacific coast. It is within the defenses of San Francisco, and is supplied by the resources of that city. All the conditions are presented here to create a great dock yard—an ample area, extensive water front, and solid foundations. The Pacific fleet depend on this yard for the necessary repairs. Congress has always recognized the necessity for one great naval establishment on the Pacific coast, and has been liberal in appropriations for permanent improvements, which have mainly been judiciously expended. A dry dock of the best character is being constructed at this yard, which should be speedily completed. The quay wall, which has been commenced, should be continued, and a supply of fresh water created. The roads should be paved, being now impassable in the wet season. These are at present the principal necessities of this yard." The buildings and quarters are reported to be in good condition, and no estimate for repairs is submitted.

Killed.

The Senate, while working on its calendar to-day, reached Pratt's bill to compel all quartz miners to take out patents for their claims, at five dollars per acre. This bill was strenuously urged by Squire and warmly opposed by Senators Sargent and Jones, before the public lands committee, last year, and was reported adversely by that committee. To-day it was indefinitely postponed without opposition or discussion. This action killed it.

Kellogg to be Recognized.

The Senate committee on privileges and elections have decided that the Kellogg administration should be recognized as the legal government of Louisiana. The vote stood, ayes—Morton, Logan, Anthony, and Mitchell; nays—Corn, Hamilton and Saulsbury. Absent—Carpenter and Wadleigh. Absent stated, in committee, that if this resolution were adopted, it should vote in the Senate to admit Pinchback.

Greeting to the Republicans.

CONCORD, N. H., 23.—The Republican State committee, yesterday, sent the following to Speaker Blaine: "The Republican State committee, in convention assembled, send greeting to the true republicans in the Congress of the United States, and ask them to stand by the civil rights bill, and by Grant, Sheridan and Sherman in their efforts to protect the constitutional rights of every citizen of the republic, and the republicans of New Hampshire will stand by you on the second Tuesday in March."

St. PAUL, 23.—Ignatius Donnelly having withdrawn from the senatorial contest last night, the democrats nominated Hon. Wm. Loomer. The first ballot to-day the vote was—Donnelly, 30; Loomer, 23; Pillsbury, 7; the rest scattering.

Congressional Investigation Continued.

NEW ORLEANS, 23.—The congressional committee, to-day, examined I. A. Bessie, of the cavalry stationed at St. Martinsville last October. He stated that while going for the U. S. marshal he was asked to stand by the white league. The colored people told him that the whites had taken their arms from them after making some money by the sale of arms to the whites. They were needed to St. Martinsville, and while crossing a field they saw a squad of men whom they were told were white league men. They gave numerous instances of abuse and intimidation of negroes by whites at New Iberia. After the election he saw a band of 30 armed men, who gave three cheers for the white league.

FOREIGN.

FRANCE.

PARIS, 23.—The specie in the Bank of France has increased 20,557,000 francs during the week.

SPAIN.

Taken Several of the Carlists' Positions. MADRID, 23.—The national army has advanced on the Carlists, and has already taken several of their positions; King Alfonso is with his army.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Rate of Discount—Increase of Bullion.

LONDON, 23.—The directors of the Bank of England to-day fixed the discount rate at three per cent. The bullion in the Bank increased £231,000 the past week. The proportion of the bank reserve to liability, which, last week, was 47, is now 56 per cent.
