

AGAIN A WOMAN
DECEIVES A MAN

Herbert D. Newton of Brookline, Mass., Sues Mrs. Cassie Chadwick of Cleveland, O.

THE AMOUNT IS $190,800
According to the Plaintiff the Lady
Told Him a Beautiful Fairy Tale.

To Various Banks Who Want Their Good Money Back.

New York, Nov. 28.—A sensation has been caused here by the bringing of built by Herbert D. Newton of Brookline, Mass., against Mrs. Cassi Chadwick of Cleveland, O., for $19,500 for money loaned, Mrs. Chadwick is the wife of a Cleveland physician. In addition to Mr. Newton's suit, several banks have taken legal action to recover various amounts which bring the total sum to $267,300.

F. W. Carver of Boston, attorney for Mr. Newton, in a statement made for his client said that when the loan became payable it was not met and that then he, Mr. Carver, had a conference with Mrs. Chadwick and her counsel.

"The statement was made to me," said Mr. Carver, "that the securities held as a trust fund would soon be released and that in a short time all the various obligations would be paid."

"Later, I went to Cleveland, where I held a conference with Mr. Reynolds, but he refused to disclose any information

"Following another conference with Mrs. Chadwick's counsel last Monday we decided to bring a suit in equity for the recovery of the money and have obtained an injunction restraining Mr. Reynolds from putting the securities

The magnitude of the suits and sensational stories growing out of the case have attracted much attention.

NEWTON IS NOT ALONE.

Boston, Nov. 25.—Herbert E. Newton of Brookline, Mass., who has sued Mrs. Cassie Chadwick of Cleveland, O., for $199,800, is a well-to-do business man. Concerning the action against Mrs. Chadwick, he says that suit has been brought in the common pleas court of Cleveland, to recover a $100,000 loan made to Mrs. Chadwick for which promised payments had not been made when due.

"I am not alone concerned in this matter," said he, "but I must decline to tell who are the other parties. I made the loan to Mrs. Chadwick, but she is not the only person who has been promised payments by Mrs. Chadwick, that she agreed to make."

OBERLIN BANK CLOSED.

Oberlin, Ohio, Nov. 28.—The Citizens National bank of this place was closed today. The action was taken as a result of a meeting of the board of directors held yesterday. The following notice was posted on the bank door today:

A financial statement issued by the bank in September last showed the cap-

C. G. Beckwith is president of the institution. The bank was founded in 1858. It is generally understood that the bank carried notes of Mrs. Cassie Chadwick of Cleveland to a large amount.

New York, Nov. 27.—Two prisoners escaped from Governor's Island today by jumping from the parapet of Castle William to the ground, 30 feet below.

Doyle, made their way unobserved to the water front, where they swam to a small dory anchored near shore, in which they rowed out into the bay.

They hailed a ferryboat, which picked them up and, believing them to be shipwrecked sailors, landed them in Brooklyn, where further trace of them was lost.

Dunning and Doyle were transferred to Governor's island about eight months ago from western posts from which they had deserted.

See, Hay's Old Teacher Dead:

Chicago, Nov. 26.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Galesburg, Ill., says: H. R. Hohnes, one of the best known insurance men in the state and who had an office in Chicago at the time of the big fire in 1871, is dead. He was a teacher of Sec. of State John Hay.

Matthew White Ridley Dead.

Ridley, Viscount Ridley, formerly secretary of state for the home department, died suddenly today of heart failure while asleep at Bladgon, his seat in Northumberland. He was born in 1842.

NEW YEARS CARDS.
 Prest. Loubet Orders Resumption
 Of Receiving Them

Paris, Nov. 28.—President Loubet has directed the resumption of the practice of receiving New Year's cards. The ministers and the public generally will follow suit, thus reviving the old custom. This is due to an appeal of the engravers, who convinced the president that the exchange of such cards was damaged by his previous order; discontinuing the practise.